THREE ARTS DIRECTORS AT DANCE CONCLAVE

Martha Jane Rickard and Edward T. Rickard directors of the Three Arts Studio attended the Associated Dancing Teachers convention earlier this month at Hollywood-Roosevelt Hotel. The morning period was devoted to Modern Dancing taught by Mary Tiffany a dance-dramatist whose well-known "Dance Sketches" have been seen throughout the country in universities, colleges and clubs; the first part of the period was spent on fundamentals of modern dance technique and creative dance movements; the second half on dance composition. Just the name of Thomas Sheehy was enough to pack the floor at the teachers convention in ballroom dancing. The Stanford Glide, Rhumba and Samba were among his presentations.

Class demonstrations in folk dancing presented by Bob Osgood included the Texas Star, Bird in a Cage, Life on the Ocean Wave, Take a Peek Oklahoma Mixer and the Cotton-Eyed
