New Bumper Crop at Adult School

Enrollment for classes sponsored by the Torrance School of Adult Education reached 546 during the first week of operation. It was declared yesterday by Donald Manshaw, director of adult education for the school system here.

Students may enroll at any time during the semester, Manshaw stated, but they are urged to do so now in order that they may be assured a place in the class and have the benefit of the complete course.

HAIR-DO'S AND DON'TS . . . Proper hair styling for school wear was modeled at a style show at Torrance High School Tuesday morning. Bandanas, turbans and scarfs such as those worn by Joyce Perrett and Joni Wood (extreme right) were donned by the two models to show "Oh, no! Never at school! Not even on Friday." Friday is "dress-as-you-please-day." Other model teens are (top, left to right): Donna Jewell, Nadine Stitzel, Jackie King, Eleanor Young, Dolores Ulbright, Donna Hatfield, Elaine Rehwoldt, Grace Lafferty, Della Cooper. —Herald Photo.

Seaside Ranchos

By Mrs. Evelyn Hyder

Ruth Hanover returned last week from two weeks vacation in Sewickley, Pa., where she acted as matron of honor to her sister, Mrs. Bernard Imboden. She is the former Miss Laura Bulkeley. Ruth flew there and back in one of George Batchelor's planes (formerly of Seaside Ranchos, now located in Burbank). On the return trip they flew directly over Grand Canyon and Painted Desert.

Frank kept house while she was gone, and did a beautiful job of it. We heard that he really enjoyed his vacation, too.

Speaking of the George Batchelors, we heard that their little one, Patrick, swallowed the contents of a bottle of nose spray and there was some doubt as to whether he would live, but latest reports are that he is doing fine.

Among those attending the USC-Navy game were Colonel and Mrs. Paige and Lola, Wait and Bob Harris of Sharyne Lane. After the game Colonel and Mrs. Paige, accompanied by Commander and Mrs. R. B. Derickson, Long Beach, had cocktails at the Biltmore then dinner in the Biltmore Bowl.

Isabel Gaul entertained with a "Stanley" party in her home last Wednesday evening, the demonstration was given by Leah Johnston and those attending were: Mrs. Wayne Schooley, Mrs. Fred Knouse, Margaret Roettger, Mrs. Warren Boggs, Pat Drumright, Mrs. Mahaffey, Mrs. Ray Sleppey, Thelma Sheeky, Bea Mola, Evelyn Hyder, and Dorothy Johnson. Refreshments of cake, coffee, and ice cream were something to dream about, especially the cake.

sprained her ankle the other day but is getting along fine now. The sincere sympathy of everyone in the tract is extended to Carl Lavkins on the death of his father.

A little review of what took place at our Homeowners meeting last Thursday evening. Plans are being formed for our independently owned and operated playground, which would be financed by our streetlights were. This plan should be wholeheartedly accepted as it would benefit all residents including adults as well as children.

There was some discussion about traffic problems at the school which was brought up later at a meeting with Chief John H. Stroh. Results were that there were police at the school to reroute traffic Monday morning.

Sponsorship of Troop 1055 Girl Scouts, was signed by Ev Rowen, acting president.

The possibility of sponsoring a Boy Scout troop in the future was brought up by Byron Johnson, the responsibilities of such was explained by Paul Murray. Mr. Honzig was chosen to act as chairman to assist in getting together a troop of boys interested in Scouting.

Upon incorporating, our new name became "Seaside Homeowners Associated Incorporated."

Paul Roettger is to be complimented for obtaining the film on recreation which was shown to our group. Paul also stated that there would be a survey by Ferdinand Barr, Recreation Director for the State, on needs for recreation in the Torrance area.

Don't forget your P.T.A. Potluck tonight. Be seeing you there.
