Three-Day Celebration

Community Invited to Share in
Cafe Owner's Anniversary Fete

Extending an invitation to the entire community, Charlie Gotts, owner of Daniel's Cafe, will serve cake and coffee Sunday during a three-day celebration of his fifth anniversary as owner of the cafe at 1625 Cabrillo avenue.

Dave Coleville, past president of the Torrance Kiwanis club, will serve as master of ceremonies at the cake cutting at 1 p.m. Sunday afternoon. "Charlie" will share his cake and serve his coffee until 9 p.m. Sunday's activities will mark the close of a three-day celebration which will begin at 8 a.m. on Friday. On that day "Charlie" will serve a free bowl of navy bean soup to anyone who visits his restaurant before 9 p.m.

Saturday from 8 a.m. until 9 p.m., the well-known caterer will dispense free coffee.

During the last five years 1827 families in the community have eaten at the local restaurant as "Charlie's" guests. A list of seven names has been published in this newspaper each week for the past five years. The Daniel's banquet room is familiar to many hundreds of Torrance men and women as the meeting place of the Kiwanis Club, 20-30 Club, Optimist Club, Torrance Educational Advisory Committee, Welfare Council and the Dominguez Rotary Club.

Approximately 18 persons are enumerated among the Daniel's employe family.

AGRICULTURAL STATE
The soil of Nebraska is very fertile. Its principal crops are wild hay, corn, oats, wheat, barley, rye, alfalfa, potatoes, sugar beets, sorghum and soybeans. Its livestock production is very large.

Lady Luck Favors
An Irish Lassie
On Radio Show

Grace Lafferty's Irish eyes were really smiling on St. Patrick's Day last.

Sure 'twas on that day that the 15-year-old lassie, a sophomore at Torrance High, did pass her examinations on Kay Kyser's College of Musical Knowledge and did sing an Irish ditty—"When Irish Eyes Are Smiling."

For her musical knowledge and rendering a pretty little ditty she was presented with a cedar chest and a movie camera.

Her song was rebroadcast over station KECA last Monday.

CHIEF WARNS DRIVERS

Chief of Police John Stroth warned local motorists this week that the intersection of Carson street and Marcelina avenue is now a four-way boulevard stop.

Previous to the recent installation of stop signs on Marcelina avenue the intersection was a boulevard stop only for traffic on Carson street, the chief said.

CANCER OFTEN CURED

X-Ray or other radiation treatment and surgery have cured many cases of cancer.

CAMPAIGN LEADERS . . . Four members of the local Cancer Campaign committee pose with posters to remind residents to join the fight on the financial front by contributing to the drive. Pictured are, (left to right, front row) Mrs. Iis Steffen and Mrs. Winifred Spelman Jr., (back row) Mrs. Bernice Sykes, and Mrs. Estaline Battle.—Herald Photo.

POSTOFFICE AIDS
CANCER CAMPAIGN

Howard J. Percy, chairman of the local American Cancer Society's 1949 Fund Raising Campaign committee, announced this week that local residents who wish to support the drive and who may be missed by the bev of local workers may mail their contributions to C-A-N-C-E-R, in care of the Postmaster, Los Angeles, 5, California.

Percy stated that Postmaster Michael D. Fanning had made available to the cancer campaign simplified facilities for the convenience of those who wish to join the fight to whip cancer.

All donors will receive a tiny lapel pin fashioned in the form of a "Red Dagger," the symbol of the American Cancer Society, Percy said.

Pattered after the medical caduceus, ancient symbol of medicine and well-being, the pins are emblematic of the hope and great strides made in the field of cancer research.

Scouting . . .
. . . Around
By BOB MAXFIELD

Step right up, ladies and gentlemen, see the greatest show on earth! Witness a superlative extravaganza of thrilling action, breath-taking spectacles, and feats of skill, likes of which you have never seen before! Yes, this is a show you can't afford to miss! Step right up folks, it's all on the inside . . .

Does this sound like a circus? You're so right! It's the famous Scout Circus presented by the Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Senior Scouts of the Los Angeles Area Council, Boy Scouts of America. This is a regular circus with Cubs and Boy Scouts as performers instead of professionals. It features nine action packed acts plus a grand finale that promises to make this the best show to hit the Los Angeles Area in many a year. More than 15,000 boys will combine their talents in a portrayal of every phase of camping and Scouting.

What will you see as you sit in the Gilmore Stadium on the evening of May 6 or 7? First will be a band concert by the famous Los Angeles Police Band, closely followed by "The California Cavalcade." Hundreds of Cub Scouts will present a living picture of California in this Centennial year, showing the costumes and activities of the Indians, Spaniards, gold miners and early settlers.

More than 10,000 Scouts will take part in the "Grand Entry" with music, flying flags and banners. They will be followed by 5000 Cub Scouts with huge and weird animals, dragons, Mother Goose characters and a famous make-believe stories of childhood.

Next comes the demonstration of "Scouting Skills" featuring first aid, fire building without matches, camp cooking, climbing ten-foot walls without ladders and many other interesting activities. An exciting obstacle race will follow this, with 80 patrols competing against each other in crawling through barrels and climbing over and under a gigantic rubber band stretched across the width of the field. Senior Scouts will show the

Optimist Club
Installation
Set Friday

Formal installation of Lomita Optimist Club officers for the coming year will take place tomorrow night at the Palos Verdes country club.

Dr. Eliot Spires, of Wilmington, will handle the installation ceremonies. He will be assisted by Tweed Jolly, Governor's Aide.

John Kellogg, Lomita lumberman, will succeed Ron Coil, first president of the group which was chartered last year.

Other officers to be seated are T. W. Bullock, first vice president; Al Day, second vice president; Jim Munson, secretary-treasurer; and Harry Mumby, sergeant-at-arms.

The new Board of Governors includes Lingard Chandler, Henry Mathews, Jack Avar, Jim Hawthorth, Dr. John Chapman, Rex Thompson, Cy Hopkins, and Coil. Junior Optimist Club officers will also be seated.

Dinner, dancing, and entertainment will be featured at the affair, which starts at 7 p.m.

"High Adventure" of their activities with displays of service projects, horsemanship, land and sea rescue and many others.

Hundreds of tents of every size, shape, and description mushroom on the huge field in the mighty spectacle "The Outing in Scouting." Campfires will be lit, taps will sound, the lights will go out and the fiery outline of the State of California will appear. The tents will be taken down and the Scouts will put their packs on their backs and march off the field.

Then will come the well-known pioneering act. Old Fort Sutter will be built, life size, before your very eyes in a matter of six minutes, to replace the sea of tents. Activities of the Indians and the excitement of the "bers" will be in the field.

In a solemn and impressive "Investiture Ceremony" hundreds of new members will be taken into the Scouting Movement. You will hear them pledge themselves with the Scout Oath and Law in a serious and beautiful ritual. The show will end with a surprise "Grand Finale" that will be a fitting end to an evening of wonderful fun and entertainment.

Every Scout and Cub in Torrance is planning to take part in some phase of this great show. Don't forget the date, May 6 and 7 at Gilmore Stadium. Tickets costing 50 cents for general admission and $1 for reserved seats can be purchased from any Scout.

CUB DONUT SALE

The Cub Scouts of Pack 241-C are planning a gigantic donut sale to be held this Saturday, April 9th, to raise money for transportation to the Scout Circus. The Cubs will take orders from door to door and the donuts will be delivered promptly. The Pack has planned to sell four hundred dozen donuts at fifty cents a dozen, a wide assortment being offered. Proceeds from the sale will be used to charter a bus for transportation to the Scout Circus where the Cubs are planning to take part in the program.
