

BON VOYAGE PARTY HONORS OLIVE DICKSON

A 'Bon Voyage party Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Church on 251st street came as a complete surprise to Mrs. Olive Dickson of Hermosa Beach, field director for the Harbor Section Girl Scouts for the past four years.

Mrs. Dickson, who has endeared herself to a large group of leaders and Girl Scouts in the entire Los Angeles district, will sail in August for China to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Downs and two children in Shanghai.

In the group were Mrs. Grace Wright, Torrance District; Mrs. Evelyn McDonald, San Pedro District chairman; Mrs. Adelaide Moxan, Wilmington District chairman; Mrs. Sue Platky, Gardena District chairman; Mrs. Sally Kirsch, Lomita, training representative; Mrs. Rose Jones, harbor section leaders' association president; Margery Getz, secretary of leaders' association; Mrs. Cherrie Baratta, neighborhood chairman, Harbor City; Mrs. Carol Humphreys, neighborhood chairman, Torrance and Mrs. Church, Harbor Section chairman.

MR. AND MRS. GERALD HEADLEY Honeymooning at Lake Tahoe . . .

White gladioli, delphinium and greenery graced the chancel of the church and the soft glow of the tall white tapers lent an air of solemnity for the service, which united in marriage the former Marceline Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Walton of 28244 Athena street

D. J. THOMSENS ENTERTAIN AT LUNCHEON FOLLOWING CHRISTENING OF INFANT SON

The christening of their son, Thomas Frederick, at 11 o'clock Sunday morning in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, was the incentive for an attractively appointed luncheon when Mr. and Mrs. Delbert J. Thomsen, of 1447 El Prado, entertained honoring the baby's godparents.

At the dining table lovingly with an arrangement of pansies and other garden flowers, covers were placed for Miss Evelyn Halladay of Long Beach, and Walter O. Clausing and Ralph Rugraff, of this city, godparents; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meacham, of Lomita and Mrs. T. F. Thomsen, of Torrance, the baby's grandparents; Mrs. Walter O. Clausing and Mrs. Ralph Rugraff, and the hosts.
