

TWO APPOINTED

Pinkley S. Cruze and Jack Tucker were appointed power equipment operators for the city, effective Dec. 1, by action of the Torrance City Council this week.

Warm Yuletide (Garden Fresh) Card Received

One of the unique Christmas cards received by the Herald staff this season was one with a garden-fresh red pepper (home grown, we suspect) that was pinned to a note with the greeting: "With warmest regards for a very happy holiday season." The card was signed by he of the upturned hat, amateur horticulturist and council member—Nick Drale. The staff was warmed by Mr. Drale's greeting.

All Realtor Officers Re-Elected

All officers of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board were re-elected for 1949 at the election held by the newly re-elected board of directors Tuesday. They are: W. E. Bowen, president; Edith Smith of Lomita, vice president and G. M. Earle, secretary-treasurer. The directors for 1949, who were re-elected at Monday evening's annual election, are W. E. Bowen, Edith Smith and G. M. Earle, named for two-year terms; and Delbert Vaughn and James Schmitt of Lomita, re-elected for one year terms.
