TORRANCE

DELPHIANS SET FIRST FALL MEET

"Man's Place in the Living World" will be the program topic for the first meeting of Sigma Rho Chapter of Delphian Societies when members meet Friday morning, September 2 at 10 o'clock in the lecture room of Torrance city library.

Objective of the program is, "To examine the origin and development of life forms on our planet with special reference to man's relation to other living forms."

The main topic will be developed by Mrs. Dean L. Sears, who also will serve as seminar leader, and Misses Hartley E. Carr, Don H. Hyde, and C. E. Ward. A full attendance is requested by President Mrs. Don Hyde.

Wilber Hall Recovering in Hospital

The many friends of Wilber Hall Jr., 23-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Hall, 2275 25th street, will be happy to learn that his condition is satisfactory following major chest surgery last weekend at Good Samaritan Hospital, Los Angeles. He expects to be confined in a cast at the hospital for about three weeks.

Wilber is a graduate of Narbonne, class 1944 and attended the Pacific States University as a student of radio engineering.

Party Fetes One-Year-Old

A birthday cake boasting one candle and the inscription "Happy Birthday Dayle," centered the refreshment table when tiny Dayle Willard, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Willard of Torrance, celebrated his first birthday at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Horner, 1659 252nd street, Harbor City.

Ice cream and cake was served to the following guests who remembered the honoree with appropriate gifts: Mr. and Mrs. Willard, James Horner, Mr. and Mrs. John Grey and Johnny and the hosts.

Amaranths' Grand Matron Plans Visit

On September 22 Grand Royal Matron May McCormick will make her official visit to Lomita Court No. 61. Order of the Amaranth. Because of this, all members of the group are urged to attend the September 8 stated meeting to be held at California hall when there will be a practice in preparation for the event.

Presiding at the business session will be Sally Weber, royal matron, and Eugene Spencer, royal patron.

Townsendite Festivities

Torrance Townsend Club No. 1 will hold their customary weekly party Friday evening in Torrance Woman's Clubhouse. Bunco play will precede dancing which has been scheduled for 8:15 o'clock. Everyone is invited.

Carpenters Celebrate Birthdays

Tiny dolls and colorful toy automobiles served as favors for small guests at the birthday party last Thursday afternoon honoring the first natal day of little Joanne Carpenter and the second of her sister Elythe.

In the excitingly decorated yard at the home of their parents Floyd and Gertrude Carpenter, 2445 Narbonne avenue, the little hostesses entertained amid a profusion of gay balloons and crepe paper streamers. Ice cream cones, cup cakes, candy and suckers, were the items on the diversified menu which was regarded most favorably by the younger set.

Joining in the fun were Mrs. Maria Hitchcock and granddaughter, Georganne Baker, Johnnie Pollock, Mrs. Mary Robertson with daughter, Linda and son Larry, Mrs. Phyllis Lett with sons Bartley and Lewis, Mrs. Margaret Taylor, Mrs. Bette Taylor and daughter Babette, Mrs. Delma Gerhart with Peggy and Patsy, Mrs. Jewelyn Wallace and daughter, Lanaya, Mrs. Katie Robertson, Mrs. Norma Pleher and daughter Candace, Mrs. Mable Carpenter, Mrs. Sadie Barrett and daughter Sandy, Mrs. Dallas Wallick with son Kenneth, Julie Dambrell, Mrs. Doris Carvill and daughter Marilyn, Mrs. J. L. Box, Mrs. Margaret Dyroff with son Tommie, Mrs. Ernie Cleward with son Dickie and daughter Linda, and Mrs. Brownie Doyle.

Young Folk Like Farm Vacation

Marilyn Spain of 1512 262nd street, Harbor City, and her cousin, Miss Hinz, of 2432 24th street, returned last week from a seven-week vacation in Nebraska and Iowa.

The greatest portion of this time was spent on one or another of their cousins farms. And what fun these ramblers had! They vow that their future motto will be, "To the farm for vacation."

VISIT SANTA BARBARA
Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Scott and daughter Judith Ann of Harbor City spent last weekend in Santa Barbara. They were guests at the home of Mrs. Scott's cousin, Dennis Savage.

BROWNS ENTERTAIN
Mr. and Mrs. Terrial Becker and son Gerald of San Pedro, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Newell H. Brown, 2324 250th street.

IGNACE HILSBERG NAMED MUSICAL DIRECTOR OF SYMPHONY ASSOCIATION

Ignace Hilsberg, world famous pianist and outstanding authority in the field of music has accepted the chair of musical director of The South Bay Civic Symphony Association. He was unanimously appointed to the honor position.

Mr. Hilsberg's rise to musical fame is an example of extraordinary achievement. At the age of nine, he was soloist with the Warsaw Philharmonic Orchestra; the following year he won a scholarship at the Petrograd Conservatory, and on his graduation he was summoned to play before the Imperial family. When he toured the Orient, he was invited to play before the President in the Palace at Peking, and was awarded the medal of Chevalier of the Chinese Republic. Later, he held the chair of professorship for two years at the Royal Conservatory in Athens, Greece. Upon Mr. Hilsberg's coming to America, he was selected from hundreds of applicants to be soloist with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. He has likewise appeared as soloist with the Boston, Symphony and Buffalo Symphony Orchestras. From 1926 to 1936 he was on the faculty of the Juillard Foundation in New York. In December 1936 Mr. Hilsberg was soloist with the L. A. Philharmonic under the direction of Dr. Otto Klem-

Maybe, Will Spend Winter in Florida

If the tropical hurricanes will cease smashing the Florida coastline, Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Fuller, 25011 Narbonne may spend the coming winter there.

The Lomitanis leave September 7 on an extended vacation. The itinerary includes: New York, Indiana, Kentucky and maybe—Miami.

perer; in 1943 he appeared with Mr. Steinberg, and the Buffalo Symphony and in 1946 with Albert Wallenstein, and the Los Angeles Philharmonic. At present, Mr. Hilsberg is living in Brentwood where he teaches piano between concerts. He is the foremost teacher of pianism on the West Coast.

Conference Attended By Local Group

This community was represented at the National Conference of American Handweavers held Monday evening at Occidental College.

Enjoying the program and viewing the exhibits were Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Lisman, Mrs. Bada Pearson and Keith Pearson, and Mrs. Minnie S. Brooks, Frank Church, Phyllis Dow, and Mary Ulmer.

"Uses of Handweaving in a Modern World" was one of the short developed on the diversified program.

WSCS to Resume Meetings

Women's Society of Christian Service of Methodist Church will resume regular meetings after a short summer recess on Thursday, Sept. 8.

The business meeting will be called to order at 11 a.m. and a 50-cent noon luncheon will be served by Circle No. 2, to which all members and newcomers are most cordially invited. The afternoon session will convene at 1:30 o'clock with Grace Stockwell, missionary returned from service in Burma and India will be the guest speaker.

Card Party

Mrs. Neil McConlogue will serve as hostess chairman for this evening's Catholic Ladies card party in Nativity hall, 2044 Manuella avenue. Everyone is invited. Tallies may be procured at the door.

Customary games will be played and at the close of play refreshments will be served by Mrs. McConlogue and her committee, who are: Miss Mary Scallen and Mrs. J. T. Bailey, Frank Cameron, J. L. Dorrill, Frank J. Farrell, E. Roy Hageman, T. H. Herrin, William Lipkowsky, Thomas Moore, C. Richmond, Ernest Mize, C. Annis, and E. Casey.

Sunday dinner guests in the home of Raymond DeHart, 2227 25th street were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keidel of Fontana. The Keidels formerly were residents of Lomita.
