ELECTION TO MARK NEXT MEETING OF GARDEN CLUB HERE

Following Summer recess, members of Torrance Terrace Garden club met Wednesday of last week in Torrance City library lecture room.

The members were warmly welcomed by their president, Mrs. Arthur Fritz, who also greeted a new member, Mrs. Mary Fritz.

An interesting and instructive paper read by Mrs. Frank J. Farrell was entitled: "What to Plant and How to Prepare the Flower Garden for a Beautiful Spring Array."

Preparation of a panel of directors for the ensuing year later occupied the group. Election of officers will be held at the next meeting. A full attendance is requested.

Officers who have served during the past year are Mmes. Arthur Fritz, president; R. H. Olsen, vice president; T. F. Ruble, secretary; M. F. Rugg, treasurer and W. C. Scholl, program chairman.

Brownies Observe Birthdays At Gay City Park Party

The Mothers Club of Brownie Troop No. 688, sponsored by Fern ave. P.T.A., entertained recently in Torrance City park for the Brownies.

Planned by Mmes. R. Kastrup and W. E. Walton, troop leaders, the party was given to celebrate all the girls' birthdays.

Lunch featured individual birthday cakes, hot dogs, toasted marshmallows and other goodies. Following lunch a game period was supervised by Miss E. Lewis and Mrs. Burgess.

The Mothers club then held a short business meeting and decided policies for the coming year.

The following girls and their mothers attended: Beverly Folts, Nancy Humphrey, Betty Ann Kastrup, Constance Walton, Joan Stewart, Elizabeth Ann Webb, Judy Vanderpool, Barbara Edwards, Ann Sackman and Linda Thistle.

OBSERVE 50th ANNIVERSARY . . . Mr. and Mrs. John Davies, of 1608 1/2 Hickory ave., who celebrated their anniversary with a reception at the home of their son-in-law and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil W. Smith. Pictured with them are their children, standing l to r, Giles and George Davies, Mrs. Cecil W. Smith and Alfred and Harry Davies. (Homer Morgan photo).

A beautifully-appointed open house party at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil W. Smith, marked the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Davies, residents here for the past 50 years.

Married in Farworth, Lancashire, Eng., Mr. and Mrs. Davies are parents of a daughter, Mrs. Cecil W. Smith, 1608 Hickory ave. and four sons, Giles and Harry of Redding, Alfred of Santa Barbara, and George of this city.

Wearing burgundy crepe complemented with an orchid corsage, Mrs. Davies received with her daughter, who wore a black afternoon gown.

A profusion of yellow roses and dahlias decorated the patio where more than 100 friends were entertained during the afternoon. At the buffet refreshment table lovely with blossoms and gleaming silver, a four-tiered anniversary cake and other refreshments were served. Pouring were Mmes. Ted Simonson and Jack Phillips. Mrs. John Lydell presided over the guest book.

MOTHER'S BIRTHDAY IS OCCASION FOR LUNCHEON PARTY

The birthday of Mrs. John W. Guyan Sr., was the incentive for a delightful surprise party last week when members of her family entertained her at Knott's Berry Farm.

Following luncheon and the presentation of a lovely personal gift a tour of Ghost Town and other attractions there occupied the group.

Included were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Guyan Sr., Mr. and Mrs. John W. Guyan Jr. and sons John Alexander, Donald and Billy; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Folts, Beverly Jean and Rosemary, all of this city; Mrs. Mary Kirshman and sons Gordon and George, Long Beach and Mrs. Genevieve Button, of Chicago.

Mrs. Guyan was again complimented when her daughter, Mrs. Fred Folts, arranged a surprise party in her honor at the family home, 1807 Andrea ave., Wednesday evening of last week.

Games furnished diversion and refreshments were served to 12 ladies at the conclusion of the evening. Individual gifts were presented.

BING CROSBY HOME TO BE SETTING FOR CDA GARDEN PARTY

The outstanding social event for Southern California Catholic Daughters members and their friends, will be the garden party scheduled for Saturday afternoon, Oct. 1 at the home of Bing Crosby in Holmby Hills.

Members of the board of directors of Camp Teresita Pines, Inc., are in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Frank J. Farrell represents Torrance on the board.

Main feature of the occasion will be the presentation of a 1947 Ford to some fortunate person. Booths of various description, including aprons, preserves, jams, jellies, pie, cake, candy and electrical gadgets will be sponsored by all the courts of the Southern California area.

Proceeds from the affair will benefit the building and maintenance fund of Camp Teresita.

SUDEB CLUB MEETS AT CONNIE NAVARRO'S

The home of Miss Connie Navarro, 1564 W. 219th st., was the meeting place for the Torrance Sub-Debs club Friday evening.

A committee, appointed to purchase the group's sweaters, included Barbara Delsigne, Floretta Wakefield and Johnetta Dorris.

Discussion of plans for a forthcoming birthday party occupied the group and the evening was concluded with games and dancing. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Floretta Wakefield, 1628 W. 214th st. Signed, Connie Navarro, reporter-historian.

MRS. J. P. MONTAGUE Junior Woman's Club Leader

The 1947-48 year of the Torrance Junior Woman's club was officially opened Wednesday evening, with the new president, Mrs. J. P. Montague, presiding at an initiation banquet held at Melton's By-the-Sea, Manhattan Beach.

Mrs. R. C. Jones, membership chairman, presented 23 new members who were formally initiated at the "Altar of Friendship" by Mrs. Montague in a very beautiful and impressive candlelight ceremony. Initiated were: Mesdames E. E. Banks, Dean Barkdull, K. C. Beight, C. F. Blakeley, A. L. Bullington, H. R. Burkholder, E. L. Cook, Charles Grubb, Thomas Harding, J. H. Hull, D. J. Johnson, William Ligenberg, William V. Meece, J. B. Miles, H. T. Olson, B. H. Rusk, L. R. Stewart, Robert Stirling, E. V. Winkelbauer and the Misses Ruth Mahon, Billie Nelson, Sandy Pointek and Beverly Whitney.

Guests for the evening were Miss Helen Lockwood, YWCA worker, Mrs. H. E. Massie, Mrs. J. T. Oursler and Mrs. Dean L. Sears, former sponsors of "Juniors" and Mrs. W. P. Short. Miss Nancy Whyte's piano selections, Organ Prelude (Bach), Arabesque (Debussy) and Concert Etude (Liszt) were enthusiastically received by members and guests.

A short business meeting followed the program and banquet. Table decorations of pastel candles and sweet peas and delightful miniature candelabrum favors were arranged by Mrs. E. E. Clayton, chairman, and her committee, Mmes. C. H. Bennett, R. C. Jones and P. L. Smith.

Marion Robinson Exchanges Vows With Phillip Alan Lucas

Miss Marion Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Robinson, 723 Columbia court, became the bride of Phillip Alan Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Lucas, of Gardena, in a 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon ceremony in Friendship chapel, Los Angeles. The impressive rite were read in the presence of 175 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in white moire with satin trim, complemented by a bridal bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Edna Schwartz, of Los Angeles, as matron of honor wore pink crepe and carried an arm bouquet of blue delphinium. The bridesmaid, Miss Helena Fancher, of Santa Ana, was groomed in light blue crepe and her flowers were pink rosebuds.

Wayne Larson, of Gardena, attended the bridegroom as best man and Don Robinson, brother of the bride and Neal Wendell, of Gardena, ushered.

Mrs. Cecilia McDonald, of Los Angeles, played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for Miss Phyllis McViear, who sang.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents and later Mr. and Mrs. Lucas left for a honeymoon trip to Santa Barbara and Escondido.

Educated in Torrance and Los Angeles schools, Mrs. Lucas is a civilian employee at Fort MacArthur. Her husband, who was graduated from Gardena high school and Compton junior college, is employed by a Los Angeles building contractor. They will live in Gardena.
