Junior Clubwomen Hold Board Meet At Sponsor's Home

Board members of the Torrance Junior Woman's club held their monthly meeting at the home of their gracious sponsor, Mrs. Samuel Rauss. Mrs. Montague, president, announced the appointment of four committee chairmen: Mrs. Robert Stone, health and safety; Mrs. Boryle Coast, welfare; Mrs. C. W. Bartholomew, needlework guild; Mrs. Dick Plank, penny art. Mrs. Lee McCoy, ways and means chairman, announced the appointment of two chairmen, Mrs. Earl Clayton, fashion show, and Mrs. Carl Forkum, "come as you are" breakfast. Mrs. H. L. Wagner's resignation as parliamentarian was reluctantly accepted. She will be sorely missed in Torrance. Board members wish her well in her new home in Redlands.

MISS NADINE PAOUR, POPULAR BRIDE-ELECT, IS INCENTIVE FOR PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWERS

Complimenting Miss Nadine Paour, bride-elect of Mr. Donald Moyer, of El Segundo, whose wedding will be solemnized Sept. 19 in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Mrs. Benjamin W. Roberts and Miss Doris Lee Quaggin entertained at their home Sunday afternoon with a crystal tea. The affair was arranged as a complete surprise to the honoree, who was invited on the pretext that one of her friends was being showered.

A fan arrangement of white gladioli and fern, lighted tapers with white satin streamers and tiny silver bells created an effective centerpiece for the tea table complete with silverware and crystal. Silver and white in-

Mary Ulmer's Home Is Meeting Place For N.B.P.W.

Mrs. Mary Ulmer was a charming hostess to members of the National Business and Professional Woman's club of Torrance who met Monday evening in her home, 1327 Fern ave. Scheduled to attend the year's first district meeting in Van Nuys Saturday Sept. 13 at 3:00 o'clock are President Helen Williams and Mmes. Addie Parks, Anna Sandstrom and Zada Ramsey.

That the N.B.P.W. club has joined other service clubs here in accepting sponsorship of the current drive for funds for the Los Angeles Memorial Cancer hospital was announced. Plans were briefly discussed for the annual observance of Business Women's week beginning Oct. 5.

Announcement was made of the Los Angeles district "Grassroots" Idylwild conference" set for Sept. 27 and 28. Purpose of the conference is a discussion of fundamentals of federation and furtherance of business for the ensuing club year. The worthwhile program will be augmented with a splendid program of entertainment. Reservations may still be made by calling Helen Williams, president.

In conjunction with the local club's ways and means project a handsome wool blanket was presented Mary Lou Tucker. At the conclusion of the meeting home made cake and coffee were served.

Mrs. M. J. Beale Entertains Honoring Mother's Birthday

Mrs. Seward F. Cox was complimented on the occasion of her birthday when her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Beale, entertained Sunday afternoon at the family home, 1402 Acacia ave. Attractive arrangements of fall flowers adorned the living room and the dining table where a festive birthday cake was served with other refreshments.

Guests, relatives and intimate friends of the honoree, included Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Cody, of Whittier; John Haycock and Susan, of San Bernardino and their house guests, Mmes. McLeese and Gilson, of Kalamazoo, Mich.; Frank Delaplain, J. Frank and Tommy, San Marino and Thomas McCausland, Leechburg, Pa.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS
Mr. and Mrs. George S. Wheaton who celebrated their golden anniversary at an open house party at their home, 1228 Arlington avenue. (Bill Husbands Photo).

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Wheaton, of 1228 Arlington ave., was celebrated Monday when more than 100 Torrance and out-of-town friends called between the hours of 1 and 10 p.m. to extend congratulations.

Residents here since 1920, Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton were married in Kalamazoo, Mich. Children of the couple are Messrs. and Mmes. Don and Kenneth Wheaton, of Hermosa Beach; Mrs. Olive Wittenberg and Mrs. Kay Davis, of the home address, and Mrs. Jean Wilder of La Canada. They have 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The home was artistically decorated with golden zinnias and gladioli. A highlight of the decorative theme was a novel "mamama" tree, laden with gift coins wrapped in gold foil and suspended with matching ribbons from the branches. An elaborately iced four-tiered anniversary cake and other refreshments were served buffet style from an attractively appointed table. Gifts, cards and messages from all over the Southland attested to the esteem in which the celebrants are held by their host of friends.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Plans Participation In Hospital Work

At the regular meeting of V.F.W. Auxiliary of Post No. 3251 held Monday evening Mabel Weigand, president, recently appointed 4th District hospital chairman for the ensuing year, stressed the organization's participation in Hospital Day activities at Sawtelle Veterans hospital on Oct. 5. She also directed members' attention to the unusually heavy sewing quota to be met by the Torrance ladies.

Miss Helen Lockwood Y.W.C.A. Worker To Assume Duties

Miss Helen Lockwood, the YWCA worker for Torrance, arrived Monday morning from her last position in Charlotte, North Carolina. She attended staff and board meetings of the San Pedro association Tuesday and Wednesday, and was a guest of the Junior Woman's club at their installation dinner Wednesday evening. She will assume her duties of establishing an active YWCA in Torrance immediately.

Thanks are due the decorating committee for renovating their office at the Welfare Center. Those who assisted were Mrs. W. I. Laughon, Mrs. Jack McCune, Mrs. Carl Forkum, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Montague and Mr. Frank Jarrett.

VISITS WHITE HOUSE

During a recent visit to Washington, D.C., where she visited at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Michael T. McLean, Mrs. T. P. O'Connor, the former Miss Mary McLean of this city, was present when her brother accepted his commission in the Regular Army U.S. Air Force. Highlights of her trip were a visit to the White House, arranged through the courtesy of one of the Congressmen, who also made possible her attendance at sessions of the House and Senate.

Mrs. M. H. Hussey Is Complimented At Farewell Parties

Mrs. M. H. Hussey, of 1519 Beech ave., who leaves Torrance after 20 years' residence, was the incentive for an attractively arranged bridge luncheon and handkerchief shower Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Chris Jones entertained at her home, 2118 Martina ave.

Colorful dahlias centered the luncheon table and were used throughout the rooms to create a festive party setting.

Covers were placed for the honoree and Mmes. L. G. Finlayson, E. R. Rademaker, T. T. Babbitt, J. J. MacDonald, L. D. York, J. S. Miller, John Struck and M. A. Russell.

Prize winners at bridge were Mmes. Struck, Babbitt and York. Another enjoyable party given to compliment Mrs. Hussey was that arranged recently at the home of Mrs. J. J. MacDonald when Mrs. T. T. Babbitt assisted as co-hostess.

Following an evening of cards buffet refreshments were served to 26 ladies. Winners at card games were Mmes. J. S. Miller, John Nady and Margaret Mitsiz. Mrs. Hussey was the recipient of a handsome group gift and good wishes for her happiness in her new home.
