Plans were outlined for sixth graders to go to Hermosa Biltmore for swimming Wednesday. Summer round-up and registration for kindergarten was held Friday June 3 at Waleria Recreation building.

A beautiful electric clock is the association's gift for use in the recreation building.

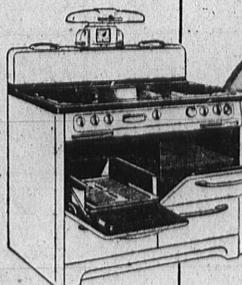

Meetings will be held at the Recreation center this next year due to overcrowded conditions in the school.

Mrs. Lola Suter

Did you Bingo at the Mewhorn's party Saturday night? Lots of people did and our pot-bolled $40 worth. Some of those present... Mrs. John Mahaffey, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Schooley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slater (the got the food wholesale), the Edward Scymours, Mr. and Mrs. Orson Wolfe, the Roger Farnhams, the Ben Clouchs, Mrs. William Carty, the George Hinzinks, the Tom McNarys, Mrs. Louis Gandsey, Mrs. Berry, the Harry Greenwoods, Mrs. Edward Fay, and the Sam Drumrights. John Whyte and Mrs. Byron Burton were helpers de luxe.

Doyle's Showhouse played to a capacity crowd Sunday morning at each of the three showings of "Adventures on a Tuna Boat." Coffee and doughnuts were served in the patio before the party. Some of those present... Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalons, Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Rounds, the Byron Johnsons, the Paul Murrays, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gaul, and the Harold Han-gele, and Larkins certainly deserve a great BIG hand for all their work. They have turned in the grand-slam total of $120.80 as the results of a bingo party, a bridge luncheon, and the Sunday morning show. Anybody got an orchid? Make it three orchids.

Mrs. James Hall and Mrs. Al Conover were co-hostesses Wednesday night at a bunco party at the Conover home on Sharynne Lane. The party honored the women of Sharynne Lane. Some of the guests were the Paul Barths, the Walter Harries, the Charles Robinsons, the Eugene Millers, the Austin Shotts (he won both times!), Betty (Mrs. Everett) Rowan, Mrs. Al Conover, Bob Wilson, Dottie (Mrs. Jack) Pomeroy, and Derby Rosenberger.

The Mease's Hopalong Cassidy Special every Friday night has been showing to a packed house. The kids come and the kids grow up but it seems that Hopalong goes on forever. (And I say more power to him!)

Luncheon and bridge was the theme of the day Thursday when four hostesses greeted their guests at the Schmitz ranch house on Carol Drive. Hostesses were Mrs. Everett Rowan, Mrs. Jack Pomeroy, Mrs. Donald Hall, and Mrs. William Schmitz. Guests included Mrs. H. D. Horne, Pat (Mrs. Sam) Drumright, Mrs. Robert Cotton, Marie (Mrs. Carl) Larkins, Mrs. Merkle Sparks, Mrs. W. M. Carlton, Peg (Mrs. J. V.) Powell, Mrs. Oliver Hopkin, and Mrs. Wayne Schooley.

Residents of Seaside Ranchos were out on masse Monday night when they entertained and were entertained at the Portuguese Bend Club in Rolling Hills. A buffet supper, swimming, and dancing were spotlighted during the evening fun-fest. A percentage of the proceeds was donated toward the light standard fund.

The first meeting of the future Seaside School Parent-Teachers Association was held last week and temporary chairmanships were set up as follows: Mrs. Henry Miller, presiding chairman; Mrs. Willard Wanke, secretary; Mrs. Frank Linscott, chairman of the By-Laws committee; Mrs. Raymond Hole, chairman of the nominating committee; Mrs. Donald Holmes, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Byron Johnson, "Call" chairman; and Mrs. Arthur Hackney, membership chairman.

An organization meeting was held last night at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club at which time By-Laws were presented and the election of officers took place.

The population of Seaside Ranchos was increased by TWO last Thursday. Both increases took place at the Torrance Memorial Hospital and both were male. The Melvin Johnsons of Sharynne Lane named their new son Randall McClain, and the Norman Goodriches of Reese Road chose William Norman for their third offspring.

Report on Funds: The grand total in the light standards fund has reached a peak of $763! Now we can really put ourselves on the back and shout out a loud "Hurrah!"

Don't forget the Square Dance tomorrow night at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club. A Box Supper (bring your own) has been planned for 7 p.m. High square dancing at 8:30. There will be instructions for beginners. The Men's Baking Contest will be judged at 10:30 p.m. Let's make this dance even bigger and better than the first one.

Your guest columnist for the next few weeks will be Frankie (Mrs. Paul Barth, Helen (Mrs. W. M.) Carlton, and Margaret (Mrs. Paul) Roettger. Be sure to call one of these gals and give her the dope. So long...
