Yolanda Now Makes Noise Like Engine

Little Miss Yolanda Francis, although still in her pre-teen years, is a veteran entertainer who has been in demand on many programs in various parts of the state. As early as 1943 Yolanda entertained at U.S.O. headquarters and appeared in camp and hospital shows in northern California during the war period. Since that time she has become a Torrance resident and appeared as a featured member of local entertainment groups and later has been busy with commercial recordings. Her first release under the sponsorship of M.G.M., is "Little Flick the Fire Engine."

C.D.A. Plans Supper Party Other Events

The Reverend Edward Sullivan continued his lecture series on "The Sacrifice of the Mass" before the study club of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Monday evening when the group met with Mrs. Lyle O'Hara, 1615 Fern avenue. Mrs. Keith Jones, study club chairman, presided. Mrs. John Melville opened her new home at 1512 El Prado for a recent meeting of the executive board. Mrs. Howard Owen, grand regent, presided. The hostess served refreshments to the twelve officers in attendance.

Court St. Catherine has subscribed for another CARE package to go to the same needy European family they have assisted previously. The local court is one of 1500 CDA courts cooperating to aid over 2000 families in Europe. The families and friends will join members of Court St. Catherine for a pot luck supper at Nativity parish hall next Monday, February 28, at 5:30 p.m. Mrs. Anna McIntire is in charge of arrangements.

PRactical NURSES TO ATTEND MEETING:
All practical nurses interested in the California State Nurses' Association's Licensed Practical Nurse Bill, currently introduced into the State Legislature, are invited to attend a meeting to be held Wednesday, February 16, at 3:30 p.m. in the Staff Room of the San Pedro Community Hospital, 1305 West Sixth Street. Miss Janet Aronson, Chairman of the Legislative Committee and Miss Dorothy Zuban, Chairman of the Public Relations Committee of the San Pedro Nurses' Association, will explain the bill.

Laughon Home is Lovely Setting for Member Tea

For the second consecutive year Mrs. W. I. Laughon, president of Torrance Woman's Club, entertained in her home honoring new club members. Assisting as hostesses were members of the executive board and committee chairmen. A St. Valentine's theme was used for the beautifully appointed tea and Mesdames E. E. Clayton, J. Parke Montague, and Lee A. McCoy, officers of Torrance Junior Woman's Club poured.

Honored guests were Mesdames A. W. Atwood, T. J. Beziel, J. G. Burton, H. G. Babcock, Ramona Carpenter, G. J. Derouin, Albert Ewalt, George Johnson, E. Jorgensen, Edwin Morang, Robert McCallum, George R. Meyers, H. L. Trueblood, W. T. Filliston, M. M. Schwab, F. M. Betts, K. T. Sherry, W. T. Toombs, Mary Ulmer, Gaece Gibson, J. K. Steinbaugh, R. F. Bishop, A. M. Birmingham, Beatrice Brinkley, R. J. Deininger, Robert Golden, Pearl Jones, Alice Mort, J. E. Stavert, George Peckham, and Raymond Larson.

The attractive floor-length gowns worn by Mrs. Laughon, her co-hostesses and the honor guest group, all contributed to the beauty of the party setting. VALLEY LECTURE
In commenting on Lorita Baker Valley's second lecture of the season given Wednesday morning in the clubhouse, members were unstinting in their expressions of appreciation. They liked her tremendously, they said. "One of the best talks she has ever given here," was another comment heard. Prefacing her lecture by an article on "Understanding" by Henry Fosdick, from which she quoted, Mrs. Valley stressed the necessity, today for the understanding of human beings for each other. Her selection of books for review was pertinent, not too heavy—rather on the lighter side, and chosen with a view to highlight other countries than ours—other people. A patriotic theme was followed for the table decorations which featured red, white, and blue blossoms in a white

TRAFFIC SIGNS

Good drivers pay heed to all stop signs, traffic lights, and other warning signals. These signs and signals have been placed by safety engineers to help prevent accidents. If you don't obey them, they might not prevent your accident.

VIOLATIONS COSTLY

"Every violation of the Fish and Game Code takes money out of the pockets of California sportsmen in lost fish and game."—E. L. Macaulay, executive officer, Division of Fish and Game.
