TORRANCE

Snow-Patterson Vows Told Saturday in La Jolla Rite

First Presbyterian Church of La Jolla Saturday afternoon was the scene of the surprise wedding of Miss Robbie Sophia Patterson and Mr. George Snow.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay John Patterson, of 607 Cherokee avenue, Los Angeles, carried white orchids on a hundred-year-old prayer-book which had belonged to her maternal great grandfather, Rev. William M. Robertson, of Louisville, Ky.

The former Miss Patterson was attended by Mrs. Bonnie L. Coleman, and Mr. Frank S. Whiting of Torrance, the bridegroom's attendant.

Mr. Snow, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving W. Snow, of 1512 Post avenue, holds a degree in Business Administration from U.S.C., where he was a Pi Kappa Alpha. A veteran of World War II, he served with the United States Army in the European Theater of Operations, and received the Order of the Purple Heart.

Mrs. Snow, also an S.C. graduate, served as vice president of the School of International Relations and was a Phi Kappa Phi and a Kappa Delta.

Upon returning from their Coronado honeymoon, the young couple plan to make their home in Pasadena.

Anniversary, Birthday Parties are Enjoyable

Next afternoon, Mrs. Purnell Smith, Anita Sullivan, Mary Held, Shiffer, Miss Eunice Steele, and the hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. William Ambach, of 728 Sartori avenue, were complimented on the occasion of their ninth wedding anniversary when Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Purnell entertained at dinner at their home, 2132 Archibald avenue.

Guests assembled at the home of Mrs. Jones and arrived at the Purnell home en masse.

A beautiful rosebud-decorated birthday cake and other refreshments were served and following the presentation of beautiful handkerchiefs and numerous other gifts, bunco and pinocle play occupied the group.

Present were: the honoree and Mmes. Lottie Phillips, Ila Mae Ambach, Nan Mitchell, Ida Cribbs, Marie Bankston, LaVell Seldion, Ionia Steele, Geneva Clawson, Irene Vincent, Martha Evans, Marge Boone, Hattie

The dining table was lovely with vari-colored sweet peas and places were set for the honor guests and the hosts. Later in the evening they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dobson, Mr. and Mrs. James Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hyman and Mrs. Augusta Barnett.

Pinocle and bunco furnished diversion and a wedding anniversary cake and other refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Ambach received lovely gifts.

MR. AND MRS. DENNIS DECHER

Barbara Lee Lisoni Tells Vows with Dennis Decher

In a double-ring candlelight ceremony performed recently in the Catholic Church of the Mother ter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lisoni Jr., the bride and groom exchanged wedding vows and Mr. Dennis Decher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Decher, of Spring-er, N. M. Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiated at the late afternoon rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Lisoni was lovely in navy taffeta with pink accessories and she carried a corsage of gardenias and roses on a white prayer book. Miss Angelina Lisoni, wearing a floral print gown, complemented by a gardenia corsage, was her sister's maid of honor. Albert

REHEARSALS FOR MOTHERSINGERS

Rehearsals of the Mothers Chorus, recently organized by Halldale PTA have been held regularly on Mondays. There has been a good attendance each time but more voices can be used. Mrs. Ruth Adams,

Narbonne Students to Enter City Festival Competition

Competing Saturday, April 2 in the annual city band and orchestra festival at Los Angeles City College and Virgil Junior High School will be a group of Narbonne High School students from the music department.

Soloists and ensembles will play this Saturday, and the band and orchestra will perform next week. Students will compete for ratings on a five-point scale: superior, excellent, good, fair and poor.

Last Year Jonathan Murakami won "superior" honors in cornet solo; Henry Sasajima earned the rating of "good" in French horn solo, and the orchestra was judged "excellent." Thirteen students are entering the solo events of the festival: Jonathan Murakami again will compete in cornet solo division; Gwen Godsil, flute solo; Carole Halling, Duke Blakesley and Bella Embres, violin; James Butterfield, bassoon; Don Crum, cello; Dale Ferguson, saxophone; Horace Pullen, clarinet; George Morrison, trombone; James Spivey, John Huffman and David Tufto, trumpet solos.

Six ensembles are rehearsing for the festival. Gwen Godsil, Sally Halling and Jessie Hill form the flute trio. Jack Pollock, Jonathan Murakami and Jim Spivey form the senior high cornet trio. The junior high trumpet trio is composed of John Huffman, David Tufto and Johnny Sampson. Duke Blakesley, Don Crum and Danny Marsh will enter their string trio. The newly-organized Narbonne string quartet, Carole Halling, Duke Blakesley, Don Crum and Margaret O'Shea will compete. The Halling sisters, Carole and Sally, will play a violin-flute duet.

Accompanists for the various events will be Peggy Orr, Nel-vice Eby, Eldridge Walker and Mrs. Hollis N. Blakesley.

The city festival will be followed by finalist competition April 21 through 23 in Fullerton.

C.D.A. Philanthropy Fund Swelled by Court Social

An apron social at Nativity C. E. Ady, Clyde C. Holly, and Mrs. Lawrence Derouin.

The Easter motif was carried out in tea table appointments. Mrs. Howard Owen, grand regent, and Mrs. J. W. Alford presided at the silver service.

Mrs. Frank Forester was chairman of the committee. Guests included Miss Mary Gahwolf, grand regent; and Mrs. Levan Dimond, vice regent; of Court Our Lady of Victory, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. J. W. Alford was recent hostess to Court St. Catherine's study club, at her home at 1911 Andree. Mrs. Keith Jones, study club chairman, led a round-table discussion, and Mrs. T. T. Babbitt briefly reviewed two recent books.

PLAY IT SAFE

when you fly your kites!

If you follow Reddy Kilowatt's advice, you will have MORE fun, these kite flying days. It's easy to fly them the safe way—just follow the four simple rules listed below.

1. Fly your kites in an open field, away from electric power lines and other overhead obstructions.
2. Be sure the string is perfectly dry.
3. NEVER use wire, tinsel or metallic string.
4. If the kite catches in a power line, let go immediately. Don't pull! Phone the company owning the line and a lineman will get your kite for you.
