Isen Assured Teachers Want To Help Children

Albert Isen, candidate for the Torrance Board of Education, reports phone calls from many teachers and one principal following his comments on the local school situation, reported in last week's Torrance Herald, and states he was assured by them that the quality of their work will not be affected in any way by the forth-coming loss of control of Torrance schools by the Los Angeles Board of Education.

Isen, Torrance attorney and evening school teacher in the Los Angeles city school system for ten years prior to 1944, clarified his comments of last week by stating that it was not his purpose to disparage any of the many fine teachers in Torrance, nor criticize the bona fide substitutions of teachers made necessary because of illness.

"Rather," he states, "it was a criticism directed at the Board of Education, who are not only trying to strip the Torrance schools of valuable property belonging to the taxpayers of Torrance—but are also retarding the teaching program by transferring our experienced teachers to other schools in mid-term, and replacing them with inexperienced substitutes."

"The new teachers are aware of the fact that their positions here are only temporary; this, together with the difficulties of following through on unfamiliar courses of study, cannot help but adversely affect their attitude towards their work, the children and the schools."

Youthful Driver Injured When Auto Overtakes

Injured in an automobile accident late Monday night, a 16-year-old Redondo Beach youth, Kenneth Burke, was taken to Torrance Memorial hospital in serious condition, according to Torrance police. The youth, whose driving experience consisted of three weeks, explained to officers that his vehicle careened out of control on Pacific Coast highway near Redondo Beach when he turned to avoid being struck by a passing car. His own automobile overturned in the mishap.
