WEDDING PLANS REVEALED HERE BY ORCUTT PAIR

Engagements and wedding plans top the society news of our community this month. Among the impending weddings is that of Robert Kenneth Hooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Hooper of 2131 W. 248th street and Miss Barbara Jane Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Miller, 265 North Broadway, Orcutt, Calif.

Planning to be married in July in Santa Maria, the couple have many friends in that city. The bride-elect attended Santa Maria High School and her fiancé is employed by the National Supply Co. at Orcutt.

Mrs. Hooper, mother of the bridegroom-elect, is employed at Hinckley's Market.

Torrance Council PTA at Inaugural Breakfast Meet

Marking the inauguration of an annual breakfast installation meetings for Torrance Council, First District, CCPT., Perry School PTA entertained in the school cafeteria Tuesday morning.

Centerpieces for the breakfast tables were bird houses on standards surrounded by massed arrangements of garden flowers, the whole encircled by low white picket fences. Diminutive replicas of the houses served as favors, marking places for approximately 100 guests. Table decorations were completed by committees from Torrance high school, Torrance elementary, Walteria and Fern avenue PTA units.

Assisting Perry Avenue PTA hostesses with serving were the Perry PTA sponsored Girl Scout Troop.

At the conclusion of breakfast Mrs. Neal Stevenson, elementary extension chairman of First District as installing officer, inducted Mrs. W. E. Bowen and her staff, who will serve Torrance Council PTA during 1948-49.

Officers who will serve with Mrs. Bowen are: Mesdames W. C. Graham and E. Janssen, vice-presidents; George Leech, E. S. Moon and I. O. Kasten, secretaries; Paul Stonecker, treasurer; H. Van Bellehem, historian and B. J. Michels, parliamentarian.

Featured speakers included Mrs. E. G. Kemp, First District program chairman, whose topic was, "The School and Local Units Working Together" and Abe Milstein, music director of Torrance schools, who briefly discussed the current school band bond issue.

Annual reports were given by Mesdames V. T. Vanderpool, Fern Avenue; B. J. Michels, Walteria; E. S. Moon, Torrance Elementary; A. B. Cowie, Perry; George E. Baer, representing Mrs. A. C. Turner, Torrance High School.

The business meeting was interspersed with delightful musical selections by Rudolph Bowen, marimba soloist; and Dean and Dwean Cox, twin brothers in a well received program of western songs.

J. F. F. Club Elects Officers, Honors Matron at Meeting

The regular meeting of the JFF Club of Walteria was held Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. John Minor.

Officers elected for the coming year were: Mrs. John Minor, president; Mrs. Paul Stonecker, vice-president; Mrs. Roy Palmer, secretary, and Mrs. Edith Buckingham, treasurer. The next meeting will be a dinner at Knott's Berry Farm on Wednesday, July 7.

The meeting at Mrs. Minor's home was also the occasion for a stork shower honoring Mrs. Earl Sanders. Many beautiful gifts were presented. Refreshments were served.

Present were: Mesdames John Minor, Eva Kelly, Henry Conze, Nettie Phillips, Philip Haun, Della Armstrong, Lorine Harline, O. O. Hayes, Roy Palmer, J. W. Laughridge, Earl Sanders, Paul Stonecker, and Miss Peggy Baker.

Catholic Party to Be Benefit for New Convent

Mrs. Anna McIntier will serve as hostess chairman for this evening's Catholic Ladies weekly card party, which will be a benefit for the new convent.

Assisting Mrs. McIntier with party arrangements will be Mesdames Catena, Cunningham, Murray, Alford, Arnold, Fichter, Jessome, Winkler, Estes, Gillon, Tussey, Clemens, Faren, Panelli and Miss Terry McIntier.

The customary games will be played and the first door prize will be awarded at 8:00 o'clock. At the close of play prizes will be awarded and the ladies will serve delicious refreshments. Everyone is cordially invited.

Townsend Club No. 1 Plans Observance of Members' Birthdays

Dancing and bunco will feature the birthday celebration tomorrow evening in Torrance Woman's clubhouse. To be honored are members of Torrance Townsend Club No. 1 whose birthdays occur in June.

Bunco play will begin at 7:30 and at 8:15 music for old time and modern dancing will begin. A capacity gathering is expected to participate in the festivities and enjoy birthday cake and other party fare. Everyone is invited to attend these increasingly popular weekly parties.

ANNUAL REQUIREMENTS

Medical authorities estimate that at least 3,700,000 pints of blood will be required each year to meet the nation's need in blood therapy. This demand results from remarkable discoveries made in recent years about blood and its uses in the prevention and treatment of disease.
