Two Buildings On Border Ave. Robbed Saturday

Two robberies Saturday night on Border ave., believed to have been committed by the same person or persons, had Torrance police investigating this week.

More than $50 in cash as well as cigarettes, candy and razor blades were taken from Cunningham Cafe, 825 Border. An adding machine valued at $75 and typewriter were taken from the offices of C. B. Bagmal, building contractor, at 1505 Border.

According to police, rear windows were entered in both cases, after a screwdriver had been used to force the latch. Evidence that canvas gloves were worn was also found at each of the dwellings, police said.
