

DELPHIANS SET MEET

Sigma Rho Chapter of Delphi Society will meet at 10 a.m. Friday in the lecture room of Torrance city library.

"The Forms of Prose Literature" will be the study topic with three minute talks to be given by members.

Objective of the group will be to survey the development of prose as the dominant "art of communication" today.

The first thing needed to make a dream come true is to wake up.

BROWNIE TROOP MEETS WITH MRS. J. D. RICHARDS

Members of Brownie Troop No. 1096 found a treat in store for them when they met at the home of their leader, Mrs. J. D. Richards, on Hillworth avenue Friday.

Mrs. Samuel Dow, Staff Elected by 186th PTA

New officers were elected by the 186th Street PTA at a meeting held at the school Thursday evening. They are: Mrs. Samuel Dow, president; Mrs. Harold Sprinkle, and Joseph Littlefield, vice presidents; Mrs. A. S. Pitzer, secretary; Mrs. Ernest Tanner, treasurer; Mrs. Oliver Lang, historian; and Mrs. B. J. Brannon, auditor.

LODGE PLANS TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE ON MARCH 19th

A joint meeting of the men and women of the San Pedro Order of Moose will be held Saturday, March 19 at 8 o'clock in San Pedro.

The event will be in the nature of an open house and prospective members and other interested persons will be welcome. Entertainment and a refreshment hour will follow.

MRS. H. MILLER HOSTESS TO GIRLS CLUB MEETING

The Girls' Club of the First Baptist Church were guests of their sponsor, Mrs. Harry Miller, at an evening meeting.

Working on their project, making scrap-books, continued until a late hour for Joyce Bernhardt, Luanna Miller, Bonnie Domonaski, Elaine Baxley, Jana Vayn Phifer, Don Ann Long, Etha Lou Phifer, Charlotte Griggs, Melba Hannah, Druella Wilson and Lauretta Ashmon.

Seaside ... .. Ranchos MRS. LOLA SUTER FRONTIER 4681

Fathers' Day at the PTA is now history but those who viewed the skit presented last Thursday night at the WALTERIA Auditorium will never forget it, and those who took part in the comedy will never live it down. The mamas certainly owe the papas a great big vote of thanks for their work and cooperation in putting on this laugh-program. From now on it will be "I remember papa—he played in 'Wild Nell, the Pet of the Plains, or Her Final Sacrifice.'"

Election of officers took place at the regular PTA meeting which preceded the presentation of the skit. New officers are: Mrs. Robert Zisk, president; Mrs. Paul Roettger, first vice-president; D. Boone Kirk, second vice-president; Mrs. Ray Johnston, financial secretary; Mrs. Arthur Hackney, recording secretary; Mrs. Evar Jansson, treasurer; Mrs. Byron Johnson, historian; and Mrs. Carl Larkins, auditor.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Scanton of Doris Way are receiving congratulations on the birth of their son, Gregory Alan, Gregory, who weighed 10 pounds, was born on March 8 at 2:45 a.m. at the Santa Monica Hospital. He was welcomed home this week by his brother, Robert, and his sister, Janet.

Mrs. Carl Larkins entertained with bridge last week for friends and neighbors at her home on Doris Way. Those enjoying the game were Mrs. Leonard Doyle, Margaret (Mrs. Paul) Roettger, Mrs. Mabelle Westcott, Peggy (Mrs. Donald) Hall, Mrs. William Haegle, Mrs. J. V. Powell, and Mrs. Clyde Jones of Redondo Beach.

The regular monthly meeting of the Seaside Ranchos Home Owners Association takes place tonight at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club. Voting will take place on the choice of street light fixtures and a discussion will be held on the question of incorporating.

The Daniel Bessmers of Doris Way entertained Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nolte of San Jose, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wiemers and family of Oxnard. Mr. Wiemers is District Superintendent of Schools in Oxnard.

Alice Mewborn and Mary Kay Jeffrey are attending the Stover Lane Dance Studio once a week where they are studying ballet.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rowan hosted a cocktail party last Saturday night, preceding the Angulo Mesa Kiwanis's dinner dance, a St. Patrick's Day for mal, held at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club. Among the guests attending were Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Beebe, Dr. and Mrs. Raynor Clemons, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Owens, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Marks, Dr. and Mrs. Elton Rankin, and Mr. and Mrs. Porter Marstad.

'AUSTRALIA' TO LAUNCH SPRING FILM SERIES

Australia will be the theme of the first program that will launch the spring series of documentary films at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park, beginning tomorrow, Friday, March 18, at 8 p.m. and continuing each week until May 27.

Title of the film is "The Overlanders." The picture was made during the recent war, filmed against the background of the Australian wilds dramatizing a story of a handful of people who drove their cattle overland thousands of miles away from the Japanese invasion danger zone.

The film series is presented by the education division of the museum in cooperation with the Board of Supervisors. No admission is charged.

The new PTA Parents' Forum began this week with a lecture by Dr. Roy Cullen, psychologist. Those attending from Seaside Ranchos were Mrs. Wilford Shockency, Mrs. Daniel J. Bessmer, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger. The next lecture will be Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Torrance Elementary School.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Teach and their son, Deane, were house guests of the LaVerne Herbrucks in Pasadena last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barth entertained Paul's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barth of El Monte, last week-end in their home on Carol Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wilson of Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, parents of Mrs. Mary Conover of Sharynne Lane, are enjoying their visit here. Recently they accompanied friends, the W. A. Liens of Palos Verdes, to hear Issac Stern, violinist, at the Redondo Union High School.

Don't forget the Red Cross Drive for funds. Do your share.

WRITER'S GUILD PRESENTS LOCAL MEMBERS' WORKS

Proof that poetry-and-legend and bread-and-butter are of like relationship was established at the meeting of the San Pedro Writer's Guild held recently in its new quarters, the San Pedro Leland Street School. Seven poems, one story and one radio script comprised the full program.

Poems submitted were "A Day To Heal The Spirit" by Mabel Cory, "Cycle" by Alice Hawkins, "Song of Hope" by Cleo Cooper, "War And Peace" by Abe Abrams, "The Folks Back Home" by Mrs. M. Newland, "The Death Of The Farm" by Don Brannon and "Fillbuster" by Allan Ramsey of Lomita.

Francois de La Roche contributed "The Diamond Neckless," a radio script. Author of the story "Night Noises" is unknown.

The San Pedro Writer's Guild, an affiliate of the Art Patrons of San Pedro, is dedicated to the furthering of creative writing in the harbor area. Among its members are residents of Harbor City, WALTERIA, Lomita and Torrance. The only requisite for membership is an earnest desire to write. Criticism of manuscripts, current writing trends and reports on markets are features of the sessions.

Meetings are held at 7:30 in the auditorium of the San Pedro Leland Street School, Leland at Twenty First street, on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month.

ASPTILES TO GO ABROAD FOR SIX MONTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aspittle of 1346 Lomita boulevard will return to England after 40 years residence here for a six-months' visit. They will leave New York harbor aboard the Queen Mary on April 2nd.

Leaving here Sunday, March 27, they will arrive in Southampton, England, about April 6 to make their headquarters with their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bellby in Ramsey, Huntingtonghshire. From there they will visit numerous relatives and former friends throughout the British Isles.

They will also have the distinction of celebrating their fortieth wedding anniversary there on June 10.
