Worker Treated For Acid Burns

Robert Dearborn, of 24708 Pennsylvania avenue, was treated for acid burns at Torrance Memorial Hospital yesterday.

The Lomita resident suffered second degree burns on his feet and legs when he fell into a sulfuric acid vat at the Anderson & Carlson plant where he is employed, his doctor stated.

Teachers Get Sendoff at Luncheon Meeting Here

A welcoming salute to all the instructors in Torrance schools, who will begin teaching the youth of this city next Monday, was fired at a luncheon meeting yesterday in the Torrance Civic Auditorium.

Reflecting a new trend in Torrance school faculties, in the grades 5 and upward, approximately half of the members of the teaching staff are men.

Including the superintendent and assistant superintendent-business manager, there are now 153 members on the faculties of the six Torrance schools, and 40 of these teachers will be new to the district this year, it was reported.

Carrying out the "get acquainted" theme of the luncheon, every one of the 200 in attendance was introduced; the school executives, teachers, members of the advisory committee and their guests.

Dr. Hull gave an informative talk on the "Torrance Point of View in Education," in which he emphasized the need for taking into account the physical and emotional development of the child as well as his educational needs in planning a well-rounded training program.
