Wedding Vows Are Recited By Popular Couple

St. Andrew's Episcopal church, beautiful with white gladioli and tapers, was the lovely setting for the recent wedding of Miss Emogene Grace Held, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Held, of 1911 Gramercy ave., to Mr. Dexter Bradford Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Bradford Sr., of 706 W. Carson st. Rev. Paul M. Wheeler officiated in the presence of 125 wedding guests.

Escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was lovely in a white short sleeved crepe afternoon dress offset by a pearl necklace and long gloves. A halo hat fashioned of soft white feathers carried her shoulder length veil and her bridal bouquet of white roses, sweet peas and bouvardia completed her costume.

Miss Vivian Oliver, who attended the bride as maid of honor, was attired in a pale green crepe afternoon dress and she carried yellow roses. Bill Peterson attended the bridegroom as best man.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Naomi Edwards sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." A reception in Parish house immediately followed the church ceremony. Mrs. Held received her guests in a sky blue and white crepe gown complemented by a corsage of pink freeze roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue and white summer print and a corsage of red roses. A four-tiered decorated wedding cake and other refreshments were served by the bridegroom's sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Jr. left immediately for Northern California. Upon their return they will live at 1439 Carson st.

Among the lovely affairs given for the bride was a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Gerald H. Packard, 1229 Madrid ave.

Sweet peas and white candles decorated the buffet table from which dainty refreshments were served to 22 guests. Many lovely gifts were presented.
