

Club President's Home Is Gala Party Setting

Members of Torrance Art-Craft Club were delightfully entertained Friday evening at the Beech avenue home of their president, Mrs. Frances Snodgrass. The occasion was the group's semi-annual informal supper party with Mesdames Mary Uimer and Hazel Ward as hostesses.

Featuring a June bride motif the supper table was attractively decorated with bridal party figurines. Six diminutive candle bridesmaids completed the entourage. Garlands of summer flowers and greenery outlined the novel centerpiece.

Present were the club president and Kay Robinson, Ruth Hardin, Vivian Cook, Helen Burgen Young, Dorothy Quiring, Leila Everly, Emily Middleton, Lillian Sleep, Cora Bohrer, Bettina Miller, Eva Thomas, Maybel Banks, and Eloise Ricci.

The lighting fund marches on. . . . Many parties this week have added to the fund for our much needed street lights. The Earl Sacks and Harold Teaches of Sharyne Lane entertained the Jim Halls, Dr. Rounds, Jack Daniels, Paul Kaspars, Sam Drumrights, Tom McNarys, Frank Hanovers, Lt. Commander Frazier and wife, Mary Conover, her brother Bob Wilson, with a ham dinner on Friday night.

Saturday afternoon at the Paul Murrays on Doris Way Seaside bought everything from Evelyn Hyder's alarm clock to E. Herbenson's chocolate cupcakes from auctioneers Don Hicks and Paul Murray, while munching on delicious hamburgers and hot dogs barbecued by Lois Hicks and Eleanor Murray.

The Spelmans acquired an eight weeks old honey colored cocker, promptly named Miss MacTavish; Dorothy Cole, a cute brass lamp; Dagmar Hanley, a luscious cherry pie baked by Margaret Jeffrey; the Hopkins, a floor lamp; a radio; baby scales; and squash from Dorothy Johnson's garden. Paul and Dorothy went away with a sun hat, with glasses; Bobbie Scanlon some Hawaiian leis; Bertha Johnson a hat box; and Freddie Keeshan everything that was left. . . . A wonderful party.

Sunday afternoon the Russell Hopkins entertained many families at an old fashioned ice cream social in their lovely backyard and patio. Delicious cakes donated by Eddie Rosenberger, Jeanne Keeshan, Peg Hall, June Schooley, Elizabeth Boggs, and Emily Honzik and luscious home made ice cream, made by the Robert Meases, Ev Rowans, Jack Pomeroy, and Russell Hopkins was served by the host and hostess, with Dorothy Pomeroy assisting.

The Sanford Pattons and Eddie Fays were hosts last week at a wonderful barbecue supper at the Patton residence on Robert Road. A menu of hamburgers, salads, shoestring potatoes, relish, watermelon, and super coffee (donated by DeLyle Monson) was enjoyed by 110 Seasideers.

Col. and Mrs. Myron Page entertained with a buffet supper at their home on Sharyne Lane. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanover, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Hurst, their house guests Mr. and Mrs. Roy Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hall and Mr. Bob Wilson.

Faye Scanlon and Barbara Cotton added nine dollars to the swelling fund with a bridge party and candy sale at Scanlon's home on Doris Way. Peg Hall, Peg Powell, June Schooley, Dorothy Johnson, Mary Lou Hopkins, Pauline Doyle, Dorothy Jones, Jeanne Keeshan, Dottie Haegle, Jane Carlson, and Mildred Arndt were greeted by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Larkins and children of Doris Way recently enjoyed a four-day vacation of fishing and camping at Lake Henshaw.

Don Hall increased his family of three to six one night last week, when he took his young 'uns Don, Tommy and Carolyn, and Freddie Page, Lolly Hanover and Tommy Schooley, (complete with sleeping bags) to the beach for an overnight outing.

Walteria Park was the scene of a preliminary baseball game between our Seasideer nine and the 'pretty boys' from Hollywood Riviera Sunday morning, with our boys coming out on the long end of a 21 to 7 score. The big game comes up on the Fourth of July. Hope the worm doesn't turn. We want to keep the trophy Paul Barth is making down 'hyar in the hollow.'

Miss Ruby Seay of Indianapolis, Indiana, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Shockey of Doris Way. Miss Seay will visit Mrs. Shockey's parents Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bradford of Manhattan Beach before returning east.

A party in the back yard of the Tabing residence on Reece Road marked the third birthday of young Bobby Tabing. Mrs. Robert Tabing, Bobby's mother was assisted in the serving of ice cream and cake by Bobby's grandmother Mrs. R. O. Tabing and his aunt Mrs. R. H. Tabing. Young guests who enjoyed the refreshments, taking home balloons and boat whistles were Johnnie Burton, Betsy Mewborn, Christine Looman, Freddie and Barbara Buxton, Mary Gansley, Wally Daniels, Dickie O'Brien, and Carol Tabing of Compton—Bobby's cousin.

The Walter Halloways and Byron Johnsons of Seaside Ranchos joined Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dodge of Costa Mesa, parents of Mrs. Halloway and Mrs. Johnson, and many members of their large family at the Orange County Pioneer Picnic at Irvine Park last Sunday. Byron Johnson Jr. is home after a week's vacation at the home of his aunt Miss Mancey Taylor of Berkeley, and a few days visit with his grandfather and grandmother Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dodge in Costa Mesa.

St. James Church, Redondo Beach, was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday morning when Miss Bette Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Harris, Seaside Ranchos, was married to Mr. William Waters of Inglewood. The bride chose for her wedding a traditional gown of embossed organdy over white satin with a finger tip veil. A reception immediately following the ceremony was held at the Redondo Beach Woman's club, and the newly-weds are now honeymooning at Las Vegas and Denver, Colo. Invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanover, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Burne, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Witney, and Mr. Jess W. Witney of Seaside Ranchos.

Helen and Bill Schmitz have returned from a marvelous week's vacation at Silver Tip Lodge near Yosemite National Park and the Mountain View Hotel in Santa Cruz. Lucky people!

Young Linda Sue Cole of Redondo Beach celebrated her fifth birthday with a party given at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wright, on Reece Road last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Wright entertained with movies serving ice cream and cake to Johnnie Burton, Joyce Goodrich, Freddie and Barbara Buxton, Pat and Sue Farnham, Bobby Tabing, Dickie O'Brien, Alice and Betsy Mewborn, Marita Morris, Norman John Higginson of Redondo Beach and the little guest of honor.

Your regular scribe Lola Suter will be back with you next issue so keep her posted on the news. Till then bye now! Hope to see all of you at our BIG, BIG Fourth of July carnival with food, fun, and festivity for all from breakfast at the Gaul residence at 5321 Linda Drive to the grand climax at 7:30 p.m.
