YWCA Camp Registrations Being Taken

Summer registrations are being taken at the YWCA office for Camp Tahquitz Meadows, the YWCA camp for high school and junior high school girls, in the San Jacinto mountains. Mrs. Elaine Hostmark, YWCA program director, announced this week.

Located at a 4,500 foot altitude, the camp provides for a varied activity program including swimming in an outdoor pool, hiking, horseback riding, and other sports. Teen-age girls count of most value from their YWCA camp experience the new friends they make, the new skills they learn and the joy of living, playing and worshipping together with other girls.

Camp Tahquitz Meadows is open for week, 10-day or two-week sessions beginning June 27 and ending September 1. The cost is $18.50 a week which includes insurance covering personal sickness and accident as well as room, board, and registration fee. Mrs. Hostmark states that any junior high or high school girl is eligible for camp attendance, whether or not she has been affiliated with a Y-Teen club. Further information can be obtained from the YWCA office, 1339 Post, Torrance 1356.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN L. HARSHBARGER

HARSHBARGERS MARK SILVER ANNIVERSARY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Harshbarger, 1104 Aca-cia avenue, was the setting for a beautifully appointed buffet supper party Saturday evening when they celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary.

An arrangement of vari-colored gladiolus, stock, and silver candles in crystal holders graced the table and a decorated two-tiered wedding anniversary cake, appropriately inscribed was cut by the celebrants.

Torrance residents for more than six years, the couple re-cited their nuptial vows in Tul-sa, Oklahoma and later made their home in Salt Lake City, where they reared their only child, Mrs. Ruth Davis, of this city.

Mrs. Harshbarger is active in Torrance Chapter No. 350, Order of the Eastern Star, and her husband, a Pacific Electric em- ployee, is affiliated with the Masonic lodge here.

Beautiful gifts, cards, and messages were received by the couple from family members and friends here and in the east.

Celebrating with them were Miss Della Clarkson, of Glen-dale and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pittenger, of Hollywood, long-time friends; Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, their son-in-law and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, and Leda Ann and John Leland Davis.

Investiture Held for New Brownie Troop

Investiture of a new Brownie troop and their leaders was a recent event at Wayside Chapel.

The troop, No. 776, has 17 members and is sponsored by the Women's Society of Christ- ian Service of Wayside Chapel. A donation of five dollars was presented to the troop by the society for their treasury.

Mrs. H. Carpenter invested Mrs. James B. Flagg, leader; and Mrs. Harold McClellan and Mrs. James Forgie, co-leaders. In turn the new leaders invested the following 'Brownies': Gene- and Joanne Armstrong, Judith Brown, Bette Davis, Gae Flagg, Susan Forgie, Diane and Derith Hanson, Jeanette Hess, Marlene Henon, Judith Hedstrom, Shirley Powell, Jeanette Palica, Patricia Mahoney, Sherian Thompson, Valerie Sarracco and Patricia Wilson. Ann Bodeman was taken into the new troop by trans- fer.

Committee members are Mes- dames Lyle Hess, telephone chairman; Charles Mahoney, cookie chairman; Mrs. B. E. Bell, program and W.S.C.S. rep- resentative.

After the ceremonies plans were made for their participa- tion in the annual summer Day- Camp

WILLIAMS-KELLY WED IN NEVADA

At home following their mar- riage in Las Vegas, Nev., are Frederick W. Williams of Los Angeles, and his bride, the former Hallie A. Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. An- derson, of 708 Columbia place.

The couple exchanged vows in a simple ceremony performed in First Methodist Church, Las Ve- gas and subsequently left for a honeymoon trip to points of in- terest in Nevada, Idaho and Utah. They will make their home temporarily at the Colum- bia place address.

Mrs. Church at Asilimar This Week

Mrs. Frank Church, harbor section chairman of Girl Scouts, is in Pacific Grove this week at- tending the conference of Girl Scout presidents and executives of the Twelfth Region. Mrs. Church will be at Asilimar, the Y.W.C.A. camp.

Also attending is Mrs. Eve Crittendon of Palos Verdes, re- gional committee member.

Girl Scouts of Troop 74 Hold Party

Combining spring party plans, the troop birthday party, invest- iture and Mother's Day party, members of Girl Scout Troop No. 74 held an interesting meet- ing and party investing into the troop, Nadina Naida and Barbara Winters.

Marlene Schildmeyer gave a short talk on the meaning of Juliette Low Day and what the troop is planning for the an- nual Ingathering.

For the refreshment hour tables were decorated in Girl Scout colors, green and yellow.

Present were Susan Mathews, Johnnie Barber, Pat Rydstrom, Nadina Naida, Marlene Schild- meyer, Rozella Butterfield and Barbara Winters. Guests were Mesdames Carrie Rydstrom, Mathews, W. M. Schildmeyer, Butterfield, Winters, W. D. Bar- ber and Carol Mathews.

Art Festival Marked by Big Attendance

The highlight of the first an- nual three-day May Festival of the arts held under the auspices of South Bay Civic Symphony Association at Redondo Union High School Friday, Saturday and Sunday was the presenta- tion of the South Bay Symphony Orchestra, ballet and a massed chorus Saturday evening.

Long before the curtain went up for the first number several hundred persons were turned away for lack of seating capacity.

Elyse Achle, conductor of the orchestra, presented the 75 mu- sicians in two numbers, "Tancredi Overture" by Rossini and "The River Moldau" by Smetana. A group of ballet numbers was presented by pupils of several dance studios in the bay area as well as a group of Narbonne High School students.

Returning to the stage, the or- chestra, directed by Miss Achle, and a massed chorus from six church choirs and civic choruses, directed by Mr. Melville Tully with Mrs. Tully at the organ, pre- sented three unforgettable num- bers, "One World" by O'Hara; Largo from "Kerens" and Hallelu- jah from "The Messiah" by Han- del. Completing this delightful program the orchestra played the great Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2 by Liszt.

Hundreds visited the exhibits of arts displayed in the various classrooms in the building throughout the three-day event. These included ceramics, pho- tography, lamps, floral arrange- ments and paintings.

On Saturday afternoon a May- pole and folk dancing was held on the lawn of the high school and Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock a program was given by the various church choirs and civic music groups including
