MR. AND MRS. FRANK MARTINKUS

Installation Ceremony Is Set for 11th

Torrance Masonic Temple will be the setting for the semi-annual public installation of officers of Torrance Bethel No. 50, International Order of Job's Daughters.
 Miss Joy Oursler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Oursler, and her staff of officers will be inducted.

GRAND-DAUGHTER'S PROGRAMS PROVIDE TRIP INCENTIVE

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Oursler are entertaining as their houseguests their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Oursler, of Latrobe, Pa.
 The eastern visitors arrived to attend commencement exercises at Torrance High School this evening when their grand-daughter Joy Oursler will receive her diploma.

They also will participate in her installation as honored queen of Torrance Bethel No. 50, International Order of Job's Daughters Saturday evening in Masonic Temple. Mr. J. C. Oursler will serve as master of ceremonies and Mrs. Oursler will sing.

WILL ATTEND COMMENCEMENT
 Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Olson, 2476 255th street, will attend commencement exercises at University of California at Berkeley next week when their son, Robert will receive his degree in architectural engineering.

Couple Wed In Church Ceremony

First Baptist Church was the setting for the recent wedding of Avalon Spangler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Crocker, of 25626 Marigold street, Harbor City, to Frank Martinikus, of San Pedro. Rev. C. Miles Northrup officiated in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose as her wedding attire an ice-blue tulle and tulle suit with matching accessories, complemented by an old-fashion bouquet centered with an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Carl Fiesel attended her sister as matron of honor, wearing salmon pink with gray accessories and a nosegay of blue and pink blossoms. Flower girls were Linda M. Fiesel and Marie Louise Spangler. Archie Kroll attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Tommy Sheehan, Jack Crocker, and Leo R. Crocker.

Dr. Esther Fiesel Townsend played the organ accompaniment for Diana Birk, who sang.

The bride was graduated from Banning High School and her husband, a son of F. Martinikus, of Ohio, received his education in the east.

A reception immediately followed the church ceremony and later the happy couple left for their honeymoon at Catalina. They are now at home at 620 W. Ocean avenue.

Nansel Feted at Gay Party

A bachelor's party honoring Gordon Nansel, was held Friday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nansel on 269th place.

The party, planned as a farewell before his wedding to Miss Nola Farmer of Torrance on Sunday at St. Andrews Episcopal Church, was attended by 25 of his close friends.

A buffet supper was a fitting climax to the evening.

Pandora Club Presents Play At Guest Dinner Meeting

An evening of drama of a humorous nature preceded by a dinner meeting, was an outstanding event for members of the Pandora Club of Walteria and their guests, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Snow, 24239 Ocean avenue.
 A bowl of lovely roses and tall lighted candles formed the table centerpiece.

A program, announced by Mrs. Al Conger, 24426 Neece, followed the dinner. Part of the living room was curtained off to form a stage for presentation of a humorous play, "The Little Red School at Hopkins Corner."
 Mrs. Conger introduced each costumed character with appropriate comments. The role of the teacher was played by Mrs. Paul Pendleton. Scholars were Mrs. Frankie Stevens, Mrs. Joe Vaverka, Mrs. Ronald Taylor, Mrs. Nathan Gordon, Mrs. T. M. Kirk, Mrs. George Powell, the board of education: Mrs. James Whitmer, Mrs. Robert Sullivan and Mrs. Dale Wands.

The teacher's struggle to show off her pupils to the board, the board's questions and the pupils' answers produced merriment among the guests.

After the play a pantomime, "The Old Spinning Wheel," in which a spinning wheel more than 100 years old, belonging to Mrs. Snow was used, was dramatized by Mrs. Frankie Stevens dressed in an old fashioned costume.

 She was accompanied by Mrs. Snow, who recited the words of the old song.
 Mrs. Snow also read a poem written by herself as a tribute to her mother who was not able to be present at the party.

Gifts were presented by the club to the eldest mother present, Mrs. Alice McNeil of Los Angeles; the youngest mother, Mrs. Esther Biener, Redondo Beach, and the mother of the largest number of children, Mrs. Mamie Logan, 24455 Ward street.

Guests included Mesdames Alice McNeil, Los Angeles; Edna Goodrow, Torrance; Esther Biener, Redondo Beach; G. Kendrick, Mamie Logan, J. F. Go-

Amaranths to Observe Anniversary

Redondo Court No. 44, Order of Amaranths, will observe its 28th anniversary at the meeting scheduled for Wednesday evening, June 15 at 8 o'clock in Masonic Temple, 516 Ruby street, Redondo Beach. Mrs. Della Sauer will serve as chairman of arrangements for the occasion.
 Highlights of the last meeting included initiation of candidates and installation of a prelate and a historian.
