

Newlyweds To Continue Schooling

Home from a wedding trip to Lake Arrowhead, Mr. and Mrs. George Todd are receiving their friends at 9612 Artesia street, Bellflower.

The former Miss Carol Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie D. Cooper and George Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sellens, recently were united in marriage at the Community Presbyterian Church, Bellflower.

The bride, a graduate of Excelsior Union High School, will attend the Pacific Bible College where her husband is also a student. She will major in a musical course accenting piano and vocal.

Panhandler Activities

Mrs. Dorothy Faulkner, 1860 262nd street, was hostess to the Panhandlers when they held their August meeting. Committee in charge included Mrs. Faulkner, Evelyn Vandette and Helen Becket. Accepted into the group were two members, Rita Wyckoff and Mable Damon. Luscious hotdogs were served as refreshments.

Last Saturday's dance and card party at Normont Terrace was an outstanding success. There was a large turnout and a friendly enjoyable evening. Doughnuts and coffee were served.

The Panhandlers will hold their rummage sale August 25, 26, and 27 at 1638 Pacific Coast Highway.

Regular dance at Normont Terrace will be given August 27. Acting on the committee will be Lilian Katilla, Heim Chudy and Jo Parsons. Sandwiches and cake will be served.

Next meeting is to be held August 29, at the home of Jo Parsons, 26219 Ozone avenue. Serving on the committee will be Phyllis Matthews, Myrtle Peterson, and Rita Code.

Honeymooning at Santa Barbara, San Francisco, and Del Monte are Mr. Russell A. Lund of 1415 Post avenue, son of Mrs. Gertrude A. Lund of Shennadoh, Iowa, and his bride, the former Miss Marjorie Estrella Long, of Los Angeles, daughter of Mrs. Stella A. Long, of Columbus, Ohio.

Rev. Lawrence J. Weinert, pastor of the Church of the Lighted Window, officiated in the presence of 75 wedding guests assembled Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kenneth Coates, Oakwood Acres, Flintridge.

Given away by Mr. A. V. McNamer Sr., the bride was beautifully attired in blush pink satin trimmed in deep pearls with matching hat and finger-tip veil. She carried a white orchid and a shower of bouvardia on a matching prayer book.

Mrs. Robert I. Plomert Jr., wearing amethyst satin with matching hat and pink roses was her only attendant. Robert I. Plomert Jr., attended the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were the Misses Virginia Martindale, Juanita Presnell, Marilda Kremer, Arlene Anderson, Bessie Brazee, and Mrs. Maxine McNamer.

Preceding the ceremony Dolly Briggs played the accompaniment for Arthur Briggs, who sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception at the Coates home immediately followed the ceremony. Assisting hostesses were Mesdames O. D. Hiebert and J. W. Blohm, and Sylvia Elwood, Marjorie Savage, and Dorothy Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Lund will be at home at 1415 Post avenue.

Amaranths To Sponsor Breakfast

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walton of 3814 W. 112th street, Inglewood, will open their home Sunday, August 21 for a benefit breakfast to be served from 9 a.m. to 2 o'clock.

A donation of $1 to be accepted from each person attending will swell the treasury of Redondo Court No. 44, Royal Order of Amaranth. Everyone is invited.

WELCOME DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thomas Janssen, of 1348 Carson street, are the proud parents of their first child, an eight pound daughter born at the Torrance Memorial Hospital, August 4, at 2:23 a.m.

The little lady will answer to the name of Deborah Sue. Mrs. Janssen will be remembered as the former Shirley Stewart, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Stewart, of Torrance.

Miss Trafzer Complimented

Delightful summer social event was the bridal shower honoring Helmi Trafzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Trafzer, 2017 W. Lomita boulevard, given Thursday evening, by Mrs. K. V. Hincley in her home at 24103 Narbonne avenue.

Motif of pink and white was followed for decorations throughout the rooms, complemented by a profusion of fragrant cut flowers and exciting wedding bells suspended from the chandelier.

Centering the refreshment table was a dainty wedding ring fashioned of fresh flowers encircled with candles. Later when the serving began, the flowers were replaced with a white sheet cake with pink lettering at the head of which posed an exquisite "bride" holding aloft a tiny pink umbrella.

The evening was devoted to games and impromptu musical selections by the guests. Game creating most interest was the embroidering of original designs on tea towels for the bride. Walking away with first prize was Elyse Aehle, director of South Bay Symphony Orchestra. Repository for the numerous lovely gifts received by the honoree was a cherished heirloom cedar chest belonging to the hostess.

Adding a pleasant and unique phase to the arrangements was the red and white dietite or "punch bowl" room, where the gay and fascinating colors blended harmoniously with the treasured punch bowl set of the hostess.

Guests present were Mesdames Dean Hudson, Lavona Williamson, Phyllis Wilkerson, Julia Rorem, Hathaway, Clara Butler, Francis Hincley, Clara Kimbrell, W. I. Trafzer (mother of the honoree), Marion Wilkerson, Sr., prospective bridegroom's mother, Maurice Donnelly, San Pedro; Grace White, Los Angeles; Misses Betty Underwood, Elyse Aehle, Violet Wilkerson (prospective bridegroom's sister), and Mrs. Jane Able.

Receiving invitations but unable to attend were Miss Margaret Bauman; Mrs. Richard Bauman, Jean Bauman, Nick Buffalo, Charles Mitsch, Sam Samson, Dorothy Wells, Curry, M. Horn, Joe Haslam, Levi Stump, Gladys Lyng, Irene Howe and Richard Thyhurst. Mrs. K. V. Hincley, as hostess, was present to insure the enjoyment of guests.

Reception To Follow Nuptials

Miss Catalina (Cathy) Fernandez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fernandez of 2475 Lomita boulevard, and John Garcia of San Pedro, will be married about 9 o'clock Saturday morning in a court-house ceremony at Los Angeles.

The bride will be attired in a blue ensemble with white accessories. Her only attendant will be her sister Delores who will wear soft rose. The costumes of both girls will be complemented by rose corsages. Gus Lavizari will serve the bridegroom as best man.

About 50 guests have been invited to attend a reception to be given at 2154 W. 25th Street, Lomita, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Fernandez is a popular member of Lomita's younger set. She has been employed by the Lomita Permanent Wave Shop for the past four years and will continue to work there after returning from a two-week honeymoon. The young couple will make their home in San Pedro.

AMODT-MITCHELL VOWS RECITED BEFORE 300

Carolyn Louise Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Mitchell, of 1323 Madrid avenue, recited vows to become the bride of John Peter Amoldt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin L. Amoldt, of Crescent City, and formerly of Redlands.

The Sunday afternoon ceremony took place in St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Hollywood. Rev. George W. Barnes, pastor, and friend of the bridegroom's family, officiated. Three hundred guests attended the church ceremony and the reception immediately following in the church parlors.

Carolyn was lovely in a wedding gown of original design, the creation of her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Bruchez, professional designer of Los Angeles. Chantilly lace, embroidered in sequins formed the bodice and peplum, which were embellished with applied lace medallions on nylon which material formed the skirt, fashioned with slight train. Her blush veil was held in place by an orange blossom head dress worn by her mother at her wedding 24 years ago. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and bouvardia.

Mrs. Edwin W. Smith Jr. (Doris Robinette), as matron of honor, was in yellow organdy over tulle and her flowers were talisman roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Sandstrom, Torrance; and Mrs. Elvin L. Amoldt Jr., of Redlands, wore gowns of Nile green over taffeta and carried yellow roses.

Little Carolyn Sue Bruchez, cousin of the bride and her namesake, was flower girl in a green organdy replica of the bridesmaids' gowns.

Elvin L. Amoldt Jr., was his brother's attendant and Paul Mitchell, brother of the bride, and Rodger Woodrow, ushered.

Mrs. Mitchell received her guests in turquoise blue with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Miss Esther A. Johnson, of Los Angeles, aunt of the bridegroom, represented his parents. She was attired in rose jersey with a corsage of pink roses.

Pouring at the reception were Mrs. J. C. Monfalcone of Manhattan Beach and Mrs. W. D. Nuckles of West Los Angeles. Assisting with serving were the Misses Jane Humbleton, of Al-
