

MORE BORN IN HOSPITALS

Ninety-seven percent of all the babies born in California during 1947 made their entrance into the world behind the doors of hospital delivery rooms.

WHAT'S NEW?

A collapsible boat, small enough to be carried in an overnight bag; inflated, the boat will carry an adult and five children, can be 'paddled' like a canoe.

SO LITTLE TRIED

Man's capacities have never been measured; nor are we to judge of what he can do by any precedents, so little has been tried.

—Henry David Thoreau.

COURTESY NIGHT IS OBSERVED BY O.E.S.

Annual observance of district courtesy night Thursday was a highlight of the year for Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, when officers of the 77th District were invited to exemplify the ritualistic work.

Worthy Matron Mildred Edwards and Worthy Patron Leonard Babcock welcomed the visiting officers and presided over the business session.

Miss Pauline Mastright Is Party Honoree

A dream fulfilled is the anticipated voyage to Holland in a few days for Miss Pauline Mastright of 2157 W. 245th street.

For a long time, in fact, ever since her arrival in-Lomita directly from Holland in 1923 with her parents and brothers and sisters, she has dreamed of returning to her native country.

Last week these dreams began to take shape as she bought her tickets and made arrangements but even as she did this she did not discuss the matter with any but her very closest friends. Her plan was to slip quietly away without tearful farewells.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Hazel Higgins of the same address, called her to the telephone and Miss Mastright was shocked and surprised to walk right into a room filled with friends and neighbors gathered to wish her bon voyage.

Cohortesses for the party were Mrs. Higgins and Mrs. Alice Clark. Guests included Nellie Crane, Pearl Sutherland, Sarah Strunk, Elizabeth Saunders, Margaret Kas, Gertrude Teunis, Loreta Barnett, Ethel York, Susie Marble, Minnie Higgins, Rhoda Moore, Della Daffron, Leah Ruckie, and Mesdames T. Penny, J. Spain, J. Lemm, S. Williams and G. McKay.

Many useful gifts were received by Miss Mastright and ice cream and cake were served. Miss Mastright left Monday to visit with her sister, Mrs. Marie Franzen in Pasadena before leaving today by train for New York to sail immediately upon her arrival there aboard the New Amsterdam for Rotterdam, Holland where she will renew acquaintances with relatives and family friends.

She anticipates reaching Holland just as the tulips are blooming but there was a nostalgic note in her voice as she said it's going to be a long time 'til September when I can come back home again."

FUCHSIA CLUB TO HEAR SPEAKERS ON GARDENING

Members of the Lomita Fuchsia Club will hear Harry Marshall, newly-elected president of the California Fuchsia Society and Murray Minehart, secretary, talk on general home gardening when the club meets tonight.

Meeting at the usual place, the social hall of the Community Presbyterian Church, 2154 W. 245th street, the members will hear the speakers in a talk on general home gardening and answer questions pertaining to spring gardens. The two men, who reside together in Los Angeles, won the cup from the State Fuchsia Society last year for the best garden during the visitation of gardens throughout the entire club area.

The usual refreshment hour, with Mrs. William Dalley as chairman for the evening will follow the meeting and decorations will be in keeping with the Easter season.

NOTED DESIGNER INTRODUCES 'ROUND-THE-CLOCK FASHIONS

Three important phases of the midsummer sport silhouette are prominent in Koret's newest collection for the urban traveler. Around-the-clock fashions, designed to cover weekend jaunts or houseparty circuits, include the three basic lines you'll be seeing all during late spring and summer. For spectator sports, there's the blade line, a very narrow mold. For active sports, there's the modified flare that promotes quick movement. Summer concert dates and porch fiestas take the bouffant feminine line, rounding all curves with soft gathers.

This collection, called "Trip-Taker Pair-Offs," is executed in a wonderful two-ply rayon suiting by Dan River that takes on summer with lightweight confidence. The fabric itself, although expensively finished, is completely washable! There are nine basic styles to the group, and, like all good weekend company, they make good mixers.

9:00 a.m. . . . to start the journey, there's a slim-suit with a soft, plunging cardigan neckline, an old favorite that is back in circulation with renewed charm. At 12:00 noon . . . heading for the weekend ball game, smoothly tapered slacks, with a single knife fold, a paneled waistline. At 1:00 p.m. . . luncheon on the patio takes a four-paneled extra skirt with taut waistline and baby flare. As an ally, there's a snug little vestee, with tiny sleeves that cap the shoulders and a scooped neckline that bares the throat. The vestee is crinkled-stitched, which puckers the fabric into an ultra-feminine touch. It does triple duty as a brief blouse with the slim-suit, as a bright vestee over a severe blouse, or as a dramatically simple bodice over slim slacks.

At 3:00 p.m. . . . at the beach or beside the pool, cuffed, tailored shorts, with a high-rising, built-up waistline. A contour halter is cut on the diagonal, and cord-stitched to add a contrasting texture look. These two echo a smart common denominator in the Trip-Takers—corded piping, used for a clean finish.

At 6:30 p.m., at late afternoon tea or cocktails, there's a very feminine sundress, with a shapely bodice that is tamed by a curving cuff. The skirt takes fullness at the waist, softening into a modified flare. A wispy waist belt emphasizes the little waistline.

And on into evening . . . to the zero o'clock, just add the trim, all-purpose bolero over your sundress. The bolero has rounded revers, petaselt cuffs, and a circular cutaway front.

The entire group of "Trip-Taker Pair-Offs," being a midsummer collection available in Torrance stores, comes in "Puckish" dream colors: reef coral, oyster white, fairy blue and fog grey. Because each style is built to mate with another, or vacation alone, this around-the-clock team of fashion travelers echoes the smart traveler's credo: traveling light, but with ever-changing scenery.

O.E.S. Plans Meet Tonight

The stated meeting of Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held in Masonic Temple at 8 o'clock this evening.

Rollie Bever and her committee will have charge of program arrangements.

Student Panel Highlights PTA Meeting

A panel discussion titled "A Look Ahead and a Look Back at the High School Program" was of interest to the members of Narbonne PTA when it was presented at the last meeting of the association on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Shields presided at the 2 o'clock meeting and Mrs. Minot Rugg, program chairman and president-elect of the organization, introduced the members of the panel. They included Mary Hatfield, chairman, A12, Jackie Esteb, Robert Jones, Charles Slocum, A10, and Lois Saftred and Jack Williams, A12.

The musical portion of the program was varied with a string trio composed of Duke Blakesley, violin, Don Crum, cello, and Eldridge Walker, piano, presenting "One Morning in May" by Carmichael; vocal solo by Joanne Adams, soprano, "Romance" from The Desert Song by Jerome Kern. She was accompanied by Sharon Lang, A flute trio played "Allegro Gioioso" by Hayden. These accomplished musicians were Sally Halling, Wendy Godsil, and Jessie Hill.

Tea and coffee were served at the close of the meeting.
