DISTILLERIES CRITICIZED

The Toronto Daily Star recently criticized the vast profits (up to 80 per cent) of one of Canada's richest distilling corporations. "More and more whiskey," says the Star, "and yet people are starving."

Haldale PTA Installs Officers Thursday Afternoon

Nazarene church was the setting for the June meeting of Haldale Avenue PTA Thursday afternoon. Mrs. H. T. Seaman presided.

Highlights of the session included installation of officers and the presentation of a life membership to Mrs. Amanda Bonwell, school principal.

Program included: pledge of allegiance, led by Mrs. Charles Humphrey, followed by community singing; history of the organization, by Mrs. Robert Lenton; presentation of the publicity book, Mrs. Don Wolf; report of the state convention, Mrs. H. T. Seaman; skit by board members and presentation of a life membership to Mrs. Bonwell. Presentation of a gift to Mrs. Seaman by Mrs. E. M. Bernardin concluded the session.

Officers, installed by Mrs. John Garner, 10th District news-ette chairman, assisted by Mrs. Don Wolf, Mesdames H. T. Seaman, president; E. M. Bernardin and Amanda Bonwell, vice presidents; J. Andrade, recording secretary; E. Simerly, financial secretary; Charles Howry, treasurer; W. R. Lewis, auditor; Robert Lenton, historian and Leslie Smith, parliamentarian.

Handcraft and paintings, exhibited in the tea room, showed outstanding achievement of Haldale pupils.

Tea was served by board members with Mrs. Don Gray, room mother chairman and her committee in charge of arrangements.

New, Easy Way To Treat & BEAUTIFY DRY, BRITTLE HAIR

Dandruff, Itching Scalp, Loss of Hair, Immediate Improvement Or Money Back

Thousands afflicted with dry, brittle hair, broken, split ends, dandruff, itching scalp, hair color, and excessive loss of hair, are raving about the immediate, noticeable results from SHONTEX. This new medicated hair and scalp home treatment. Quick, easy to use — works like a hot oil treatment, yet requires no heat. Costs only pennies.

Applied before the shampoo, SHONTEX helps correct the cause of dandruff, and relieves itching scalp at once; scalp feels healthy and hygienically clean. Used AFTER and IN-BETWEEN shampoos, makes dull, dry, frizzy hair soft — easy to arrange, by maintaining normal hair moisture. Brings out natural highlights — leaves hair youthful looking. Wonderful for bleached or dyed hair. Makes lovelier permanents; waves last longer. Helps hair grow.

Used by leading movie studios and beauty parlors, SHONTEX keeps hair smoothly groomed — won't rub off — so ideal for men, too. Mrs. Dean L. Sears' home was the attractive setting for the delightfully informal luncheon which followed the last meeting of the group.

186th Street PTA Installs Officers for Year 1948-49

Thursday afternoon, June 10, 186th St. PTA installation meeting was held at the school. Mrs. Leo Wagner, president, conducted the business session.

Mrs. J. J. Millard, Tenth District treasurer, served as installing officer.

Mrs. Wagner presented each of the new officers with a blue and gold fan expressing the theme "Keep Fanning the Flames of PTA." The fan contained pictures of the faculty and new and retiring presidents. New officers are Mesdames James A. Gauley, president; Leon Meskimen, first vice president; Kay Davis, second vice president; Oliver Lane, secretary; Ernest Tanner, treasurer; Cleveland Hines, historian; Robert Brannon, auditor and Leo Wagner, parliamentarian.

PTA members viewed the press book compiled by Mrs. Harold Armstrong, press chairman. The book received honorable mention within the Gardena-Wilmington Council.

Mrs. Samuel Dow, historian, gave a very complete report on all the PTA activities during the past year.

Noel Scotte, janitor at the school, was presented with a coconut lamb cake by Mrs. Wagner for the splendid cooperation he had given the PTA.

Mrs. James A. Gauley, incoming president, gave a short report on the state convention held in Sacramento.

William Loftus, teacher at 186th Street will be in charge of playground activities at the school this summer. He will also teach some classes in crafts.

At the board meeting preceding the afternoon session members outlined plans to meet during the summer to make choir robes for the Glee Club. Sponsors of the project are the PTA and the school.

Another project discussed was the payment of the milk bill for the year of the 186th Street School. It would be the association's share in assisting with the Tenth District PTA feeding program.
