Schwenk-Sutton Exchange Vows in Yuma Ceremony

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends was news of the marriage of Miss Donna Marie Sutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Sutton, of 2418 Torrance boulevard and Leroy Schwenk, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Schwenk, of 3723 1/2 Garnet street.

The couple exchanged wedding vows in an early morning ceremony performed last Sunday in Yuma, Ariz. by Rev. George W. Kew.

The bride was a member of the June '48 graduating class of Torrance High School and her bridegroom was graduated from the same school with the class of winter '47. He is employed at Torrance postoffice as a clerk-carrier.

Temporarily Mr. and Mrs. Schwenk are residing at the home of her parents.

ON EXTENDED VACATION

Mrs. Ila Mae Gilbert leaves today for three months vacation with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Billings, of Shrewsbury, Mass. Mrs. Gilbert also will visit relatives and friends in New Hampshire and Vermont during the summer.

Nuptials Recited By Local Couple Before 350 Guests

In a beautiful candlelight ceremony in the First Methodist Church of San Pedro, Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Murray Little, 26329 Monte Vista avenue, became the bride of Harvey A. Washburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Washburn, of 25007 Walnut street.

White wedding bells suspended from an archway resplendent in white and white flowers and flanked by a large basket of white dahlias was the setting for the exchange of vows. Pink flowers placed in the bows at the pew ends, basket of gladiolus and the soft candlelight throughout the church, completed the bridal effect.

Dr. Wendell Miller, pastor of the University Methodist church at Los Angeles, and a close friend of the bride's family, read the double-ring service.

The bride, who has been active in Masonic circles for several years throughout the harbor area, was escorted down the carpeted aisle by her father. She was attired in a gown of white slipper satin with a pearl-trimmed lace yoke cut en train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a pearl and orange blossom halo and she carried a bouquet of white gladiolus surrounding a detachable white orchid.

The bridal attendants wore organza in pastel shades with matching heart-shaped hats. Mrs. Lynn Johnson, matron of honor, chose pink and carried matching roses. Mrs. Burton Washburn and Mrs. Emil Lubben, bridesmaids, wore yellow and blue respectively and their bouquets were of tallismans roses.

Just before the ceremony the Misses Deben Upton and Charlene Blake lighted the tall tapers and Miss Edna Sandstrom sang "Always" and "Because" accompanied at the organ by Donald Carter.

Attending his brother as best man was Burton Washburn Jr. and his best man was Jack Benne.

A reception in Friendship Hall for the 350 guests followed with the bride and bridegroom receiving the guests.

The long refreshment table was centered with the five-tiered wedding cake surrounded by double hollyhock blooms, tall candles with silver appointments in the candlesticks and flower bowls. Members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church served coffee and punch with the cake.

In charge of the reception and cutting the cake was Mrs. Gene Edwards with members of Kappa Omega sorority serving the large guest group.

Mr. and Mrs. Washburn are now enjoying a month's trip which is taking them to Paradise, California; Salt Lake City, Utah; Reno, Nevada and points farther north. Upon their return they will reside in their newly-purchased home in Oakland.

Mrs. Washburn has been employed for several years by the Hugh Wadsworth Corporation in San Pedro. She is a past matron of the Order of Eastern Star; past grand guardian of the Harbor District, International Order of Job's Daughters and a member of the Order of Amaranth. She is graduate of Compton Junior College.

Mr. Washburn has served ten years with the U. S. Army and is, at present, a civilian fireman at the U. S. Navy training station at Point Mugu.

Officers who will serve Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, during the ensuing year were installed in a beautifully impressive ceremony Wednesday evening in Civic Auditorium.

Floor work was exemplified by a drill team composed of Torrance Chapter members, all of whom wore pastel formal. Grand officers were Loretta Payne of Los Angeles, installing regent; Bertha Smits, grand guide; and Bertha Davis, grand chaplain, the latter two of Compton Chapter, and Lucille Meyer, grand musician, of Torrance Chapter. Attractive large baskets of spring flowers, arranged by Senior Regent Ila Mae Ambach enhanced the setting. Mrs. Ambach was recipient of a beautiful rhinestone necklace and earrings, presented by her co-workers, whose membership had exceeded the hundred mark during her capable leadership.

Special guest was Bessie Lovett, member of the Grand Council, who gave a splendid talk. Lunais were filled by members of Loyal Order of Moose until the few officers were installed.

Margaret Dawson, Vivian Dallimore Feted At Party

A double birthday anniversary party for Mrs. Margaret Dawson and Mrs. Vivian Dallimore was celebrated Sunday in Torrance City Park.

Following a picnic lunch featuring two birthday cakes and coffee the group was entertained by music furnished by a string quartet composed of Slim Lumberger, Shorty Dawson, Zola Thompson and Ed Dougherty.

Present were Messrs. and Mrs. Art Viau, Shorty Dawson and Gary; Ed Dougherty, Walter Dallimore, Ray Thompson, Tommy and Billy; Curly Leighton, Eugene Luthy, Mmes. Peggy Wilson, Esther Dandoy and children, Esther, Aramos and Eric; Ida Lowell, Peggy Brown; and Alvin Overacker and Slim Lumberger.

CONSTANCE MARTOIS ON TRIP TO HAWAII

Leaving last night via Pan American Airlines for a vacation in Hawaii, was Miss Constance Martois, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Martois of 2269 West 23rd street. Miss Martois will be the guest of a former college roommate, Miss Marguerite Grace, in Honolulu. After exploring the island of Oahu, the two young women will visit Hawaii, the largest of the islands, which is noted for its lofty volcanoes. Miss Grace will return to the mainland with Miss Martois on the Matson steamship Lurline, which sails from Honolulu July 14.

South Bay Fuchsia Club Wins Award at Pasadena Show

Many ribbons were bestowed on branches of the National Fuchsia Society of America at the flower show in Brookside Park, Pasadena last Saturday.

The South Bay branch received a special award for the booth exhibit where Mrs. Fay Grier, chairman, Mrs. Minnie Holman, C. A. Anderson, Frank Breen, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Poggel worked diligently to make this an outstanding show. The booth, approximately 10 cubic feet in size, was covered with trailing ivy. The vines made an adequate shelter for the shade plants grown by members of the South Bay branch. A life-size pelican on the sands representing the South Bay beach. The hanging basket fuchsia "Redondo" made a prominent setting for its award, a red ribbon.

Officials and judges agreed that the show was impressive in that 290 varieties of fuchsias were displayed while many seedlings are not yet named, 260 were. There were some 40 different types of ferns and a wide variety of begonias, orchids and foliage plants.

The Fairclo trophy cup went to the Orange County branch for having the best branch booth. It held a fine display of fuchsias, begonias, ferns and exotic shade plants. All booths received ribbons for individual plant displays. Enthusiastic crowds proved the popularity of all booths.
