STIRLING, HOOD PICKED ON ALL-LEAGUE 2nd TEAM

The champion Vikings of Santa Monica dominated the official All-Bay league team chosen last week by the grid coaches of the eight schools in the league, placing six men on the first team named by the mentors. Torrance failed to place a single man on the first team, although tackle Gene Stirling was only one vote behind Basil Cunningham, Redondo, tackle, who was the coaches' first choice. Torrance Captain Jack Hood was picked as a second team end. Gary Kerkorian, pass-pitching Inglewood quarterback, was named twelfth man on the team when the coaches could not narrow their selection down to four backs, Redondo and Beverly Hills both placed two men on the first team, with Bud Woodward representing Jordan of Long Beach to round out the squad. The Tartars fared better in the honorable mention brackets with Backs Dick Rupert, Bill Morgan, Bob Turner, and Jack Taylor getting the nod. In the line, Ed Fortin received honorable mention at center and Al Stephenson at guard. Of the eight Torrance grid-ders nominated by the coaches, six are seniors, with Rupert and Stephenson at guard.
