

Methodist Women Complete Bazaar, Circle Meet Plans

At the meeting of the executive board of Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service, held Monday at the home of Mrs. Art Sullivan, last-minute plans were completed for the bazaar, set for tomorrow at the church. In addition to items enumerated in last week's paper, the ladies will feature beautiful pin and earring sets fashioned of sea shells, aprons of all kinds, rag dolls, crocheted chair sets, dollies, baby's bootie and sweater sets and many other articles which will be timely for Christmas giving.

Methodist Circle No. 1 will meet at the church for a Christmas party at 1:30 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 7. A white elephant exchange will be featured and refreshments will be served.

Circle No. 3 will meet the same day and hour at the home of Mrs. Harold Hof, 907 Portola avenue. Mrs. Russell Paxton, chairman, asks each member to contact her before the meeting.

Torrance PTA Council Sets Meet Dec. 15

Mrs. W. E. Bowen, president of Torrance Council P.T.A., will open her home at 1327 Cota avenue for a meeting of the organization at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 15.

Following the business session members will enjoy a pot luck luncheon. A full attendance is anticipated.

GARDEN CLUB TO JUDGE OUTDOOR YULE LIGHTING

Appropriate setting for a silver brunch enjoyed Wednesday morning by members of Torrance Terrace Garden Club was the home of President Mrs. Romilda Scholl, 815 Beech avenue.

Following brunch members spent the day making slippers for the patients in a ward at the Los Angeles County Harbor General Hospital.

Mrs. Scholl wishes to remind all residents of Torrance to start thinking about their outdoor Christmas decorations. In order to be fair in judging, club members would appreciate a call from anyone wishing to participate in the contest. Please call Mrs. Romilda Scholl Torrance 376-J or Mrs. Clare Farrell Torrance 2417-W to register as a contestant in the annual competition.

Couple Wed At Lakewood Village Church Friday

Autumn colors predominated in church appointments and the bride's entourage for the wedding of Betty McCann Whitten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McCann, 2024 Kathy Way, Kettler Knolls, and Leonard Ney Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reed Sr. of Inglewood. The ceremony, performed Friday evening at Lakewood Village church, was attended by more than 100 guests. Bronze chrysanthemums and other flowers suggestive of the season were used in tall baskets to decorate the church chancel for the 8 o'clock service performed by Rev. W. R. Hall.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride wore a floor-length satin gown in autumn gold fashioned with a box jacket and a small matching hat and she carried orchids.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Thomas

Morris and Barbara Graff, all sorority sisters of the bride, assisted with the reception which followed in the church hall. Punch was served with the three-tiered cake, which was cut by the bride.

Following a week-end honeymoon at Idyllwild Mr. and Mrs. Reed will be at home in Compton.

Gray was worn by both mothers of the happy couple. Mrs. McCann chose a two-tone dress with matching accessories and her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Reed's attractive gown was complemented with a black hat and her corsage also was of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Reed is a graduate of Narbonne High School and Compton Junior College and at present is employed by the Southern California Gas Company. Her husband is enrolled as a student at Compton Junior College.

Hospital Work Reported by Degree of Honor

Mary Smith of Lomita reported on the service work being carried out by members of the Degree of Honor when the lodge met at the Woman's clubhouse in San Pedro Thursday evening. Mrs. Smith reported that when 38 soakers and 8 toe-socks were taken to the Veterans' hospital recently the lodge had been credited with supplying a total of 205 pads and 34 toe socks.

President Effie Pence presided and introduced Bess Eaton, past state president and Henry Wakefield of Alhambra, past advisor, who were welcomed by the members.

Sibyle Pence of Lomita, president of the Social Club, reported that new officers had been elected recently at the home of the new president, Mrs. Mary Torgerud.

Miss Bertha LeBow is vice-president; Julia Doerfling, secretary and Jessie Smith, treasurer.

Allice Wines recently was elected at the home of Sibyle Pence in Lomita as the new president of the Mothers' Club and plans announced for the annual Christmas party by the Mother's Club for the Junior Degree of Honor Dec. 14 at the First Methodist church in San Pedro. Party arrangements will begin at 5 o'clock and a pot luck dinner served at 6 o'clock.

Sibyle Pence was accompanied by Mrs. Mary Torgerud, president of the Social Club, reported that new officers had been elected recently at the home of the new president, Mrs. Mary Torgerud.
