Perry School PTA Installs Officers At Interesting Meet

Perry School PTA held its final meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon in the school auditorium. Mrs. A. B. Cowie, president, opened the meeting and a short musical program was presented by the pupils.

Violin selections by Linda Van Bellehem and Mary Cowie were enthusiastically received. Posters stressing the importance of the Torrance school bond issue were distributed and everyone was urged to vote in its favor on June 10.

Fathers and mothers are urged to assist with the musical program for students being sponsored by the Band Mothers Club.

Elected to the Council breakfast committee were Mmes. Hedgecock, Pickler and Mitchell. Mrs. C. H. Turner installed the new officers in an impressive ceremony and instructed and advised the new officers and inspired them to an active and helpful new year.

Officers installed to serve during the year are:

Mrs. A. B. Cowie, who was unanimously re-elected as president; Mrs. T. A. Pickler, secretary; Mr. M. Van Bellehem, vice-president; Mrs. I. Winther, treasurer; Mrs. M. Sowle, historian; Robert Morton, auditor.

Mrs. A. B. Cowie, who served as delegate to the Sacramento conference gave an amusing and comprehensive account of the trip and convention activities. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Frances Barrington Home From College, to Texas Convention

Miss Frances Barrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington, of 2368 Torrance boulevard, arrived yesterday from Mills College on her summer vacation.

She was accompanied by her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. Mrs. J. A. Barrington, who had been on a week's business trip in Northern California.

Miss Frances will accompany her parents when they leave Saturday for Dallas, Texas to attend a convention of the National Oil Mills superintendents. Mrs. Barrington has been appointed by the national president to serve on the women's entertainment committee for the convention.

Peckham-Wilimovsky Tell Wedding Vows Saturday

By MARY VONDERAHE

In a pretty candlelight ceremony performed Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Peckham at 1518 Post avenue, their son Robert S. Peckham took as his bride the lovely Miss Florence Wilimovsky, daughter of C. A. Wilimovsky, noted Los Angeles artist. Rev. C. E. Ruckman, pastor of First Methodist church officiated in the presence of the immediate families of the principals.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully attired in blond satin with matching accessories. Her costume was complemented by a beautiful bouquet of green orchids.

Mrs. H. P. Williams, of this city, was her sister's attendant and George Peckham Jr. attended his brother as best man.

An informal reception for intimate friends of the couple and their families followed the ceremony. Upon their return from a honeymoon at Yosemite National Park, Mr. and Mrs. Peckham will make their home in Torrance, where he is employed with his father's firm, Schultz & Peckham.

ELEMENTARY PTA CONCLUDES SUCCESSFUL YEAR WITH INTERESTING PROGRAM, MUSIC

The final pre-vacation meeting of Torrance Elementary P.T.A. was held Thursday afternoon in the school auditorium with Mrs. Elmer S. Moon presiding.

Following the flag salute Mrs. Moon presented Mrs. W. E. Bowen, president of the Torrance P.T.A. Council, who installed the officers who will serve during the ensuing year. Mrs. Bowen gave an inspirational message to those who will carry out aims and serve as officers. Beautiful corsages of pastel sweet peas were presented the group by Mrs. George Tappin, hospitality chairman. Mrs. Tappin presented Mrs. Moon with a beautiful topaz and gold pin from the members of the executive board in appreciation for her understanding and cooperative leadership during the year.

An interesting review of the year's activities and accomplishments was given by Mrs. Joe Kalina, historian.

W. E. Clinkenbeard, principal, spoke briefly on the school bond election scheduled for June 4 and thanked the association for their donation of $25.00 to the campaign fund. He stressed the importance of using the P.T.A. question box at meetings to assist the executive board in obtaining recommendations from all members.

Highlights of the three-day C.C.P.T. convention in Sacramento were reported by the P.T.A. delegate, Mrs. Luke Nickel.

A card party is to be held in the near future, according to Mrs. Verne Barlow, ways and means chairman.

Climaxing the meeting were the lovely solos sung by Mrs. Nickel accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Verna Brumbelow. She sang "Give Me One Hour," (Rudolf Friml); "Devotion," (Robert Schumann) and "A Love Story," Genevieve Wiley.
