School Music Organization Wins Honors

The Torrance Junior High School Orchestra under the direction of Rudolph Saltzer received a rating of "Excellent" at the District Music Festival recently in Santa Monica. It was announced this week. The local school was making its first contest participation and their playing won praise from the judges.

Jack Beeman, student in the 8th grade, won an "Excellent" award for his saxophone solo. He was accompanied by Marce Wright, also a student.

Two soloists from the Perry School who also won "Excellent" ratings were Roy Kato, clarinet and Matilde Magana, trumpet. They were accompanied by Miss Mervyn Anderson, their instructor. The soloists and orchestra are now qualified to enter the state festival which takes place in Fullerton in April.

Court Clerk 'Brightens' At Sentence

Her eyes red with tears Mrs. Mary B. Harder, 52, former clerk of Inglewood Justice Court, brightened a little last week when Superior Judge W. Turney Fox placed her on four years probation and fined $500 on three charges of falsifying public records. Mrs. Harder was at one time a resident of Torrance.

Judge Fox told Mrs. Harder, now running a grocery store at 4003 Century boulevard, Inglewood: "You have a fine standing in the community where you have lived and worked. I am taking into consideration your age and the fact that the money did not go for riotous living."

Full restitution of $1005 taken in 130 different instances by entering traffic fines as "dismissed" or "suspended" was made, the court was informed by deputy district attorney Joseph L. Carr.

Toastmasters Set Charter Party For April 11

Members of the Torrance Toastmasters club at a meeting Tuesday evening at Vurp's cafe voted to hold their charter party April 11 at the Hollywood Riviera Beach club.

A speech titled "Headaches in the Cleaning Business" brought Bud Warren the vote as the best speaker of the evening. Other speakers at the regular weekly meeting included Vern Lovelady, "Motorboats" Ray Staver, "First Experiences in Selling"; M. C. Hunt, "Words"; Harry Watkins, "Labor and Management."

Program aides for the session were Jack Baldwin, Bud Beach, Arthur Sykes, Allen Pyeatt, Woody Battle, critics; Victor Chatten, topic master; Harry Burkholder, grammarian; Walt Schaefer, chief critic; Lester Foster, timer, and John Doaks of the North Long Beach Toastmasters club, general evaluator.

Tweed Jolly, as toastmaster, presided over the speaking sessions. Among those attending was Mayor J. Hugh Sherfy Jr.
