

NSLI BENEFIT PAYMENT CHANGES

Beneficiaries who started receiving payments under National Service Life Insurance prior to September 30, 1944, are reminded by J. G. Caldwell, director, Torrance Area Veterans Service Center, that they now have the opportunity to change the method of receiving their monthly payments if they wish.

Until August 1, 1948, beneficiaries may change the way in which they receive insurance proceeds from the original method of settlement to a refund life income plan.

GOOD VISION

Correct vision is a lifetime investment that will pay generous annual dividends in greater efficiency—greater earning power—greater capacity to enjoy all of the good things of life. When you experience the blessed comfort and ease of seeing clearly, accurately... without squinting or straining... you'll be glad you took our advice to...

MILLION DOLLAR RENTAL PROJECT... Pictured here is an artist's conception of how the big rental project of J. H. Pine, at Crenshaw Blvd. and Dominguez St., will look in part. Designed by Architect Maurice H. Fleishman, the development will include playgrounds, inside garbage collection, private garages for all apartments and other modern improvements. The Federal Housing Authority valuation section has approved the project and preliminary plans have been okayed by the architectural section. The preliminary plan study on the project was developed through the cooperation of the architectural section and land planning section of the F.H.A.

Many War Bonds Unclaimed By Service People

Two million dollars in war bonds belonging to veterans and servicemen are held unclaimed in the U. S. Army Finance Center at St. Louis, stated J. G. Caldwell, director, Torrance Area Veterans Service Center.

The bonds were originally mailed to the latest available addresses of the owners and were returned unclaimed. Veterans who have bonds coming to them may obtain assistance at the Torrance Area Veterans Service Center, a Community Chest agency, at 1339 Post ave., Torrance, California.

They should bring in full information on when and where the bonds were applied for and the service center will help file for settlement.

Torrance Man Sees Nephew Drown Sunday

The sheriff's office reported this week that two persons drowned Sunday while on fishing trips.

Joe Solorzano, 10 year old schoolboy of San Fernando, was drowned at Hansen Dam while on a fishing trip with his uncle, Martin Valdez, of Torrance.

Richard Lehmann, 53, of Tujunga, was reported missing off Point Permin while fishing from a dory. Deputies said that the dory capsized and that the man's heavy boots pulled him beneath the surface.
