LOCAL RELATIVES JOIN FETE FOR CENTENARIAN

Members of a Lomita and a Torrance family were among the nearly 75 descendants, covering five generations, who helped R. D. Toppliff of Glendale celebrate his 100th birthday last Sunday.

Mrs. A. E. Cook, of 24314 Allene street, a granddaughter attended the celebration as did the centenarian's two great-grandsons, Richard Dawson, 11, and his brother, James, 4, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dawson of 1812 Reynosa drive.

The party was held at the Glendale home of his eldest daughter Mrs. H. V. Adams. Toppliff, who once tried to enlist in the Civil War when he was 14, was town marshal in Davis City, Ia., nearly 70 years ago. In 1881 he and his deputies founded up the infamous Mercer Boys gang of Missouri border bandits. Toppliff got a bullet in one cheek and lost a deputy in the process.

Toppliff came here 45 years ago and worked as a painter and decorator until he was nearly 90. He was married at 19 and has three daughters, eight grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and two great-grandsons.

Expectant Moms Class to be Shown Two 'Baby' Films

In connection with the eighth session of the expectant mothers' class held in the Torrance health center, 2300 Carson street, March 1 at 1:30 p.m., the motion picture films, "Life With Baby" and "Care of the Newborn Baby," will be shown according to Mrs. Eileen Pullen, public health nurse instructor for the Los Angeles county health department.

The later film is a review of the instruction given in the class and all prospective mothers of the area are invited to attend this or any other session of the class. There is no fee.
