

You've got to be on the SQUARE if you are going to build . . . and that's true whether it is a house or a business. Folks who think their customers are suckers don't last long. We know that is true . . . and that is just one of the many reasons why our policy has always been ON THE SQUARE!

Seaside Ranchos

MRS. LOLA SUTER FRONTIER 4551

Have you heard the news? The Board of Education has approved plans for the Seaside Ranchos school and now are awaiting the OK of the state officials. So maybe we really will have a school by September. For those who do not know the site for the proposed school, it will be reached by an extension of Sharynne Lane and includes about 10 acres of hillside property.

The Robert Cottons of Doris Way brought home their brand new daughter last Sunday. She was born March 1 and has been named Martha. She was welcomed home by her two brothers, Michael and Jeffrey, and her grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Hall of Sherman Oaks.

Helen and Fred Carlton and their two children, Johnny and Jayne, visited Helen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Gillilan in Visalia, and her brother and his wife, the W. L. Gillilans of Fresno last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Stauffer, parents of Bette (Mrs. Austin) Shott, have returned to their Berne, Indiana home after a two and a half months visit at the Shott home on Carol Drive. The Stauffers especially enjoyed the chance to become well acquainted with their twin grandchildren, Teresa Ann and Steven Craig Shott who are now ten months old.

The Red Cross Drive for funds got underway last week and should get an "A" at least for worthiness. Fire, famine, and flood have we always with us, with the accent on flood when you think of Redondo Beach. There is also the care of the sick, life saving classes, the blood bank, and the many other Red Cross activities which are supported by the funds received from this drive each year.

Your scribbler has been appointed as chairman of the drive in Seaside Ranchos. Those who are helping in the collecting are: Mrs. James Hall, upper Sharynne Lane; Mrs. Eugene Hurst, lower Sharynne Lane; Mrs. Paul Roettger, lower Doris Way; Mrs. Thomas McNary, Reese Road; Mrs. William Schmitz, Carol Drive; Mrs. Everett Rowan, Linda Drive; and Mrs. Edward Jeffrey, upper Doris Way and Linda Drive. And I will be ring-

ROBINSON HOME IS SETTING FOR DINNER, BRIDGE

Mrs. Herbert Robinson was a gracious hostess when she entertained at dinner and bridge in her new home Thursday of last week.

Places were arranged at the attractive dining table for Mmes. Bess Myers, Robert S. Sleeth, L. C. Barkdull, W. H. Stanger, J. C. Snow, J. R. Wilkes, and Sidney E. Smith.

Prizewinners were Mmes Myers and Stanger.

Mrs. S. A. Drumright, Mrs. G. J. Fels, and Mrs. Robert Slater are enjoying the study of ceramics twice a week at the Redondo Union High School. They say it's lots of fun to boast to friends "See what I made!"

Little Linae Knouse was six years old last Saturday and celebrated with a party, birthday cake, and all the trimmings. Those who helped in the fun were Harlow Dale, Carolyn Roettger, Bruce Shookency, Elaine Malan, and Marlene Knouse. Jellybeans were carried on a knife and clothes pins dropped in a bottle. The winners were Carolyn Roettger and Harlow Dale. Ice cream and birthday cake played a big part in the day's program.

The Austin Shotts and the Derby Rosenbergs made quite a night of it last week when they attended Zucca's Opera House to see the five hour drama, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew."

FLASH! MEN TO TAKE OVER THE PTA! DADS TO SHOW WHAT THEY CAN DO! If the program lives up to all expectations there really will be fun a poppin' at Ye Olde WALTERIA Oprey House tonight when the papas put on their promised skit, "Wild Nell the Pet of the Plains or Her Final Sacrifice." Shades of other great meller-drammers will blend as one with the best the fathers have to offer. D. Boone Kirks, principal of the Walteria school, has consented to play the part of Wild Nell. Can Can "girls" (whose daddy is THAT?) will swing in all their glory. Hand-some Harry the King of the Cowboys, Lady Veredevire, and Wild PTA Indians are all on the program, so don't miss this GREAT show. Tonight! 7:30!! Walteria Auditorium!!

Mothers Hear Librarian at Monthly Meet

Ways and means project for March, being sponsored by the Nativity Mothers Club, is a food sale scheduled for Friday and Saturday mornings, March 11 and 12, at the entrance to the Levy Department Store, 1311 Sartori avenue.

Mrs. Noel Morin, president, in discussing plans for the sale with the ladies, graciously thanked those who had participated in the Grease Salvage drive, last month's successfully completed Fifth Grade mothers' project.

The speaker stressed the fact that certain interests develop logically at certain ages.

A full attendance is anticipated for the meeting scheduled for Friday, April 1, when the ladies will decide on the color and type sweater the students will wear next semester.
