but that unless they are "fixed" to the buildings, it is doubtful if they can be saved. He suggested that a committee approach the Los Angeles Board of Education independently to appeal for preservation in Torrance of such gifts, since they possess sentimental value to former students and school patrons.

Superintendent Hull was authorized to proceed with the interviews of business manager candidates, and it was the announced policy of the Board of Education Tuesday night that the business manager must be an experienced school administrator capable of acting as Assistant Superintendent of Schools with power to act in Hull's absence. Most candidates for the position possess necessary certified credentials from the State Board of Education, it was pointed out.

Regular Board meetings are the first and third Tuesdays, in Torrance Elementary school, Dr. Howard A. Wood, president, announced.

church for a zoning variance to permit construction of its church edifice and Bible school at the southwest corner of Carson st. and Marina ave., and took the matter under advisement for 10 days.

In the belief that the church was asking for a change of zone rather than a variance, a petition protesting the church improvement was presented signed by 46 property owners within 300 feet of the church site. The protests had no bearing on the case since no change of zone was requested, it was pointed out.

WANTS CITY TO SHARE IN SIGNAL

The Santa Fe railroad will consider placing a signal at its crossing on Crenshaw Blvd. at Dominguez st. if the City of Torrance will bear half of the cost, it was reported to the City Council Tuesday night.

The signal has been sought by the Chamber of Commerce and City Council, but the share-the-cost angle made it necessary to take the matter under advisement.

Council Denies Appeal In Benner Suspension Case

An appeal made before the City Council last week in the case of the suspension of Fire Captain J. Benner was denied Tuesday night on the recommendation of City Attorney Otto B. Willett.

It was stated in the denial that the punishment meted out to Captain Benner was not unreasonable and the Civil Service Commission ruling should be upheld.

Following a trial on charges brought by Fire Chief J. E. McMaster, Captain Benner was convicted and suspended for 45 days without pay.

ON ARMY DAY, APRIL 7th, ASK-YOURSELF:

"WHAT AM I DOING FOR PERMANENT PEACE?"

What will you do for your country? You can take a full-time job at good pay in the Regular Army. Or, you can join other young men in your community in your local National Guard unit. If you are in college, you can get your training and Reserve Officer commission in the R.O.T.C. Or, if you have served in the Army, you can resume your military training and have your former grade or rank in the Organized Reserve Corps.

If you believe in America, you'll believe in your new Regular Army and its civilian components. You'll feel a certain tingle of pride—to know that others depend so much upon you, and envy you the inspiring fellowship you enjoy.

In the Regular Army you can have excellent training in valuable skills or trades. All your necessary expenses are cared for. You get travel, adventure. And after 20 years you can retire at half pay for the rest of your life and on up to three-quarters pay after 30 years of service! Get full details about all the advantages of Regular Army enlistment at your U. S. Army Recruiting Station.
