TAKING PRIDE IN THEIR NEW SCHOOL... are these members of El Camino Junior College Faculty who "turned to" last Saturday to ready the new campus for Open House on Sunday and regular classes beginning Monday. Setting up the outdoor tables and umbrellas on the campus are Stanley F. Wilson, English teacher, in the foreground; Robert Englehart, also of the English department, holding the umbrella, and Donald C. Green of the speech and drama department in the background. ### GEORGE BRADFORD FLIES EAST ON BUSINESS TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Bordeaux, of Monterey Park and formerly of this city, arrived here Saturday evening in time to say goodbye to their brother-in-law George A. Bradford Jr., before his flight to Washington, D. C., where he was called on a business transaction for his firm, World Wide Tankers, Inc. Bradford recently accepted a position as port engineer with the company.

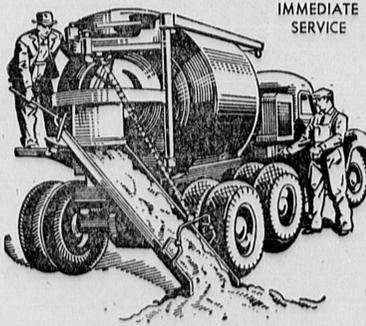

VERSATILE... is the word for Eva Rivas, Spanish teacher at El Camino who gave her students a demonstration in democracy by getting down on her knees to paint the new curbing in front of the college. (Staff Photo).

Darby Named As Delegate

Raymond V. Darby, of Inglewood, will be one of the 53 delegates from California at the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia on June 21, according to the Republican County Central Committee. Twenty-two of the 53 delegates from California will come from Los Angeles County. There will be seven delegates at large, four of whom come from this county—Edward S. Shattuck of Los Angeles; George L. Murphy of Hollywood; and Leonard Firestone and McIntyre Fairies, both of Beverly Hills. Fairies is a national committeeman.

Faculty Toils To Make Open House Success

Regular classes on the new college campus were instituted this week by El Camino Junior College following a week-end moving operation from Leuzinger High School, climaxed Sunday by an open house.

More than 2500 persons were estimated to have visited the new campus at Crenshaw and Redondo Beach boulevards for Sunday's open house, some arriving up until the 5 o'clock closing hour. Many students brought parents or relatives with them to see the new campus.

Preparations for Sunday's open house occupied the attention of every member of the faculty from President Forest G. Muddock on down, and many of the students as well. Faculty members turned to with rakes and hoes to help level the courtyard area around the walks between buildings, to paint curbs to regulate parking of automobiles, and in countless other ways.

This week both faculty and students settled down to the routine of classes, which formerly have been held from 8 to 10 p.m. at the Leuzinger school campus. A number of Torrance students are attending the new junior college and many more plan to attend next year.

During Sunday's open house several students who will graduate from high school this year were observed filling out entry blanks for the next college term.
