

CHURCHES

'King of Kings' Picture Offered To All Residents

"King of Kings"—dramatic and spectacular sound motion picture of the life of Christ will be offered to the people of Torrance in a showing of the film sometime during the week of April 3, according to Rev. Paul Wenske, pastor of the First Lutheran Church.

The film is scheduled for showing in the Parish Hall of the Church. It is hoped that two performances will be presented so that all the children and adults of the community will have the opportunity of viewing the film, Rev. Wenske said.

'UNREALITY' SUBJECT OF LESSON

The Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Unreality" in all branches of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from the Psalms: "Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O Lord, according unto thy word. . . . Through thy precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way."

In a scriptural passage from Exodus Moses says: "But, behold, they will not believe me; neither hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The Lord hath not appeared unto thee. And the Lord said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod. And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it. And the Lord said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand."

L. B. Band at Revival Meet

The revival meetings of evangelist Dr. John R. Rice will continue through Saturday evening when the Salvation Army Band of Long Beach will furnish music at the First Baptist church, where the meetings are being held.

The Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor, announced Sunday services for 10:50 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. The Saturday night revival is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

Crowd of 500 Attends First Revival Meet

The revival campaign of the First Baptist Church of Torrance, which opened March 21 and which was attended by approximately 500 people this week, will continue through April 3, according to the Rev. C. M. Northrup, pastor.

The revivals, which are held at 7:30 p.m. each evening except Saturday, are conducted by Dr. H. John R. Rice, revivalist editor of "The Sword of the Lord," a weekly publication with 40,000 subscribers.

The meetings are being held in the new Baptist Church, located at Carson street and Manuel avenue, which has seating capacity of 650.

NURSES MEET

San Pedro Nurses' Association District 21 and Long Beach Nurses' Association District 18, California State Nurses' Association, are sponsoring a Joint Institute for registering nurses today at the Y.W.C.A. Building in Long Beach.

Hawthorne Man On May Ballot For Trusteeship

Al Wilson, Hawthorne poultry rancher, became the first candidate to file for trustee of El Camino College in the district election to be held May 10.

Wilson will be on the ballot received by the voters of this district. He filed for the vacancy left by Jordan E. Dunaway, incumbent trustee who automatically eliminated himself when he moved to divide the district into a ward system, leaving the wards of Hawthorne and Redondo Beach areas both open this summer.

AL WILSON Announces Candidacy

Charles V. Jones, owner of the Torrance Hardware and also an incumbent trustee, has two unexpired years of his trusteeship to serve.

One of Wilson's main platform planks is the advocacy of the "pay-as-you-go-plan" with no bond issues.

He has owned and operated a poultry ranch in Hawthorne for the past 12 years. He and Mrs. Wilson have two children, a son Max, 18, and a daughter Valone, sophomore in Leuzinger high school.

He is a member of the Hawthorne Masonic Lodge and Hawthorne Rotary Club and is chairman of the Rotary Youth committee.

Second Musical Demonstration Tomorrow Nigh.

The second in the series of elementary school music demonstrations, sponsored by the Band Mothers of Torrance Schools, under the direction of Miss Merlyn X. Anderson, elementary instrumental music teacher, will be held at the Torrance Elementary School tomorrow evening at 7:30.

Students participating in last night's program at the Fern Avenue School—the first in the series) were: Dennis Hansen, violin solo; Betty Scallion, Ethel Myhre, cello duet; Sally Rathbun, Wayne Bischoff, Edward Hutchison, and Claudia Foree, sax quartette; Jim Bob Patrick, Kenneth Bower, and Lyle Dillard, trumpet class; Tony Ward and Fred Albertson, clarinet duet; Kenneth Wheat, Fred Hilton, trombone duet; David Saine, Robert Watson, Carl Shellman, Jerrol Wood and Jim Bob Patrick, trumpet quintette.

The orchestra, as a whole, played "Jinrichshaw," "Chorale," "In a Gilder," and "Dancing." Students playing in the orchestra in addition to those mentioned above were: Sally Moore, Risa Selover, piano; DeAnn Groves, Sylvia Miller, Ruth Sautage, Alice Albertson, and Irene de la Cruz, violins; Patricia Kline, Warren Clemmer, Robert Boss, and David Kealey, drums. Programs at two other elementary schools will be announced at a later date.

Play Proceeds Gift Fund

Rev. P. J. McGuinness, pastor of the Nativity Catholic Church, who leaves soon for a trip to Ireland, was honored with a play and musical program presented in Civic Auditorium.

Arranged by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange and presented by the pupils of Nativity School, the comedy playlet, "Camouflage for St. Patrick's Day," was attended by approximately 1000 persons. The playlet was augmented with a musical program featuring folk songs by the school's 62-voice choir, with Joseph Lafferty as master of ceremonies.

Freedom of Choice ***

"Two pairs, please!" "I'll take a dozen!" "I want the white!" "I want the black!" "Do you have it in my size?" "Is it wide enough?" "Is it long enough?" "Is it heavy enough?"

Great bustling Metropolis! Quiet mountain-tucked hamlet. Little, door-creaking general store. Up and down the Sartori streets of America's small towns, among the smart shops, along the side streets—you hear the voices . . . hear the questions . . . see the hands extended, reaching, feeling, probing—giving and taking, everywhere!

The voices are YOURS! The questions are YOURS! The hands are YOURS! The citizens of the Greatest Democracy in the World. Picking and Choosing. Exercising another privilege. Your Fifth Great Freedom! The Freedom of Choice!

Yes, You the People have the first and final word in our Democracy. And we the retailers of America follow the pattern. We buy for your choice . . . Your desires . . . Your tastes . . . Your needs.

They are our guide when we too extend our right to choose—from the manufacturer. This is our link in the magnificent inter-dependent chain of another of America's wonderful blessings . . . its Fifth Great Freedom! The Freedom of Choice!

RETAIL DIVISION

TORRANCE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

PAUL DIAMOND, President.

BROADLOOM RUGS CUT TO YOUR FLOORS!

$4.95 up SQUARE YARD

- FOR THE BEDROOM
- FOR THE DINING ROOM
- FOR THE LIVING ROOM

IN 9-FT. WIDTHS!

Down go the prices on beautiful Broadloom . . . that wonderful floor covering that gives you years of service. Now, Star's great reductions bring them to you in 9-ft. widths . . . all patterns and color combinations. As little as 15% down delivers.

CHOICE OF HANDSOME NEW PATTERNS AND COLORS!

Long Easy Terms — We Carry Our Own Contracts

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD AT STAR

STAR FURNITURE COMPANY

Sartori Avenue at Post

Torrance