

Charles R. Steadman Takes Lovely Bride In Recent Ceremony

Very lovely in white satin and carrying a bridal bouquet of white carnations centered with gardenias, Marjorie Jewell Wilde, daughter of Mrs. Juanita Wilde, 5434 West Blvd., Los Angeles, became the bride of Charles R. Steadman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Steadman of 1020 Portola ave. Rev. Ronald J. Menmuir, pastor of First Christian church, officiated at the afternoon ceremony in View Park Church of Christ, Los Angeles.

The bridal attendants were Miss Barbara Wilde, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing yellow taffeta complemented with an arm bouquet of blue asterettes, and Miss Dolores Miltman, who wore blue taffeta with yellow asterettes as her bouquet.

Donald J. Hitchcock attended the bridegroom as best man and Paul Colton, also of this city, ushered.

Glen Hall sang "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer." At the reception following, Mrs. Wilde received her guests in a royal blue gown with white accessories and Mrs. Steadman was gowned in turquoise with shell pink accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of carnations and asterettes to complement their gowns.

Upon their return from a honeymoon at Laguna Beach Mr. and Mrs. Steadman will receive their friends at 23408 Dolores ave., Wilmington.

The bride, an education major at U.S.C. this June, was graduated "Cum Laude" with a B.A. degree. She plans a teaching career. Her husband was graduated from Torrance high school, attended Compton J.C. before entering the Navy and is now enrolled at U.S.C. School of Journalism.
