

Teala Rosemary Bellini Weds in Church Ceremony

Church of the Ascension, Twin Falls, Idaho, was the setting for the impressive ceremony which united in marriage Teala Rosemary Bellini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bellini, of that city and formerly of Torrance, and Wayne Eugene Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Quince Long of Twin Falls. Rev. E. Leslie Rolls officiated before a background decoration of baskets of greens and carnations and candelabra with tall tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a period gown of white satin fashioned in train with a net yoke trimmed with tiny covered buttons. Her bouquet was of gardenias centered with a detachable corsage of tulle and roses.

Janice Welbel, as maid of honor, was dressed in peach satin and the bridesmaids, the Misses Judith Nielson and Katherine Conant, wore cream net with gold embroidery and blue chiffon respectively. Ann Hof, as flower girl, wore blue tulle and net. The attendants carried Colonial bouquets to harmonize with their gowns and wore head bands of tulle and carnations to match their bouquets.

B. Taylor attended the bridegroom as best man and John Baisch Jr. and Don Welch were ushers. Robert Wilson was soloist and Willetta Warberg provided the organ music.

At the reception for 150 guests which followed in the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Bellini received in a royal blue floor-length gown with a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother attended in a navy print dress with pink carnations.

For her traveling ensemble the lovely bride chose a three-piece black wool suit with a jade green blouse and black accessories. Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Washington state Mr. and Mrs. Long will establish their home at 433 Park street.

The bride is a senior at Twin Falls High School and a member of M.E.T. sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of Fruita High School, Fruita, Colo. and is employed at the Firestone stores, Twin Falls.

Prior to her wedding the former Miss Bellini was honored at three showers.

Out-of-town guests at the ceremony included the bride's godmother, Miss Esther Z. Maxwell of Torrance, who has been the Bellini's house guest for several weeks and will remain with them until after the holidays.

Business, Professional Women Slate Yule Plans

Festive Christmas dinner party plans for the meeting of Dec. 20 were made for members of the Business and Professional Club of Torrance during a recent luncheon at Irons Cottage, Redondo Beach. Mrs. Gertrude Irons, chairman and her committee, Mesdames Bettine Miller and Arvilla Owens, will spare no effort to make this big dinner of the club year a truly memorable one. Reservation arrangements will be announced later.

At a recent board meeting activities devoted to Indian relief were discussed with emphasis on finding out the facts involved in the Indian problem. Guests at the club dinner held at the Don Hotel were Mesdames Ruth Davis, Charline Hardsere, Tress Findlayson, Maude Delinger and Miss Doris Spoon.

Entertainment featured a playlet in pantomime, "Pokey Huntus" and John Smith," which proved very amusing to the large group.

Card Party

Hostesses for this evening's Catholic ladies weekly card party are Mrs. Neil J. McConlogue and her committee, Miss Mary Scallen and Mesdames Farrell, Hageman, Ljpkowski, Herrin, Richmond, Mize, Moore, Casey, Annis, Dadrill, Cameron and G. Bailey.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend these popular parties. The first door prize is awarded at 8 o'clock and games of contract and auction bridge, pinocle and 500 follow. At the close of play delicious refreshments are served by the hostess committee.

Schultz-Upchurch Repeat Nuptials at Base Chapel

Miss Barbara Jean Upchurch and Corp. Ferris Duane Schultz, United States Army Air Forces, were united in marriage by Chaplain C. O. Miller in services performed last Sunday afternoon in the chapel at March Air Force Base.

The former Miss Upchurch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Upchurch, recently of Torrance, wore an afternoon dress of blue satin complemented with a gardenia corsage.

Corporal Schultz, a son of Mrs. E. S. Reese, of Estherville, Iowa, and buried at Fort Knox.

who has been stationed at March Field, leaves this week for a tour of duty in Lancashire, England. His bride will join him later.
