

PLAN PHILANTHROPIC PROJECT . . . Members of the executive board of Torrance Woman's Club complete plans for a garden luncheon and card party to be held at the home of Mrs. R. R. Smith, 2004 Carson street, on Friday, Aug. 13. Proceeds will be devoted to the Foundation for Prevention of Infantile Paralysis. Pictured are: left to right, Mrs. B. T. Whitney, ways and means chairman; Mrs. R. R. Smith, past president and hostess for the garden party;

Mrs. A. E. Palmer, philanthropic chairman; Mrs. W. I. Laughon, club president and Mrs. C. M. Crook, who will take luncheon reservations for the party. (Staff photo.)

To Observe Anniversary

Members of Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, will observe the anniversary of the chapter with a dinner to be served in Masonic Temple at 6:30 this evening. Edna Babeock, worthy matron and Vincent Viellenave, worthy patron, will preside. Chairman of arrangements for the dinner meet will be Clara Connor. A full attendance is anticipated. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Florence Viellenave, Torrance 173-J.

NARBONNE PTA RATIFIES NEW CHAIRMEN

The ratification of chairmen for Narbonne High School PTA for the coming year was the principal business following a picnic at Lomita Park last week. Meeting at 10:30 a.m., Mrs. John Shields, president, was in charge of the business meeting followed by a picnic lunch at noon. Chairmen ratified included Mmes. Helen Kyllingstad, membership; Cherry Coates, magazines; Hattie Schroeder, public welfare; Verna Gowdy, publicity; W. E. Jeffery, tea hostess; H. Morrison, co-hostess; E. Erickson, co-education; A. W. Benedict, health; J. Eader, music; H. W. Nansel, parent-education; Don Wolf, life membership and Founder's Day; C. M. Thomas, home service; W. Madison, hospitality; Minot Rugg, program; LaPorte, achievements; John Shields, community chest; Hattie Schroeder, student aid; B. McFarland, clippings; Carl Smithens, phone.

The School of Information was announced for Sept. 1 at Narbonne High School and all chairmen and officers must attend to receive instruction in their particular chairmanship or office, it was stated. Attending the picnic meeting were Mmes. John Shields, W. Rugg, Retta Nelson, Carl Smithens, E. G. Spratt, Hattie Schroeder, W. E. Jeffery, H. W. Nansel and Don Wolf.

Walteria PTA Members Hold Bunco Party

Most Parent-Teacher members are aware of their responsibility and so throughout the summer months events are held to raise funds to carry on the work of this most necessary nationwide organization. Walteria is one group which conscientiously keeps the wheels of the association moving locally.

A recent bunco party held at the home of Mrs. Anne Loug-ridge at 24059 Ocean avenue was a very enjoyable event followed by the serving of refreshments to the following players: Mesdames Nettie Phillips, Eva Kelley, Helen Conze, Bessie Slonecker, Nora Venable, Barbara Tardalen of Walteria; Margaret Rottinger, Seaside Ranchos; Katherine Elnicka, New York City, N.Y., and Ruth Ritchie of Los Angeles. Helen Conze and Bessie Slonecker won prizes in the afternoon games.

HARBOR CITY BIBLE SCHOOL UNDERWAY NOW

The Daily Vacation Bible School of the Harbor City Four-square church attracted a large number of children when it opened this week on Monday morning. Present plans call for a five day a week school, Monday through Friday, for two weeks. Rev. Marion Piles, church pastor, is in charge and assisting her is Rev. Winifred Golder of Wilmington. School begins at 9 a.m.

GOOD NEWS FOR CAMPUS AFFAIRS

Jonathan Logan SMART CHIC

COLLEGIATE DRESSES

. . . have arrived at Benson's

Greet the new Fall with a "New Look" Johnathan Logan Collegiate dress that does so much for you! You'll be the siren of the season in one of these ultra-smart frocks in fine crepes, taf-fetas, failles, wools . . . what with their discreet touches of drapery, pleating, peplums. Come in today and see these fall dresses in the new toupe, black, grey and brilliant blue! We know you'll "fall" in love with them!

$14.95

SIZES 19 to 15

BENSON'S

1271 Sartori Ave. Torrance

• Los Angeles • Inglewood • Glendale • Maywood • Florence • Burbank • Hollywood • Long Beach • Bellflower • San Diego, 2 stores

CLUBWOMEN SET DATE FOR GALA GARDEN FETE

At a meeting of the executive board of Torrance Woman's Club held Monday morning at the home of their president, Mrs. W. I. Laughon, plans were formulated for a club-sponsored garden luncheon to be held Friday, Aug. 13.

The attractive garden of Mrs. R. R. Smith's home at 2004 Carson street, will be the setting for the 12:30 o'clock luncheon to be followed by contract bridge and pinocle. Everyone is invited.

Entire proceeds of the benefit affair will be allocated to the Foundation for Prevention of Infantile Paralysis, it was announced by Mrs. B. T. Whitney, ways and means chairman.

Tallies at $1.00 each may be procured from club members. Reservations may be made by calling Torrance 1060 not later than Wednesday, Aug. 11.

Summer House Is Setting for Club Luncheon

Members of Mrs. J. W. Post's bridge club were her guests at an enjoyable patio luncheon Thursday afternoon.

Colorful zinnias decorated the tables set for Mesdames J. S. Lancaster, Grover C. Whyte, R. J. Deininger, J. R. Klink Sr., C. C. Schultz, George Peckham and C. T. Rippy.

High score holders at contract were Mesdames Lancaster and Klink.

Women's Activities . . .

August 6, 1948

Torrance, California

Section B

TORRANCE GROUP AT PICNIC FOR 1,000 SATURDAY

Representing Torrance Bethel No. 50 at the picnic in Griffith Park Saturday, sponsored by Southern California Association, International Order of Job's Daughters, were Gladys Evans, deputy grand guardian; Walter Evans, associate guardian and Grace Ashley, guardian secretary-treasurer. The above named officers served as chaperones for 15 members of Gardena Bethel No. 112. They are serving as acting guardian, acting associate guardian and acting secretary-treasurer, respectively of Gardena Bethel.

Games, contests and prizes were features of the picnic in Pepper Tree Lane attended by more than 1000, including Job's Daughters and their parents.

The Bethel colors, purple and white, were effectively used in the banner of the order and repeated in the floral table decorations and streamers.

Mrs. Evans was hostess to the Grand Guardian of the State of California Alice Swensen, of San Francisco during her recent visit in the southland.

Complimenting her house guest, Mrs. Evans entertained at an attractively appointed tea at her home, 1668 W. 216th street.

Among the guests bidden was Perry Johnson, associate guardian of Long Beach.

Many Affairs Are Given For Popular Voyagers

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jones, of 2118 Martina avenue, who left this week for six months' visit with relatives and friends in Wales, have been much feted by their friends. Mrs. Jones was complimented at an intimate luncheon arranged last week by Mrs. Fred Finsner at her Beech avenue home.

A blue color scheme used for the luncheon floral linens was repeated in the floral centerpiece. A lovely going-away gift was presented Mrs. Jones, Mrs. M. A. Russell and Mrs. John Keefe completed the foursome.

J. F. F. Club Seats Officers at Evening Meeting

The home of Mrs. E. Minor, 23842 Park street, Walteria, was a setting for a meeting of the JFF Club Tuesday evening.

Officers who will serve the organization during 1948-49 were introduced as follows:

Mrs. E. Minor, president; Mrs. Bessie Slonecker, vice president; Mrs. E. Palmer, secretary and Mrs. E. Buckingham, treasurer.

Next affair for the group will be a trip to Knott's Berry Farm.

Mrs. L. Harlene will open her home on Los Codona avenue for the next business meeting on Sept. 21, when the ladies will sew for Los Angeles County Harbor General Hospital.

At the conclusion of the business session Tuesday evening delicious refreshments were served to Mesdames Eva Kelley, L. Haub, Anne Loughbridge, E. Buckingham, E. Palmer, Nettie Phillips, M. French, L. Lassen, Helen Conze and V. Sanders.

Mrs. Regis C. Jones Accepts Office in Junior Woman's Club

On Friday July 30, the Juniors met at the home of President Mrs. Earl Clayton to accept with much regret the resignation of Mrs. J. H. Hull, as first vice-president and to elect Mrs. Regis C. Jones to the office. Mrs. Jones served as membership chairman for the Juniors last year.

A committee was appointed to answer the appeal from Washington state Federation of Junior Women's Clubs for the rehabilitation of flood relief victims consisting of collection of children's clothing. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Clayton at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cheeseman, of San Pedro and formerly of Torrance, entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Jones at dinner Wednesday night of last week. Covers also were placed for Miss Harriet Lininger, Miss Joan Cheeseman, a student at University of California at Berkeley and her younger sister, Miss Janet Cheeseman.

Cards furnished the evening diversion. Another delightful affair given for the popular couple was a dinner party at the San Pedro home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mitchell.

Other guests were the honoree's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd G. Jones, of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chalton, of San Pedro.

GLENN EIPPERS WELCOME BABY DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Elpper of 26315 Regent avenue are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter born Tuesday, Aug. 3 at Community Hospital, Long Beach. Named Marie Ann, she is the grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Elpper of 25338 Pennsylvania avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kintchsi of Edwald, Wash.

What does YOUR CHILD SEE?

So much depends upon what your child sees and how he sees it! If letters run together before his eyes, figures become scrambled . . . learning will be difficult, progress slow. Don't let poor vision handicap your child.

OUR PRICES ARE VERY REASONABLE

Dr. G. E. Cosgrove
OPTOMETRIST
135 S. Pacific — Redondo Beach
Phone Frontier 6045

PORTER'S YARDAGE house
1265 Sartori Avenue • Torrance

When PORTERS Has a Sale — it IS a SALE!

Woven Chambrays, Shirtings, Printed Butcher linens, Woven Checked Gingham, Spun Rayons and others regularly up to $1.49 at only —

88¢ yd

Lovely Better Rayons in cool Bemberg Prints. Latest light and dark background patterns. Regularly up to $2.98 at only

125¢ yd