What Every Model Knows

Ever watch a model when she isn't modeling? She walks across a room with infinite grace. When she speaks, her voice is animated, her glance direct, her manners charming. All the professional gestures are hers in her everyday life as well.

They can be yours, too. They MUST be yours if you are to become a model. But a model's graces enhance your charm if you are a home-maker, a business executive, a saleswoman or whatever. My summer modeling courses are now starting. Fill in coupon or phone.

At this meeting four members whose birthdays occurred during the past three months will be noted. To be honored are: Miss Ambill, Sally Jenkins, Louella Elder and Katherine Flynn.

The ladies report a pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary Towler, 1828 Andrea ave., when the day was spent working on a beautiful quilt.

HOSPITALIZED

Mr. Henry F. Patterson, father of Mrs. Frances Patterson Wheeler, was operated upon this week at the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, Los Angeles. He is reported well on the way to complete recovery.

Margot Buxton Grow Exchanges Vows With Walter E. Schlick

The lovely home of Mr and Mrs. Bronson C. Buxton, 1500 El Prado, was the setting for the simple but impressive ceremony in which their daughter, Margot Buxton Grow, exchanged nuptial vows with Mr. Walter E. Schlick, of this city. Rev. H. Wesley Roloff officiated in the presence of relatives of the couple.

A candlelighted arrangement of gardenias and ferns created an effective background for the bridal couple.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a powder blue suit with pink hat and gloves which matched her corsage bouquet of Poincett roses.

Mrs. Virginia Scott, of Fresno, as her sister's attendant wore a suit of King Tan with brown and lime accessories. Her flowers were Tailsman roses.

Sandra June Grow was flower girl in dainty white dotted Swiss with pink ribbons and little Conrad Schlick Sr., of Los Angeles, attended his brother as best man.

At the reception following a beautifully decorated tiered wedding cake and other refreshments were served. Pouring were Mrs. Peggy Schlick, of Los Angeles and Mrs. J. M. Christensen, of this city.

Mrs. Buxton received her guests in sapphire blue crepe complemented by a corsage of pink rosebuds and Mesdames Schlick and Christensen wore summer sheer gowns with identical corsages of pink rosebuds.

Upon their return from several weeks' honeymoon trip to Big Bear Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Schlick will live in Torrance, where both are active workers in First Church of Christ, Scientist.

SALLY MCCOY IS FETTERED AT GOING AWAY PARTY
Sally McCoy, teen-age daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. McCoy, of 904 Portola ave., was complimented at a going away party last week, when Elisa Mata entertained at her home, 1016 Arlington ave. Sally left by plane Thursday for Washington, D.C., to spend the summer with relatives and friends. She was the recipient of a handsome locket, gift from the group.

Those present were: Rose Rosenberg, Tallulah Nagy, Donna Morgan, Gordon McQuillen, Bill Hadden, Bob Chambers, the honoree and the hostess.

Leech-Hall Vows Are Recited In St. Andrew's Church

MR. and MRS. LEECH

All-white blossoms were used to decorate St. Andrew's Episcopal Church for the recent wedding of Robert Gaylord Leech, son of Mrs. Harriett V. Leech, of this city and Miss Patty Lou Hall, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hall, of 2422 Arlington ave. Rev. Paul M. Wheeler officiated in the presence of 100 wedding guests.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. Lovely in ivory satin, fashioned with long sleeves and train, her finger-tip veil was draped from a pearl-beaded tiara and she carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

Mrs. James Weir, as matron of honor and Miss Phyllis McVicar, the bridesmaid, wore identical gowns of apple green taffeta and their flowers were arm bouquets of yellow roses. Richard Leech attended his brother as best man and usher were George and Jim Post.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss McVicar sang "Through the Years" and "O Promise Me."

At the reception which followed in Parish House, Mrs. Hall received her guests in powder blue with a corsage of Cecile Brunner roses. A pink floral hat and matching gloves completed her costume. Mrs. Leech was charming in watermelon pink with harmonizing feather hat and black gloves.

Magnolia blossoms and lighted tapers decorated the buffet refreshment table where a tiered wedding cake was served. Pouring were Mrs. Roy Bishop, of Hollywood, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Dan Garvey, of Phoenix, Ariz., the bridegroom's aunt.

Following a honeymoon in northern California Mr. and Mrs. Leech will live in Torrance.

Mrs. Leech has been employed at Torrance National Bank. Her husband, a student at Loyola University, was graduated from Torrance high school and is a veteran of South Pacific service with the United States Navy.

Miss Colleen Gotts Weds Arthur Steele In Baptist Church

MR. and MRS. STEELE

In the presence of 100 guests gathered Sunday afternoon in First Baptist church, Miss Colleen Gotts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Gotts, of 25913 Cypress ave., Lomita, became the bride of Arthur O. Steele, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Steele, of Ojai and formerly of Lomita. Rev. C. M. Northrup officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in white broadcloth and she carried a white Bible on which was placed a bridal orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. J. W. Steele, of Ojai, was gowned in pink and her flowers were yellow roses and orchid sweet peas. Miss Charlene Gotts, wearing yellow dotted Swiss and carrying Tailsman roses, was her sister's junior bridesmaid. Other bridesmaids were Mrs. Ronald Spain Oakes, of Lomita, in blue lace with pink roses and Miss Jean Walker, of Torrance, who wore aqua and carried yellow roses. Little Virginia Gotts in a dainty white frock was her sister's flower girl and Richard Garry Ritchie, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. James W. Steele attended the bridegroom as best man and Ronald Oakes, Carl Gotts and Robert Dunn ushered.

Preceding the ceremony Leslie Long, who played the wedding marches, was the accompanist for Mrs. James Downey, of Long Beach, who sang.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents immediately followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Steele will live in Lomita upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Lake Arrowhead.

The bride, whose parents are the owners of Daniels Cafe in Torrance, was graduated from Narbonne high school with the class of June 1946. Her husband, a Navy veteran of South Pacific duty, is owner of the vegetable departments at S. & K. Market, Lomita and Cabrillo Market in Torrance.

Joan Purcell, Ted Lavezzari In Nuptials Rites

MR. and MRS. LAVEZZARI

In a recent Wilmington church candlelight ceremony performed in the presence of 300 guests, Miss Joan Purcell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell, 11 W. 218th st., became the bride of Ted Lavezzari, of Harbor City.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose traditional white satin for her gown and she carried an orchid on a white Bible.

Her attendant were June Johnstone, matron of honor, wearing a pink gown and carrying pink roses, the bridesmaids, the Misses June Ward and Bernice Payne, were in blue and yellow respectively with matching sweetheart hats. The bouquets were pink roses and delphinium. Gus Lavezzari attended his brother as best man and ushers were Louie Lavezzari and Joe Turigliatto. Little Earline and Darline Cross, in blue net over satin, were flower girls and Carol Ann Singleton was ring bearer.

Preceding the rites Misses Bessie Wadlow and Zelma Barlow sang "O Promise Me" and "One Alone."

A reception at Wilmington Woman's club followed the ceremony and subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Lavezzari left for a honeymoon trip to Big Bear. They will be at home at 1020 1/2 Bayview ave., Wilmington.

The bride was graduated from Torrance high school with the class of summer 1946.
