Merry-Mix-Up

Cafe Owner Always Enjoyed His Eggs Scrambled Until...

Until last week Dee Williams, owner of Bonnie and Dee's Mountain View Cafe, enjoyed scrambled eggs—but now he even gets the shakes at the mention of the word "scramble."
 Two weeks ago the owner of the cafe started a series of ads in this paper entitled "Scramble Bee by Dee"—a variation of the popular old-time favorite game of anagrams.
 The morning after his first ad appeared he was met at the door by a group of anagrammists who had solved the riddle of the scrambled letters and were anxious for one of the ten free meals Dee was offering for the solution.
 People enjoyed the game and took it like a... you guessed it!

Come last week—and the beginning of Dee's troubles. It started when nobody could solve the riddle of the garbled letters and began levying charges of "Fraud," "Faker" and other endearing words at the cafe owner—when it 'twas his fault at all.
 It all happened like this: The proof-reader (who did not know what the words said) could not fortell there was an "8" missing from the scrambled letters, plus:

Returns to Mills College College Work

Miss Nancy Whyte returned Tuesday to Mills College following a brief visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte, 1620 Post avenue. Mrs. Whyte, who accompanied her daughter north, will return home today.

Kind looks, kind words, kind acts, and warm handshakes—these are secondary means of grace when men are in trouble and are fighting their unseen battles.—John Hall.
