FISH AREAS UNBALANCED
 "In many of the nation's warm waters, and in some trout waters, fish populations are out of balance. This situation must be recognized in our regulatory programs. Even though regulations alone cannot be expected to restore the balance, they can be helpful in maintaining a proper balance between species."—Dr. R. W. Eshmeier, Tennessee Valley Authority.

Employer's Council Opens Office Here
 Headquarters for the recently formed Harbor Area Employers' Council have been opened temporarily at 1615 Gramercy avenue with Captain L. F. DeLaney in charge.
 Local men in the group include Alvin J. McCown, president, and Paul Diamond, a member of the board of directors.

SPORTSMAN'S YARDSTICK
 "A sportsman's ranking is not dependent upon the skill with which he wields a flyrod or levels his sights, but upon his innate good manners in not imposing his personal bag desires upon a community-owned wild-life total. He's a man of ethics, a friend of the landowner, a courteous cooperator."—Missouri Conservationist.
