

A NEW FORD, A NEW INSIGNIA... Chief of Police John H. Stroh stands proudly beside a new Ford traffic car purchased through Schultz & Peckham for the Police department which bears a new insignia suggested for the police cars. Instead of the Torrance "T" so familiar on city cars, the new insignia which has not yet been adopted officially shows the California Bear, outlined by the letters "Police Department" in a seven-pointed star, with the community's name "Torrance" just above the bear. Both car and insignia have attracted much attention. (Torrance Herald photo).

POLICE BENEFIT SHOW TICKETS SELLING FAST

With the versatile Vince Silk heading the list of all star performers present at the coming annual Torrance Police and Firemen's Association show on Nov. 21 in the high school auditorium, this year's presentation promises to rate with the best ever shown here, according to Sgt. Bill Evans. Adding to his

Noted Flyer At Rotary

Col. Harry Gantz, internationally-known aviator and world traveler, will be the guest speaker on "India and Some of Its Problems" at Torrance Rotary Club's meeting at 6:30 tonight in the Woman's clubhouse, according to Bob Plomert, international service chairman.

Retired from the U. S. Army Air Force, Colonel Gantz was in India from 1935 to 1940 on a special assignment for the Maharaja of Baroda. His army career began in 1908.

The 14th pilot to fly for the United States, he served during World War I. He retired as a full colonel in 1914.

Youth Band Concert Soon

The Torrance Area Youth Band is starting an intensive drive to raise funds for uniforms, the first project in the campaign being a band concert to be given at the Torrance high school auditorium on Friday night, Dec. 12.

The concert will be given by the Senior band only, Director James Van Dyck said. Tickets will sell at $1.00 (including tax) for adults and 50 cents (including tax) for students. Tickets will be ready for distribution by the band students and parents within the next two weeks, according to Van Dyck.

JAEGER WINS BLANKET

Harry Jaeger, 2010 Arlington ave., was the winner of an electric blanket in a contest conducted by the Phil Harris radio program recently.
