MRS. HELEN CARLTON
Frontier 6185

Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson Frazier, formerly of Higginsville, Mo., have moved into Dr. and Mrs. Garretson's home on Sharynne Lane. The Fraziers have two children, Paula Ann, 2½, and John Paul, 1 year. Lt. Comdr. Frazier is stationed at San Diego. Helping the Fraziers get settled have been Mrs. Frazier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Summers of Higginsville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fels, of Los Angeles, are moving into the Rounsaville home on Sharynne Lane this week. Mr. Fels is an engineer with Vultee Aircraft. They have one boy, Mike, age 4. The John Rounsavilles have moved to Palos Verdes.

Mrs. Neal Stevenson, elementary extension chairman for the first district, was guest speaker at the regular November meeting of the Walteria School PTA. The Mother's chorus provided music for the meeting, included in the business of the afternoon, presided over by Mrs. Paul Roettger, president, was a motion to replace some of the playground equipment at Walteria School.

Mrs. William A. Schmitz entertained with a luncheon recently at her home on Carol drive honoring her mother Mrs. A. W. McRoberts of Buffalo, N.Y., who has been visiting here for the past few weeks. Guests included Mr. Schmitz' mother and sister, Mrs. N. Rahmel of Glendale and Mrs. Pauline Warren of Long Beach. Mrs. Quentin Johnson, Mrs. Everett Rowan and Mrs. Frank Jenkins of Seaside Ranchos.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Quinlivan were Mr. Quinlivan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Quinlivan and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bradley, both of Shell Beach, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. George Honzik attended "Hamlet" at the Star theater last Sunday afternoon to celebrate Mrs. Honzik's birthday.

Mrs. Harvey Spelman was a golfing guest of Mrs. Paul Barth at the Palos Verdes Country Club in an afternoon game last week.

It was a busy week at the William Morris home with two birthdays and Thanksgiving day guests. Celebrating their birthday during the same week were Betty, 10, and Marita, 5. Each girl had her own individual party, but in each case strictly a family affair. Mr. and Mrs. George McCabe of Long Beach, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Morris, were the Thanksgiving day guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Conover spent a recent weekend at Furnace Creek Inn in Death Valley, flying from the Torrance Municipal Airport in a Navion.

Seaside Ranchos residents spent happy Thanksgivings joining family and friends here and away. Among those who entertained here were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Doyle who entertained Mr. Doyle's mother, Mrs. Margie Buckles and sons, Chester Doyle and Edward Buckles of Redondo, and Mrs. Doyle's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Middlebrook. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Shockency entertained Mrs. Shockency's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bradford of Redondo Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hyder had Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edmons and sons, William and Charles, and Mrs. Edmons, Sr., as their guests. Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Gruver entertained Mrs. Gruver's nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Bailey, and Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Bailey, and Mr. and Mrs. Derby Rosen and Mr. and Mrs. Carl drive, while the A. A. Arndts entertained Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland of Downey, sister of Mrs. Arndt.

Accepting Thanksgiving Day invitations elsewhere were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barth and daughter, Sharon, who joined Mrs. Barth's mother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Packer and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reid in Salinas, Calif., for a family reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Mel Johnson dined with the Mel Johnson, Sr., in Glendale and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cotton were in Manhattan Beach with Mrs. Cotton's sister, Mrs. Paul Dierkes. The Harvey B. Spelmans joined friends Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hines in Long Beach. The Carl Larkins visited her father, Mr. O. A. Kennamer of Van Nuys, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger had Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Roettger's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Masters of Inglewood. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pomroy joined their cousin, the Clarence Brooks of Long Beach and Mrs. Frank Ryan and daughter Julie Ann, celebrated Thanksgiving with Capt. Ryan's brother and family, the W. C. Ryans of Palos Verdes.

C. E. Guild Arranges Yule Luncheon Meeting

Central Evangelical Guild members will meet in Guild Hall Wednesday, December 8 at 12 noon. An informal luncheon will be served at tables gay with Christmas decorations and dessert will be provided by board members, who will be hostesses for the meeting. Following luncheon Mrs. Alice Spehger, president, will conduct a business session. Devotionals will be led by Mrs. Julia Summers. Canned goods to be given to less fortunate families will be collected by the hostess committee.

TO HEAD JOB'S DAUGHTERS

—Miss Joan Sandstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Sandstrom, 2322 El Dorado avenue, who, with her staff of officers, will be installed in an impressive open installation ceremony in Masonic Temple at 8 o'clock, Saturday, Dec. 4. Miss Sandstrom was graduated from Torrance High School with the class of June 1948 and now is a student at Compton Junior College. Officers elected to assist the queen include Joy Oursler and Pat Clare, senior and junior princesses respectively. Masons, Eastern Stars and their friends are invited.

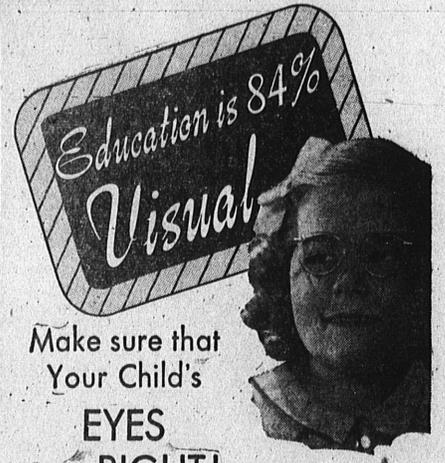

AUXILIARY OF VFW POST IN VARIED PLANS

Next meeting of the auxiliary of V.F.W. Post No. 3251, will be held in the clubhouse, 2080 Washington avenue, on Monday evening, Dec. 13.

At the last meeting the unit was honored with a visit from Dorothy White, senior vice president of Highland Post, Baltimore, Md. Initiation of Pauline Downing was a feature of the ritualistic work presented.

Patients at Sawtelle Hospital ward will be made happy with gifts now being completed by the auxiliary members.

Next Thursday, Dec. 9, has been set as Sewing Club day at the clubhouse with Pauline Coil as hostess.

Make sure that Your Child's EYES are RIGHT!

Eighty-four per cent of the knowledge that a school child acquires comes through the eyes. How then can she do herself justice in school unless her eyes are right? The answer is: she can! The moral is:

HAVE YOUR CHILD'S EYES EXAMINED
GLASSES HERE ARE NEVER EXPENSIVE
