BURNA MORRIS

Optimists to Stage Benefit at Redondo

Burna Morris, one of the candidates for "Miss Industry" at the 1948 Factory Frolic, will represent the Torrance Optimists Club in the Christmas Variety Benefit Show to be held next Tuesday night at Redondo Beach, the club announced this week.

Winner of the event will be proclaimed "Miss Optimist of 1948" and will receive numerous prizes.

Optimist clubs from Santa Monica to and including the South Bay area have entered candidates in the bathing suit event.

Proceeds from the benefit will be used at the Optimists' boys home for a Christmas party.

Class in Child Guidance Will Meet Dec. 14

Dr. Veazie Markham, physician for the Torrance school district, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Torrance Evening High School adult class in Child Guidance last week. Dr. Markham spoke on "Medical Aspects in the Guidance of a Child."

The class in child guidance meets at the high school each Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock and is conducted by Jack R. Ouman, school psychologist. Problems concerned with understanding the child, discipline and training are discussed, with ample provision for class participation.

COVERED WAGON DAYS

About a century ago covered wagons took as long as six months to travel the Old Oregon Trail from Independence, Missouri, to the Willamette Valley in Oregon. Today a fast airplane can cover the same distance in less than six hours.

El Camino to Give Musical Yule Program

El Camino College music department, under the direction of Hamilton Maddaford, will present a musical program featuring its mixed chorus and outstanding soloists in compliance to the Christmas season.

This program will be conducted next Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock on the college campus. The program will include "Las Alondras" (The Larks) a mixed choir of 40 voices; El Camino College band of 30 members and several soloists including Laura Schipper, contralto, recently chosen as soloist on the Standard Symphony Hour.

Joan Munford, soprano, a graduate of Torrance High School, was soloist with Torrance High School choir and appeared in talent shows and the Christmas Festival. A member of the Torrance Christian Church choir, she will sing "There Were Shepherds Abiding in the Fields."

Community singing will follow, after which there will be several band selections, including Morton Gould's "Home for Christmas" and Irving Berlin's "White Christmas."

Ranchos Get 3-Day Parcel Post Service
