

Beach Cleaner

Shown in Magazine

Two pictures of the "beach sanitizer" designed by Victor Chatten of 1565 West 215th street, appear on page 104 of this week's issue of Life Magazine.

In the foreground of one of one of the picture is lovely 15-year-old Patsy Ann Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bowman of 1603 1/2 "A" Arlington avenue. The beach cleaner was constructed by Chatten here in Torrance. It is believed to be the only machine designed especially for beach cleaning.

Dolls Draw Spectators

More than 100—dolls and spectators—were present last Saturday afternoon to witness the Summer Recreation Department sponsored city-wide doll show held at the Civic Auditorium.

Rex Welch, director of the program, stated that judges had a hard time choosing the best of the lot due to the keen competition.

VISIT BROTHER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cooper, 1225 Beech avenue, returned recently from Great Falls, Mont., where they were called by the serious illness of his brother, Sam Cooper.

Youth Awarded Clarinet By Local Music Lovers

Musical aptitude went not unnoticed in the case of ten-year-old Stephan Thomas.

Friday morning Bill Carnes removed a Goodmanish-looking clarinet from one of the cases at his El Prado Music Store and handed it to young Stephan. The act climaxed a month's effort by Torrance people interested in furthering the musical education of a deserving Torrance child.

It started when John Almond put up $100 to help celebrate the opening of his new department store. The search for a worthy youth was led by Mrs. Helen Selover, president of the Band Mothers. After determining that Stephan Thomas was their boy, Carnes made the boy's wish for a clarinet a reality, by reducing the price of the expensive "licorice stick" to the available $100.

Yesterday, Stephan was hitting high C's at the home of his guardian, Mrs. Mary Friedland, at 18410 Hawthorne boulevard. And the neighbors, who know good music when they hear it, didn't mind it a bit.

Speaks to Group

Raymond J. Casey, director of the new Harbor Junior College, was the principal speaker Tuesday night at a meeting of the Shoestring Community Association in the Nazarene Church. Casey outlined the program of the college which will open in September.

EVENING CLASSES REGISTRATION SET BY COLLEGE

Students who have attended El Camino College formerly and who during the Fall semester 1949-50 will enroll only in evening classes may register between 4 and 8 p.m. September 12 and 13, while new students who wish to enroll in El Camino evening classes may enroll either September 13 or 14 between 4 and 8 p.m. according to the information released by H. J. Sheffield, director of student personnel.

Sheffield points out that schedules which include names of courses and hours when they will be given, are now available at the campus. The Fall schedule of courses will be mailed to anyone calling Menlo 4-6631 and requesting one. Many new courses are being offered for the first time, he stated.

Young Mrs. Hubbard went to her cupboard, To get out her silverware. Now, when she got there, Found the cupboard was bare! Did she scream, faint, or tear 'out her hair'?

Nepe! She just phoned us. Fully covered by insurance. Smart gal, eh?
