

Seaside . . .
. . . Ranchos

Mrs. Helen Carlson

Latest report on our all important street lights was given by Paul Roettger, lighting chairman, at the regular board meeting of the Homeowners Association at the William A. Schmitz home last Thursday evening. All of the necessary paper work has been done and the actual erection of Seaside lights will begin immediately.

Other business matters discussed by block leaders included the traffic problem in the tract and suggestions for use of the extra money collected in our street lighting campaign, which included trees, a park, donations to Seaside Girl Scout troops and Seaside PTA. Any worthwhile ideas will be welcomed by the group; just let your block captain know what you'd like.

Newest addition to Seaside Ranchos is very young Priscilla Conover who made her debut at Torrance Memorial Hospital early Sunday morning, weighing six pounds, ten and a half ounces. Mother Mary and baby are fine and expected at their Sharynne Lane home today. On hand to welcome home the little girl will be sisters Molly, Barbara, and Carol, and brother Albie. Uncle Bob Wilson and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. H. Wilson, visiting here from Delaware.

Mrs. Belle Marland, lower Doris Way, accompanied by Mrs. Lee Austin of Port Townsend, Wash., has just returned from a two and a half months automobile trip to visit her cousins the Fred Faurniers of Winsted, Conn. Mrs. Austin arrived in Seaside Ranchos in early June and the two women left here June 19 for their cross country tour to the east, which included enroute stops and sight-seeing tours of Salt Lake City, Denver and Pittsburgh. While visiting with her cousins, Mrs. Marland visited her birthplace in New Hartford, Conn, which she left when 11 years old, returned Vermont, New Hampshire, Connecticut and New York City, and visited her son-in-law's relatives in New Haven, Conn. Anyone from those eastern states interested in talking with Mrs. Marland will find her at the Frederick Knouse home on Doris Way with lots of snapshots and notes of her interesting trip.

New Seaside residents are Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Weitzel, and children Karen 9, Tommy 8, Patty 7, and Jimmy 4, who are renting the Sam Dale home at 23007 Doris Way. Mr. Weitzel is an engineer for Bechtel Corp. of Los Angeles and has moved here from Culver City.

Still not up and around, but well on the road to recovery, are three Seaside teenagers who were quite ill last week. They are Judy Greenwood, daughter of the Harry Greenwoods, Sharon Barth, daughter of the Paul Barths, and Byron Johnson, Jr.

It was birthday week in the tract with resultant festivities which included a double birthday party at the Carl Carlsons for the two Carlson girls, a joint birthday party at the Sparks home for Sidney Sparks and Johnny Miller, a fomme stag at the Flahive home for young Alice, and a surprise bridge supper at the Roettger home for husband Paul.

Carol Lynne and Jacquelyn Carlson celebrated their seventh and third birthdays with traditional ice cream and cake, a big one and a little one, last Thursday at an afternoon party. Helping the girls celebrate were Mary Kay Jeffrey, Paultette, and Diane Murray, Douglas Haegle, Joan Keeshan and mother Mrs. Fred Keeshan, brother Billy Carlson, grandmother Ellen Carlson of Inglewood and an aunt Mrs. Norman Burnett of North Hollywood.

Young Sidney Sparks and Johnny Miller celebrated their fourth birthdays on Friday with a luncheon party in the patio of the Markel Sparks home on Doris Way. Young guests enjoying the circus party were Jayne and Johnny Carlson, Timmy and Carolyn Roettger, Bruce and Brent Schockency, Linae and Marlene Fetter, Tommy and Carolyn Hall, Barbara, Carol and Albie Conover, Kenny Hyder, Steve Sparks, and Barbara Jean Sedey of Redondo Beach. Unable to attend were Nancy and Bonnie Yates of Burbank, Assisting Mrs. Sparks and Mrs. Miller were the Misses Alexandria and Jo Ann O'Hanlon.

Twelve girls gathered at the Flahive home on Reese Road Monday for an afternoon of games to mark Alice's tenth birthday. Mrs. Flahive, assisted by older daughters, Sydney and Margie, served traditional refreshments to Barbara Merola, Pat and Roberta Canty, Pat and Susan Farnum, Diane Witney, Beth Gruver, Betty and Marita Morris, Alice Mewborn, Judy Powell, and Linda Mae Scio-neaux.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Hopkin tried out their new barbecue this week with the Carl Lar-kins and William Scanlons as "guinea pigs." Reports are it worked fine and Russ is a wonderful chef.

Attending the pot-luck supper and bridge party in the newly decorated dining room of the William Haegle home last Wednesday were Mesdames Peg Powell, Mary Conover, Peg Hall, Margaret Roettger, Marie Lar-kins, Dorothy Jones, Pauline Doyle, Faye Scanlon and Dottie Haegle, the hostess.

Honoring Mrs. C. H. Turner of Redondo, past president of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, who was instructor of parliamentary procedure at the third meeting of the PTA Correspondence course in history, organization and leadership of PTA, work in Wateria Park last Tuesday-morning, Mrs. Paul Roettger, Seaside president, held a luncheon at her home following the morning meeting. Other guests were Mrs. A. C. Turner, president of the Torrance Council, Margaret Jeffrey, parent educational chairman for the council, and Mrs. William Schmitz, ways and means chairman of Seaside PTA. The final meeting of the present correspondence course was held Tuesday morning with Mrs. Neal Stevenson, first district elementary extension chairman as the instructor, followed by luncheon at the Fish Shanty.

Mrs. Helen Schmitz was hostess for the regular Wednesday meeting of Las Vecinas sewing club, when the group welcomed back Pauline Doyle after a recent hospital confinement. Seaside members present were Mesdames Helen Buxton, Dotty Pomeroy, Betty Rowan, Mary Conover, Peg Hall, Winnie Mewborn, Pauline Doyle, Margaret Roettger and the hostess.

Now staying with the Walter Holloways on Doris Way, until their new home in Seaside Ranchos is completed are Mr. and Mrs. Warren G. Schenck and young son Gary, who have moved here from Santa Monica. Mrs. Schenck hails from London, England, a war bride who has been in this country for three and a half years. Before moving to the Los Angeles area where Mr. Schenck is employed at North America, they lived in Pennsylvania.

Why don't we show our new neighbors-to-be some of that Seaside friendliness? Due to the serious illness of Evelyn Hyder's mother, this column will be written by some of our old standbys for a while. Evelyn has asked me to tell everyone who has been so helpful, that everything has been greatly appreciated.

'Carmen Jones' To Open 5th

'Carmen Jones,' a musical play by Oscar Hammerstein II, will be the fifth and final production at the outdoor Greek Theater beginning Sept. 5. Early in 1943 Oscar Hammerstein II reached the highest mark of his career with "Oklahoma." And, in the same year, adapted Bizet's opera "Carmen" into a musical play. Outside of a few minor rephrasings, for purposes of theatrical comfort, the score has been left intact.

Carlotta Franzel, Robert Clarke, La Vern Hutcherson, Theresa Merritt, Freyre Marshall, Urylee Leonardos, Sheldon B. Hoskins, Edward Christopher are some of the principals of the original Broadway cast of "Carmen Jones," who will be seen in Gene Mann's production at the Greek Theater. Another highlight in the company of 100 will be Albert McNeil Choir Group who made such a hit in "Show Boat" which was presented at the Greek Theater earlier in the season. Zutty Singleton, big name drummer, also is featured.
