Torrance Has Representatives at 20 Colleges, Universities

Torrance is not only an industrial city, it is an alert cultural community as well with its young people taking their place in the halls of higher learning throughout the west—Chamber of Commerce please note!

Proof of this is the news which comes to the Torrance Herald office almost every week concerning scores of daughters of Torrance residents who are attending college. No effort has been made to compile a complete list of all the Torrance young people who are college students but notations have been made of those heard about recently.

Conveniently located El Camino college draws the largest percentage of Torrance students but universities throughout the west, with their different campus atmospheres and variety of curricula, also get their share.

Stanley Pierson and Lorraine Watson, for instance, are students at the University of Oregon, this year.

Mills College, with its excellent music department, and other fine arts courses claims Frances Barrington and Nancy Whyte.

Larry Gandsey is attending the University of California at the Berkeley campus and Paul Pierson, Elsa Stanley, Bill Jackson, Jack Dean, Ralph George, Richard Honrath, Frank Dominguez, Phil Gill and Yovan Popovich on the Santa Barbara campus.

Students at the University of California at Los Angeles are Beverly Hopkins, Bill Carleton, Keith Pierson, Bud Smith, Doug Tillotson, Jack Turner, Neal Silence and Vannie Spinnaker.

Pat Mullin and Yvonne Brimer are students at the Knapp College of Nursing.

University of Redlands has enrolled Carolyn Mitchell, Paul Mitchell, Dorothy Hass, and William B. Stanley.

Billy Barton and Lloyd Warthan are attending San Jose State.

Myrna Fossum is a Whittier College student. Bob Warner is studying at the College of the Pacific.

The University of Southern California has as students, Jean Lancaster, Jeannette Probert, Harvel (Bud) Guttentag, Jr., Bob Maxwell and George Snow.

Jim Post and Mervin Jarrett are attending Loyola university. Student at Pepperdine College are: Mrs. Joel (Lucille) Cook, Marlou Rose and Bob Oswalt.

Long Beach City College has J. R. Stroh, Jim Woodburn and Wallace Kvilvang.

Jack Hood and Albert Stevenson are studying at Orange Junior College.

Compton College students are: Barbara Lisman, Betty Locke, Jean Daniel, Jean Farquhar, Dan Moon and Fred Carstensen.

El Camino College announced recently that it has 178 students enrolled from Torrance. These include Bengta Nelson, Joann Sandstrom, Charles Jolley, Joan Mumford, Mary Ellen Rushfeld, Rafael Estalano, Walter Bacon, Joyce Franzen, John Branum, Jack Daniel, Jerry Malvoine, David Babcock, Kenny Johnson, Roy Hoshiyama, Ronnie Anderson, Joe Ferguson, John Pinto, Roger St. Dennis, Ted Jacobs, Chuck Duana, Mark Groves, Bill Morgan, Gene Stirling, Bob Ruppert, Phil Lisman and Bob Voien.

FORMAL OPENING TODAY . . . Available to Veterans without down payment other than escrow costs and FHA impounds is the duplex illustrated above, according to officials of the Biltmore Homes who built this and 33 other two family units at Maricopa street and Crenshaw boulevard. The duplexes are priced between $15,300 and $15,800 and feature two bedrooms, living room, dinette, kitchen, bath, service porch, and garage. Formal opening of the half-million dollar Pine Knolls development will take place today.

Duplex Project Holds Formal Opening Today

With almost $150,000 in advance sales, formal opening is being held today of the $550,000 Pine Knolls duplex development, occupying a square block at the northeast corner of Maricopa street and Crenshaw boulevard in Torrance. Mark Taper, president of Biltmore Homes, the developers, announced yesterday.

Highlighting the formal opening is the placing on display of a completely-furnished model duplex, which is open to the public from 10 a. m. to 7 p. m. daily, starting today, according to Taper.

Community improvements, including sewers, sidewalks, curbs, gutters and paved streets, are being pushed rapidly to completion, simultaneously with the rushing of construction operations on the several streets of duplexes. Painting and decorating is in progress in most of the buildings while seeding of the lawns is under way.

G. P. Promotes James Curtis

James H. Curtis manager of the General Petroleum Corporation's huge Torrance refinery, has been appointed Manager of Refineries in the company's Manufacturing Department, company officials reported this week.

In his new post Curtis will have general supervision of all General Petroleum refining operations.

Succeeding Curtis as manager of the Torrance refinery is A. E. Thompson who has been assistant manager.

Randal Maass, refinery engineer at Torrance, becomes assistant manager.

Curtis became assistant manager at Torrance in 1944 and manager in 1945. He is a native of St. Louis, Ill., and a graduate of the University of Michigan (1936). Curtis is a member of the American Society of Chemical Engineers, and served during World War II with the Catalytic Cracking Committee of the Petroleum Administration for War, District 3.

Thompson joined General Petroleum in 1934 as an inspector after graduating from the California Institute of Technology.

Maass joined General Petroleum in 1934 as a laboratory technician. He advanced to Chemist in 1937, Gas Engineer in 1943 and Refinery Engineer later the same year. He graduated from the California Institute of Technology in 1932 and received his Master's Degree from the University of Southern California in 1936. He is a member of the California Natural Gasoline Association.

PREPS FOR TELEVISION
El Camino College Music Department presently is preparing a television show to be broadcast later this month. Details of the program will be announced later.

AUTO RATIO
In the year 1900, there was one automobile for every 9,500 people in this country. Today there is one automobile for every four and one-half to five people in the United States.

Fish Evictes Now in New Outdoor Home

For a while last week, "Glitter—the goldfish" and her 23 companions felt like a fish out of water.

When Mrs. Ida Lewis, 1724 Andrew avenue, was forced to demolish the fish's outdoor pool to provide parking space for her tenants she transferred two dozen of her pet goldfish to a wash tub.

This is when, claims Mrs. Lewis, the fish began to feel like a fish without a country—or at least a home.

An article in this paper called attention to the plight of the aquatic animals and that Mrs. Lewis was willing to give the fish to someone with an outdoor pool.

At 8 a.m. the phone started ringing. Twenty-five calls later Mrs. Lewis was ready to leave the phone off the hook for the rest of the day.

Volunteering first to care for the evictees was Mrs. Ralph Robertson. The fishes' new landlord, it seems, wanted the pets to replace several that met with a horrible fate when a couple of neighborhood children went wading in the Robertsons' pool and made fishburgers out of the family's pets. They were given a full funeral at the Robertsons' home, 1551 West 221 street.

"Glitter" comments from within her new home, "You poor-people."

SEVEN RACING PIGEONS TAKEN

Mrs. E. E. Meyer, 1949 254th street, reported to sheriff's deputies that seven blue-checked racing pigeons were stolen last Saturday from lofts in rear of her home.

She valued the birds at $35.

DELEGATE BUSINESS GOOD

Hotel owners, storekeepers, restaurateurs and others serving convention visitors find the delegate business prospect 4.6 per cent brighter for 1949 and 7.8 per cent better for future years, as compared to the outlook a month ago, according to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

H.C. LEGION TO STAGE DANCE

Moon Mullins' music and comedy acts will headline the big Saturday night at a Harbor City American Legion dance in the 253rd street and Belle Porte avenue hall.

The public is invited to attend the affair. Harry Dunlap is in charge.

Navy personnel inhaling air at 70 degrees below zero through the Arctic breather will actually take in plus 64 degree air.

Sailor Hurt When Cycle Leaves Road

Sailor William R. Wheeler, 28, suffered abrasions and lacerations about 5 a.m. Saturday when his motorcycle crashed through a fence on Normandie avenue at 245th street, deputies said.

The vehicle apparently failed to make a curve, went through the fence and into a field, deputies stated.
