Doris Bergon Feted with Bridal Party

The wedding of Miss Doris Bergon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bergon, 1968 Lomita boulevard and Seaman, first class, Bob Roby, U. S. Navy, scheduled for July 23, was the incentive for a recent bridal shower given at the Torrance home of Mrs. Dicey Hurst.

Summer flowers were used effectively and games offered diversion during the evening. Later the bride-elect was presented with many lovely gifts and refreshments were served.

Present were the honoree and her fiance and Mesdames Barbara McCann and daughter, Pat; Helen Piper, Marjorie Todd, Helen Wilson, Janet Bergon, Helen Maddy, Lois Prammen, Pearl Bisbine, H. Holden, Ruth Osborne, C. M. Bergon and Miss Joan Bergon.

Scout Mothers Make $150 on Benefit Dinner

One hundred and fifty dollars was realized from the recent benefit dinner served by the Scout Mothers for the maintenance fund of the Lomita Kiwanis Scout building, it was announced at the Scout Mothers meeting held at the home of Mrs. Susie Holms, 25410 Oak street.

Alberta Miller was elected vice president following the resignation of Mrs. Marguerite Ferguson and a pot-luck dinner for the next meeting was planned for June 29. Scout mothers and their immediate families will attend the dinner meeting to be held in the yard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hatfield on Narbonne avenue. This meeting will be the last for the season, the club reconvening in September.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Faye Chambers, Gladys Boyce, Ann Sheldon, Beatrice Giminez, Agnes Russell, Dorothy Bean, Cecil Goheen, Mattie Meyer, Lisle Hudson, Alberta Miller, Lila Hatfield, Marguerite Ferguson, Irene Rolfe by the hostess.

Modeling to be Taught at Banning

Walter E. Holstein, principal, Banning Evening School, Wilmington, announces a special short unit summer course in Fashion Modeling to open Monday evening June 27 at 7 o'clock. This class is especially planned to give young women who are interested in becoming models basic training in the techniques of fashion modeling. It is also open to those who wish to develop poise, self-assurance and improve personal appearance. Students from sixteen to thirty-five years of age only will be accepted.

Class will meet two evenings a week. Those wishing to join should enroll the opening evening of the class, Monday June 27, at Phineas Banning High School, 1500 Avalon Blvd., Wilmington.

This is a public school class which is free of charge.

Miss Peggy Mason, well-known fashion coordinator, associated with Wiggins Trade Technical College, Los Angeles, will instruct.

PERRY SCHOOL PTA IS HOSTESS TO COUNCIL

"Looking Toward Tomorrow" Education was the theme of the program for the second annual installation breakfast of the Torrance Council, Parent Teacher Association, held Wednesday at Perry School.

Mrs. W. E. Bowen, president, presided the meeting and presented Girl Scout Troop No. 867 in an impressive flag ceremony. The invocation was read by Mrs. J. S. Bruce, state historian and Junior past president of First District PTA and later Mrs. R. L. Yanke, extension director, First District, installed the officers who will serve during 1949-50.

Mrs. Grace Wright graciously acknowledged her introduction as a representative of the Torrance Unified School District board.

Other guests of honor were Mrs. Neal Stevenson, chairman of extension in elementary schools; Mrs. C. H. Turner, state past president; D. Boone Kirks, principal of Walteria School; and William Clinkenbeard, principal of Torrance Elementary School.

Following the introduction of guests Mrs. Nadine Nickol, mezzo soprano, sang, "Strange Music" (Grig) and "Vissi d'Arti" (Puccini).

Annual reports were heard and Miss Donna Isbell's "Southern Dance" and selections by the Mothersingers, directed by Anthony Vazzana, delighted the audience.

The choral's numbers follow: "The Bells of Youth" (Speck) "Cradle Song" (Kreutzer) "Dancing Song" (Hungarian Folk Song) "Summer Time" (Gershwin) "Plantation Song" (Brazilian Folk Song).

Mrs. A. C. Turner, who will serve as Council president during the ensuing year will be assisted by Mrs. A. B. Cowie, first vice president; Mrs. V. T. Vanderpool, second vice president; Mrs. G. W. Leech, recording secretary; Mrs. Elmer Moon, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Paul Stonecker, financial secretary; Mrs. Kay Ruffe, treasurer; Mrs. W. C. Graham, parliamentarian; Mrs. Bernard Leo, auditor; and Mrs. Forrest Cat, historian.

Mrs. Opsahl Is Elected to Office

Mrs. Carl W. Opsahl, member of Zeta Chapter, elected National vice president of Phi Sigma Phi Sorority at the annual convention held at Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel Saturday and Sunday.

Representing the local Zeta Chapter as delegate was Mrs. V. L. Stalcup of Lomita.

The opening convention session Saturday was followed in the evening by a dinner dance. Election of officers and their installation was held Sunday afternoon following brunch at the hotel. Climaxing the two-day convalesce, a tea, observing the 20th anniversary of the founding of the organization was held.

"PERSONALITY PLUS" REGISTRATIONS OPEN

Nick Thomas, expert hair stylist of Long Beach, will headline the YWCA "Personality Plus" series for girls 14-18 in July.

Mr. Thomas will give a demonstration of hair styling, using some of the girls from the audience as models as well as using some models prepared by him earlier in the day.

A winner of all the coveted hair styling awards in California, Mr. Thomas is a member of the Hollywood and Western States Hair Design Council. Among the prizes he has won are the Hollywood Guild Trophy, the Los Angeles Guild Trophy and the San Francisco and Western States Hair Designing Trophy. Mr. Thomas also has taught at several modeling schools in Long Beach and the Los Angeles area.

The "Personality Plus" series is being presented by the Torrance YWCA for girls 14 to 18 years of age. Registration for the series should be made at the YWCA office, 1399 Post, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. daily all next week, June 27 to July 1. The fee for the eight lecture-demonstrations is fifty cents. Sessions of the "Personality Plus" series will be held at the Central Guild Hall, Arlington at Marcellina, beginning Tuesday, July 5 at 7:15 p.m.

Mrs. Elaine Hostmark, Torrance YWCA program director, announced that girls interested in and other specialists are welcome to see her for further information

Legion Womer Complimented on Birthday

The grounds of the Charles LaFlamme home, 25915 Lucille street, provided the setting for a lovely party Saturday night when Lomita Post No. 645, American Legion, held a birthday party for the Auxiliary, the men taking charge of the arrangements including washing.

Approximately 60 attended the party which featured outdoor games.

Chairman Charles LaFlamme was assisted by Joe Haglam, Pete Wolf, Art Basile, Herb Manning, and Ed Stambaugh.

Bowls of potato salad, home-baked beans, Boston style, chicken soup, baked ham, ice cream, cake and coffee were served on the menu.

BUFFINGTON PUPILS RECITALS SCHEDULED

On Friday evening, June 24 at 7:30, o'clock Kathryn Buffington, pianist and teacher, will present in recital piano students from ages 7 to 15 at her studio home 1434 Post avenue. Duo-piano and solos will be played and an interesting program will be given.

The graduation recital of Beverly Luster and Eldridge Walker will be given on Saturday evening, also at 7:30. Beverly Luster is entering college this fall to major in music. This young duo-piano team presented a delightful program in June for Torrance Women's Club, playing a group of three duo-piano numbers.

Mrs. Buffington will present Mickey VanDeventer, Emily Burchfield, and Carol Jacobs in their own recital of duo-piano and solos on Sunday afternoon, June 26, at 2:30. In the evening at 7:30 their program of solos and duo-piano numbers.

Baritone soloist Jack Blackmon with Patricia Blackmon as accompanist, will give a program of songs on this program. Patricia was piano soloist at the Narbonne High School graduation in Lomita last week, playing the Chopin Polonaise in A Major.

Beverly Luster and Eldridge Walker also will play on Sunday night presenting Recharinoff, Prelude in G Minor, Bach-Gounod: Ave Maria and closing with the Malagena by Lecuona-Nash, which is being played by special request. The public is cordially invited to all of these recitals featuring Stephen Blackmon, Carol Wieman, Donna Evans, Jack Davis, Lela Wieman, Lenore Sexton, Richard Malone, Gary Hakanson, Carol Hamilton, Judy Yeltema, Rocco Falumbo, Barbara Stout, Frank Palumbo, Carol Jacobs, Emily Burchfield, Beverly Ordway, Mickey VanDeventer, Patricia Blackmon, Eldridge Walker, Beverly Luster.

Patti and Norma Nelson, Betty Smith, and Terrence Spang, in also students of Mrs. Buffington, will serve as ushers for all the programs.

Baby Gifts Presented at Shower

Mrs. C. Arthur Woodcock was complimented when her mother-in-law, Mrs. Charles E. Woodcock entertained with a baby shower at her home.

Shower games were the diversion and lovely gifts to the Woodcock heir-to-be were presented in a basket.

Pink and white sweet peas used for the refreshment table and the party appointments surprised the stock market.

Present were the honoree and Meses Robert Crist, Inez Colbacher, Henry Artigue, Edna Artigue, Edward Whiteberry, Don Sion, J. W. Luman, John Jay, Richard West, and Mrs. James Basch. Gifts were sent by Meses Arthur Atkinson and Robert Sleeth Jr.

STUDENT NOW
 Clyde H. Redley, former Torrance man, who has been teaching in a Riverside Junior High school is now at University of California at Santa Barbara where he is studying for his S.A. degree. Mrs. Redley (Laver) Harris and her three children also are living in Santa Barbara.
