

Lynn Bostock Takes Bride at Holy Trinity Church

White slipper satin with brocaded lace basque and long train was worn by Miss Thelma Isabel Stieber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Stieber, 1131 Santa Cruz avenue, San Pedro when she became the bride of Lynn Albert Bostock, son of Mrs. Lella Bostock, 2019 W. 259th place, Lomita Sunday afternoon.

More than 200 guests witnessed the double-ring afternoon ceremony performed by Father Nacero in Holy Trinity church, San Pedro.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's attire was further enhanced by a fingertip illusion veil which was dropped from a crown of seed pearls. She carried white carnations surrounding a detachable orchid corsage.

Mrs. Goldie Ward, aunt of the bride as matron of honor wore pale green with lace bodice and a white net hat, and she carried a Colonial bouquet.

Four bridesmaids were in the entourage wearing gowns fashioned alike in pastel colors and matching net hats. Miss Theresa Gallagher chose blue; Miss Lola May wore pink; Miss Helen Johnson, yellow and Miss Doris King, orchid.

Little Barbara Goodin, as flower girl, wore white organdy and carried a basket of sweet peas and pink roses as she preceded the bridal party to the altar.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Arthur Keys, and ushering were Bob Bowers, Ivan Keys, Alton Durante and Richard Woods.

Emerson Trent, soloist, sang two selections, "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother" and "Ave Maria."

White carnations, chrysanthemums and gladiolus were used on the altar and in large baskets at the end of the first aisle; white satin streamers and gladiolus decorated the pews throughout the church.

Following the reception held in the church hall, Mr. and Mrs. Bostock left for a honeymoon in Northern California. Upon their return they will reside in Lomita.

The bride is a graduate of San Pedro High School and her husband was graduated from Narbonne High School.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT L. LEWELLEN JR.

Robert Lee Lewellen Jr., Gloria Fenwick Tell Vows

St. James Catholic Church was the setting for the recent wedding of Robert Lee Lewellen, Jr., of this city, and Gloria Fenwick, of Redondo Beach. Rev. Father Sheils officiated in the presence of 500 wedding guests.

Given in marriage by her father the lovely bride was attired in white Chantilly lace fashioned with high neckline, fitted bodice, long sleeves and train. The bridal bouquet was of white eucharist lilies and lilies of the valley carried on a matching prayer book. Her lace-edged veil was draped from a tiara of seed pearls.

Miss Janet Lewellen, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor was lovely in coral taffeta. Long taffeta gloves and a poke bonnet of tulle completed her costume and she carried a cascade bouquet of Pinocchio roses. The bridesmaids, the Misses Dorothy Edwards and Elizabeth Keeney, wore full skirted pastel blue taffeta gowns with matching elbow length gloves and bonnets of yellow tulle. They carried cascade arrangements of yellow spider chrysanthemums. Karen Fenwick in blue taffeta, was flower girl and Kay Fenwick, also wearing blue taffeta, presided over the guest book.

Nansel-Farner Troth Is Told

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Farner, 1323 Anapola avenue, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Nola Ann, to Mr. Gordon Nansel, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Nansel, of 1913 259th place, Lomita.

Miss Farner was graduated from Torrance High School with the class of June, 1948 and since has been employed with McCowan Drug Store, Torrance. Her fiancé, who received his diploma from Narbonne High School in June, 1946, served overseas with the United States Army and now also is employed by the same Torrance firm.

Ed Cotter attended the bride-woods, Bob O'Connor and Pete Zampert, ushered.

Mrs. Helen Grundman played the wedding marches and John Herter, well known baritone, sang "Ave Marie," "Panis Angelicum" and "On This Day."

A reception in parish hall immediately followed the ceremony and subsequently the happy couple left for a honeymoon trip to San Francisco. They returned to make their home at 1623 Elm avenue, Torrance.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Lewellen, of 1807 Madrid avenue, received his diploma from Torrance High School and attended Santa Barbara State College and Texas University before entering Naval service. He is employed with Master Printers, of which firm his father is a partner. His bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Fenwick, of Redondo Beach, was graduated from Santa Monica City College.

Mrs. M. Mazzola, 25037 Narbonne avenue, will be hostess to members of the Altar Society of St. Margaret Mary Church, Wednesday, December 8, at 7:30 o'clock.

The nominating committee will present their recommendations for new officers and the annual election will follow.

Mrs. H. Litton, president, will conduct the session.

ANNUAL BAZAAR IS PLANNED BY L.D.S. CHURCH. Torrance Ward Relief Society of the L. D. S. church, will hold an annual bazaar on Friday evening, Dec. 3 at Moose hall on Carson street.
