

Assembly of God Church Sets Pageant

A Christmas program and a pageant, "The First Christmas" will be given at the Assembly of God church of Torrance Wednesday evening, Dec. 22, at 7:30 o'clock.

Lee H. Foughty, Sunday school superintendent, has been assisted by Mrs. Grant Morford and Mrs. Howard Shoup in preparing the program. Mrs. Paul Colclasure, pianist; and Mrs. Dan Fuller, vibra harpist, have arranged appropriate music.

Everyone is invited to attend the program, according to the Rev. Ida and Henry Sande, pastors.

What a wonderful world this would be if we all did as well today as we expect to do tomorrow.

Final Hearing on Paint Plant

The third and final hearing on the petition for the change of zone affecting the site of the new paint plant of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company is scheduled for Dec. 28 before the Torrance City Council.

The City Planning Commission held its second public hearing on the petition Dec. 7, and voted unanimously to recommend the change of zone be granted as requested. Previously the city agreed to grant a zoning variance to the Pittsburgh Company which has enabled engineering work to proceed in the offices of the architect.

New 'Lining,' Water, Gas in Scout Hut

Boy Scout Troop 219 has practically a new meeting place and $75 in the treasury this week after members of the Kiwanis Club turned out in substantial numbers during the weekend to remodel the troop's meeting place in the city park.

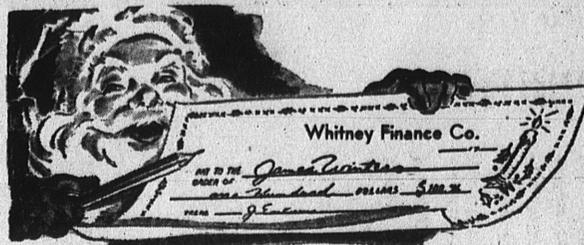

Keith Jones, a member of the board of directors of the Kiwanis Club, reported that 26 members of the club worked on the building last Saturday and Sunday. They lined the building with plywood, installed a kitchen and fashioned an office in the building.

Conductor Is Complimented

Miss Ramona De Bra, daughter of Gene De Bra of the De Bra Radio Shop, 1517 Cabrillo avenue, has been receiving the plaudits of the residents of Ontario where the former Torrance High School graduate is conducting a junior high school choir in Christmas carols in nightly programs under the "Singing Christmas Tree."

Installed floodlights while a drinking fountain was piped-in by the Torrance Plumbing Company. Members of the club who were unable to attend the undertaking contributes a total of $75 to the troop treasury, Jones said.

Dear Late-Christmas Shopper: Dec. 22, 1948

Unless the men on your holiday gift list are non-users, a gift of any kind of bottled sunshine and jollity is always in good taste.

Neither they nor you will be embarrassed if the gift turns out to be a "duplicate."

You are not forcing them to hang anything on a wall, or find room anywhere else for some permanent addition to a home that is already too full of gimcracks.

Whiskey, gin, rum, cordials or wine will keep in perfect condition until ready for use.

For employer, employees, business associates, relations or friends—you can't go wrong when you give a man a gift he can drink.

Yours for better spirits,
P.S. We will remain open until midnight Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.
