Woman's Club Carnival Directors Tell Needs

Arrangements for the fifth annual spring carnival sponsored by Torrance Woman's Club are progressing to the satisfaction of Mrs. B. Taylor Whitney, ways and means chairman and her co-chairman for this affair, Mrs. R. G. Smith.

The carnival, scheduled for the afternoon and evening of Saturday, March 12, promises to be a fine success.

A special treat has been arranged by the carnival directors for the children—each of whom will be given a gift package upon arrival at the clubhouse.

Of interest to everyone is the beautiful floral painting to be given away on the night of the carnival. All who have seen the beautiful collection of household linens, also to be given away that evening, are most enthusiastic. Several articles still are needed for this project and members' contributions will be appreciated.

Members are asked to cooperate with the chairman of the various booths by contributing candy or ingredients for Mrs. C. M. Crook's booth; canned or packaged non-perishable foods for the country store booth, under Mrs. G. E. Sutton's chairmanship; gifts suitable for the cherry tree, which Mrs. Fred Cooper is sponsoring.

Mrs. John Keefer will appreciate baked goods or cooked foods for her booth and Mrs. J. E. Stavert is accepting pottery or copper containers, planted or not, for her garden section.

Toys, games, balls, knives, etc., for boys or girls are desirable for the "lucky dip," to be directed by Mrs. A. E. Ewalt. Mrs. Sears has a collection of aprons, tea-towels and pot holders, and needs more, for her department.

Mrs. Myron Russell plans to speculate on the weight of club members and guests, and falling accuracy will need a gift for each person.

White elephant gifts will be Mrs. B. C. Buxton's specialty at the carnival, and she asks contributions of suitable articles.

Mmes. C. T. Rippey, J. T. Oursler, and Raymond Rogers will have charge of the bingo tables. Mrs. Herman Frey, will direct fortune telling and Mrs. R. E. Olsen will serve as dining room chairman.
